LOCAL AFFAIRS

There has been a hunt of officers, composed of Captain Constable, Major Wade and Lieut. Barber, purchasing horses for the cavalry service, in our city for the last month.

These gentlemen have succeeded in purchasing many good and available animals, which have been brought into town by that process, from the outside of the city.

This cannot be otherwise than encouraging to stock raising, which, after all, is the great interest of the West.

TREMHENDOUS VICTORY
Of the Singer Sewing Machine over all others, at the Mississippi State Fair it secured the high award.

GOLD MEDALS
Out of 40 medals given the Singer & Co. did not receive a single one.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION
ARTICLE XIII.
Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof.

ARTICLE XIV.
Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside.

ARTICLE XV.
Section 1. The Senate shall be composed of Senators chosen by the States, in each State one Senator, who shall, when elected, have a term of six years; and they shall be divided so that one-third may be chosen in each year.

ARTICLE XVI.
Section 1. The Electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for Electors in that State; but no Senator, Representative, or other person holding an office of profit or trust under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector.

ARTICLE XVII.
Section 1. The Senate shall be composed of Senators chosen by the States, in each State one Senator, who shall, when elected, have a term of six years; and they shall be divided so that one-third may be chosen in each year.

ARTICLE XVIII.
Section 1. The Electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for Electors in that State; but no Senator, Representative, or other person holding an office of profit or trust under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector.

ARTICLE XIX.
Section 1. The Electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for Electors in that State; but no Senator, Representative, or other person holding an office of profit or trust under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector.

ARTICLE XX.
Section 1. The Electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for Electors in that State; but no Senator, Representative, or other person holding an office of profit or trust under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector.

ARTICLE XXI.
Section 1. The Electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for Electors in that State; but no Senator, Representative, or other person holding an office of profit or trust under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector.
