President Grant.

The policy of Gen. Grant in reference to the North Carolina out-laws must be re-assuring to all order loving citizens of the republic, inasmuch as it goes to confirm-the popular idea, that in Gen. Grant we have a president who will carry out the intention of the framers of the constitution in protecting in his rights every citizen within the bounds of our national domain

The time has arrived, when professional political assassius are to be dealt with by the national government, in the manner that all civilized governments deal with public enemies; from now on the conciliatory poliey will find no advocates, except among the accomplicies of the criminals and a few old ladies of both sexes, who are about as useful in forming the destinies of the nation as the mess on the eak is to its growth

We believe, that every reflecting man that is free from party prejudice and male volence must give his assent to the energe-tic action of the President in dealing with the organized bands of democratic fiends, that have outraged humanity in North and South Carolina.

Our democratic exchanges are filled with denunciations of the President for suspending the writ of Habeas Corpus and declaring martial law; but we ask, in what other uer can secret conclaves of robbers and thieves, who carry on their profess under the mask of cowardice, be brought to the bar of public justice.

The remedy may be sharp, but the dis ease is despurated. The patience of the American people has long since become exhausted in the expectation, that the Southern people might yet realize the fact. that eccurity to life and property is due every citizen from his particular State government.

The democracy may therefore howl about despetism until its throaterseks and lukewarm republicans may squint toward a warm replacements may square to ward a third party until they become blind, they will not change the policy of the President and the people, viz: securing to each and every American citizen enjoyment of his rights under the constitution

WE call the attention of all those who may concern, to the following law, which was passed last April. The pecau-erop of Texas is of great value, and we hear many complaints of persons cutting down trees and otherwise rendering themselves liable

An Act for the protection of the growth of pecan timber. Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, That any person who shall out or otherwise destroy a pecan tree or any land not his own or without direct and specific authority in writing from the owner, in any county, or the territory belonging to any county, or the territory belonging to any county, shall be held guilty of a misslemeanor and punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty deliars, to be recovered before any Justice of the Peace having ed before any Justice of the Peace havin or more any swatter of the Peace having jurisdiction of the same, for every offense; or in default of payment, shall be imprisured in the county jail for not less than one month, nor more than two menths, for each offense with labor on the profite roads.

Sec. 2. Dat the fines to be collected un-Sec. 2. That the fines to be collected under this act, one-half ler this act, one-half shall go to the jo termer and the other half to the county treasurer, for county purposes.

Sec. 3. That the prosecution and conviction under this net shall not but the right of the owner of the land, his agent or tenant, from proceeding in a civil suit against the off-sheers for the recovery of damage.

Sec. 4. That any person contracting for delivery of timber, and receiving pecunitimber under such delivery of limber, and receiving preau-timber under such contract shall be held in the same penacties as the party cutting the same, if the land on which such timber my belonges to neither of the parties contracting.

Sec. 5. That this Act také effect and be in force from and after its passage.
Approved April 20, 1871.

Boss Tween, the champion thief, has about got to the and of his rope, and his recent arrest and the clinching proofs of his villiany are too much for even his-O'Conner, has undertaken his prosecution on behalf of the people, the culprit has been arrested and placed under heavy bond for awinding. This is one of the most cheering signs of the times.

It is very significant of the fact that now criminals are punished, and that, too, regardless of color or politics.

The number of votes has been increased by more than 11,000. There were 8600 more Democratic votes rolled than in 1869. Here is an opportunity for the third party men to put then heads together. In the entire State there were 44,000 more votes cast than there were for two years. In the Third District the number of voters have been increased by 19,000. The Republican ine is 11,000.

