Democrats in Office.
Are there Democrats in office in this city? Are there persons living on the Government who sympathize with that party which steals in New York and winks at murders and conspiring in the Southern States?
Are there persons in office here have not repented of their wish that the Confederates would seize and hold Washington city? Are there persons in office here who would deny to the colored man the same civil and political rights which they themselves enjoy? Are there persons in office here, depending on Gen. Grant for their daily bread, assail him in private conversation?
We want to see true and tried Republicans in all the offices. It is a shame to a Southern white man to call himself a Republican. He is insulted, and reviled, and despised for his simple and most commendable love of country. But here Democrats are honored. Here Democrats are not regarded as traitors —as sympathizers with masked assassins and murderers. But they are Democrats, nevertheless. They are a part of that organization that invited the nation to rebellion in 1860; and belong to an organization which still maintains the pernicious heresy of State rights, and refuses to regard the national author-ty as paramount.
We are not regarding men as accidents, provided they are now good Republicans, and have
"brought forth fruits meet for repentance." Our allusion is the Democrats, whether Middle State Democrats, or ex rebels.
A Republican is known by his principles, by his votes. There is no difference between Northern and Southern Republicans. They all stand upon that same platform.
They are equals and brethren.
But the Democrats and the ex-rebels what of them? If in office under a Republican administration, we say, cast them out. Dismiss them at once. The President can not know that some of his subordinates, as well here as in other States, tolerate Democrats in office. If he knows
in due time if these obnoxious persons are not removed.
Prospective, are we! No. We are simply just. We are advising what the Democrats themselves in all times in this country have forced upon us. We could not escape it if we would. We do not spare either age nor sex nor long public service in persons who are suspected of not being good Democrats, no alternative is left to
us. We owe it to ourselves, to the President, to the country, to liberty, to law and order, and to justice itself to put out all Democrats and doubtless, and to put and keep in office only true Republicans.

doubtless, and to put and keep in
office only true Republicans.

Democrats in Office.
conspiring in the Southern States?
the Confederates would seize and
civil and political rights which they
sons in office here, depending on
Gen. Grant for their daily bread, assail him in private conversation?
We want to see true and tried
1860; and belong to an organization which still maintains the perni-
ty as paramount.
mocrats, or ex rebels.
stand upon that same platform.
They are equals and brethren.
But the Democrats and the ex-reb-
a Republican administration, we say,
cast them out. Dismiss them at
Democrats in office. If he knows
sons are not removed.
Prospective, are we! No. We
us. We owe it to ourselves, to the President, to the country, to liberty,
doubtless, and to put and keep in
office only true Republicans.

St. Louis is advertising freely in papers of North Texas.
The Brazos river is pretty high, and rising.
Mr. McKinnis was dangerously stabbed by George Hadden, at Marshall, on the 31st ult.
The survey of the projected railroad from Jefferson to Marshall has been commenced.
The Presbytery Synod, lately in session at Waco, adjourned on Saturday last.
A rich deposit of coal has been found near Galveston, Cook county.
The wife of W. W. Scott, living near Brenham, recently gave birth to three children—all boys.
The Calvert Tribune says that a few years since the dead body of an Irishman was found near Englewood.
On Monday next trains will run through to Covington twice per day—so we learn unofficially.—7b.
The Houston Schmetzen Verein are now making arrangements for a grand display on the 30th.—Hous-

The Brazos river rose ten feet last week, and the ferries were inpassable. Ferries won't do; bridges are needed, and Republicans will bring them before long.
Bill Jones, colored, killed another colored man, near Anderson, on the 27th ult. Jones is in jail. Another freedman, named Jones, killed a colored man, named Reuben, Motley, six miles from Anderson, on the 9th inst. The weapon used was a large stick.
Twenty armed men surrounded the house of Dr. S. W. March, an intelligent gentleman, at Mount Enterprise, Itaska county, in the night; a battle ensued, in which the Doctor was victorious, the band of murderers having to retreat. They simply sought to kill him because he was a Republican.
Justices Wilson, Clifford and Washington, of Robertson county, having been removed by Judge Rector, an election to fill the vacancies is soon to be held. Let the Republicans all unite, harmonize, and put forward their best men.
