The Stailroad Subsidy.

It was in the month of June, we believe, the hale of the Mexican Guit and San Antonio Railroad was made, under the deed of trust we have heretofore mentioned, to Morgan & McComb. By this purished. We should think that the chane they came in in possession of Columbia from the N. Y. Hereld Morgan & McComb. By this purchase they came in in possession of the old road, with its rolling stock, depots, etc., etc., from Lavaca to Victoria, a distance of twenty-eight miles. This road, in consequence of the decayed condition of the cross ties, required re building, and it was aunounced that the purchasers would lose no time in placing it in perfect running order. It was also stated that assistance would be rendered by Mr. Morgan to the Indianols Company for the analy comforts of the Company for the analy comforts. pletion of the tap road connecting Pu with the Lavaca and Victoria road, for

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3, 1871.

The execution of judicial processes in Western North Carolina has brought to light the fact, quite unexpected to the government, that the Ku-Khux are quite numerous and very well organized in the upper secundary countries of that State.

Pursuit being made from Euther. the Legislature for the passage of an act authorizing the consolidation of the two companies, under the name of "The Galf, Western Texas, and Pacific Rallway Company." Supposing that Morgan & McCombintended in good faith, to go forward in the construction of the roads required by the old charters, in the use of their own capital, no opposition was offered to the street of about two hundred persons.
