A short time ago we called the attention of the population of Western Texas to the necessity of organizing an Immigration Society...

Winter crops have been a failure of seeders, and the condition of the people justify us in feeling that to us. Our climate is so favorable that a total failure of the crops is almost impossible...

If an earnest attempt is to be made to direct immigration toward Western Texas and we have no doubt that it is the desire of the intelligent people of this region...

The most rapidly way in progress to work, is to organize, inaugurate and maintain such county, which should be in correspondence with each other, and all under the control of a Central Committee.

The great duty of the Society would be to see that the immigration is wisely and judiciously directed, and to see that the emigrants are well cared for and that they can be enabled to obtain immediate employment...

While we do not feel that it is necessary to the exchange of international courtesies, between the chiefs of nations, to be friendly and actually advantageous, while we do not object to a friendly and cordial reception being given to a son or relative of a foreigner...

His public life of service to humanity or his country, and by the very receipt, to enable him to maintain his position...

Having just returned from a short trip to the North-west of the State, I take pleasure in giving you some few interesting facts...

Among the most noteworthy I would mention the existence of a large bed of coal in Mason county, on the head waters of the south branch of the San Fernando...

With a view to the most successful result in the north of the country, we should be prepared to receive the most intelligent immigrants of the free world...