hen our country exchanges are hard up for a local item, they get off something like this. Mr. Jones has kindly presented us with a limb, broken from one of his China trees. The end of the limb is cover ed with fine, healthy, well developed ber of a light yellow color, and soft to the touch; they have a slightly acid smell, but not disagreable. The China tree is one of our hardiest cereals, and to bear well, the young trees should never be trimed. THECAUSE AND CURE OF CONSUMP-TION.—The primary cause of Consumption is derangement of the digestive organs. This derangement produces deficient nutrition and assimilation. By assimilation I mean that process by which the nutrition and assimilation. By assimilation I mean that process by which the nutrition and there into the solids of the bedy. Persons with digestion thus inhaired, having the slightest pre-disposition to pulmonary disease, or if they take, cold, will be very liable to have Consumption of the Lungs in some of its forms; and I hold that it, will be impossible to cure any case of Contumption without first restoring a good digestion and healthy assimilation. The very first thing to be done is to cleanse the stomach and bowels from all diseased meres and slime, which is clogging these organs so that they cannot perform their functions, and then rose up and restores the liver to a healthy action. For this purpose the surest and best removed is Schenck's Mandrake Pulls. These Pills clean the stomach and bowels of all the dead—and morbid sime that is causing disease and decay in the whole system. They will-teem out their iver orgal diseased a new and healthy action, by which natural and healthy action, by which natural and healthy either incorrect. disease and urea;
They will clear out the liver of all diseases, a new and healthy action, by which natural and healthy bite is secreted.
The stomach, bowelf, and liver are thus al and healthy bits is accreted.

The stomach, lowest, and liver are thus cleaned by the use of Schemeh's Mandrahas Pills; but there remains in the stomach an excess of acid, the organ is torpid and the appetite poor. In the lowels the lastesis are weak, and requiring strength and support. It is in a condition like this that Schemeh's Scaveded Tonic proves to be the most valuable remedy ever discovered. It is alkaline, and its use will seutralize all excess of seld, making the stomach sweet and fresh; it will give permanent tone to this important organ, and erente a good, hearty argestite, and prepare the system for the first process of a good digestion, and uttimately make good, healthy, living blood. After this preparatory treatment, what remains fo cure most cases of Consumption is the free, and preserving use of Schemeh's Pulmonic Syrup. The Pulmonic Syrup neurishes the system, purifies the blood, and is readily absorbed into the circulation, and thence distabilitated to the diseased tungs. There it ripens all morbid matters, whether in the form of abcasses or tubebeles, and then saists Nature to expel all the diseased matter, in the form of free expectoration, when once it ripens. It is then, by the great healing and purifying properties of Schemek's Pulmonic Syrup, that all ulcers and cavities are healed up sound, and my patient is cured.

monic Syrup, that all ulcers and cavities are healed up sound, and my patient is cured.

The essential thing to be done in curing Consumption like got up a good appetite and a good digestion, so that the body will grow in fresh and get strong. If a person has discassed longs,—a cavity or aboves there—the scality cannot beal, the matter capitot ripen, so long as the system is below par. What is decessary to cure a new order of things,—a good appetite, a good instrition, the body to grow in fissal and get fat; then Mature is below as a new order of things,—a good appetite, a good instrition, the body to grow in fissal and get fat; then Mature is below, and a good instrition, and the person regard health and sirength. This is the time and only plan to cure Commungtion, and if a person is very bad, if the large, are not entirely destroyed, or good the lang is entirely destroyed, or good the lang is entirely destroyed, or good the lang is only one sound lung, live hard enjoy life to a good old up. This is what Schencht's Mediciones will do to cure Commungtion. They will clean out the atomach, sweeten and strengthen it, get up a good digestion and gine Nature the assistance she needs to clear the system of all the disease that is in the lungs, whatever the form may be. It is in portant that while using Schencht's Mediciones, care should be exercised not to take cold; keep in -doors in cyld and damp sunshine.

I wish it distinctly understood that when I recommend a partial state of the state of sunshine.

I wish it distinctly understood that when I recommend a patient to be careful in regard-to taking cold, while using my Medicines, I do so for a special reason. A man who has but partially recovered from the effects of a bad cidd is far more liable to a relapse than one who has been entirely erred; and it is precisely the name in regard to Consumption. So long as the lungs are not perfectly healed, just so long is there imminent danger of a full return of the disease. Hence it is that I so strenuously caution pulmonary patients against exposing themselves to an atmosphere that is not gental and pleasant. Confirmed Consumptives lungs are a mass of sores, which the least change of atmosphere will inflame. The grand secret of my success with my Medicknes consists, in, my ability to subdue-inflammation instead of provoking it, as many of the faculty do. An inflamed lung osition, with safety to the patient, be exposed to the bijing blasts of Winter or the chilling winds of Spring of Autum.
