BAPTIZED IN FIRE.

Chicago Phenix.
A UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER.
Read the Following:
A popular & lively paper for the times, containing the leading features of three journalists destroyed by the terrible conflagration, and containing just such a corps of writers as will give the public all the news of the war, in a condensed compilation of the leading journals of the nation, and the world.

A STEELING PORN.

Who shall judge him his name?
Who shall judge him his dress?
Pompers may be in his eyes,
Princes may be in his dress,
Crumpled shirt and dirty jacket
May be his golden ore,
Or the deepest thought and feelings
Bath vest can do no more.
There are streams of crystal water,
Ever flowing out of doors,
There are people beds and golden
Holders, crutches, and overflows,
Guns, who count by souls, not dresses,
Loves and prospers you and me,
Whom he values through his highest
But he yields to the sea.
Men appeal above his friends,
Others below his foes,
Masters—rulers—lords, remember
That your names mean are men!
Men of thought, men of fame,
Men of honor and of pride,
There are sea-entired oceans,
There are little wooden rafts,
There are noble high-top sailings,
There are oceans on the hills,
God, who counts by souls, not stations,
Loves and prospers you and me,
For to him all vain distinctions
Are as bubbles in the sea.
Telling lands alone are builders
Of a nation's wealth and fame,
Telling lands alone are builders
By the sweat of others' foreheads,
Lying only in the air,
While the poor man's outraged freedom
Vainly lifts its feeble voice.
Truth and justice are eternal,
Both with fortune and light,
Both of wrong shall never prosper
While the right is in our sight,
God, who counts by souls, not stations,
Loves and prospers you and me,
But as bubbles in the sea.

AMERICAN POLITICS.

Gen. Grant's Administration.
BY H. M. KRAMER.
Gen. Grant was inaugurated President of the United States on the 4th of March, 1869. The first important measure of this administration, which will not be forgotten, is the Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Though the XIIIth Amendment was passed under a previous administration, we will notice all three in the same connection. In our late unfortunate civil war, the people of the South, against the balance against Union, and decided and determined to perpetuate and extend the institution of slavery rather than preserve the Union. The Union triumphed, slavery necessarily perished. The XIIIth Amendment was a legitimate consequence of the war, the effort to overthrow the Union to perpetuate slavery, the XIVth, XVth, Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, giving to the freedmen civil and political rights, became matters of absolute necessity. The government having freed the slaves was in honor bound to give them ample protection. This could be done only by education or by all the rights of citizenship. The people of the United States were not willing to incur the expense of educating the freedmen. The people of the South were not willing to lose their labor. To have kept 4 or 5,000,000 of freedmen, as an inferior class, deprived of all the rights of citizenship, excluded from the witness stand from the jury box and from the ballot box, has been nothing but a disgrace to the nation. The people of the South were not willing to lose their labor. To have kept 4 or 5,000,000 of freedmen, as an inferior class, deprived of all the rights of citizenship, excluded from the witness stand from the jury box and from the ballot box, has been nothing but a disgrace to the nation.
