Republican State Convention.

A Delegate Convention of the Republican party of Texas is hereby called to assemble in the city of Houston on the second Tuesday of February, 1871, for the purpose of nominating a President, Vice-President, and other officers for the State, and for a stronger organization of the party.

The basis of representation is fixed the same as for members of the Legislature under the present apportionment.

Promised to the citizens herein expressed will prove very small.

J. O. TRACY,
Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee.

J. P. KNICKERBOCKER, Secretary.

C. C. COOPER, Chairman of the House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11th, 1870.

To the Publisher of the Express,

San Antonio, Texas.

The Express has succeeded in publishing the acts and resolutions passed during the second session of the Forty-second Congress, and also such public treaties entered into and ratified by the Senate.

It is desired that the same be sent to the Secretary of State, in all cases to be published without delay.

I am, sir, respectfully,

John Cooper,
Clerk of House of Representatives U. S.

Candidate for Justice of the Peace.

The independent and especially solicits the support of his fellow-citizens for the office of Justice of the Peace for Precinct No. 2, Bexar county.

JULIUS LIEK.

The irreproachable George Francis Train, candidate of all Republicans for Senator of the United States, and his friends, are invited to the meeting.

"Train Light."

My pleasure consists of three planks, and they are as follows:

1st-BEAT GRANT.

2nd-BEAT GRANT.

3rd-BEAT GRANT.

Why, then, the Democratic begin to proclaim platform to a T.

Sabre and the "Woolly Book," Wilmot and the New Orleans "Rebels" will soon put a field upon George Francis for striking the only idea in their little heads, and at the same time their entire stock in trade.

Our "devil" asks us to add as the third brother this triple alliance between George and the "Herald."

Boys hate, all styles, Savant & Grant.

We have received the appeal of the Committee appointed for the restoration of the Straus Library, destroyed during the fire.

It requires every object, books and packages should be sent, and all communications addressed to Mr. Michael Mackie, Public Ledger Building, 600 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

Elegant party sets, at Burnett & Grant's.

The Herald in our New Year's Address cannot afford to give up its old broad-based base.

Eggs and hams appear to have had no power to render the Legislature obitable. That reminds us of the old saying, that you cannot fabricate a self-preserved omelet of therapeutic appendage of an animal of the domesticated species.

Gent's. furnishings for the holidays, $5.00.

Among our recent exchanges we are pleased to notice the stirring Republican sheet, the San Antonio EXPRESS. (Grand Era.)

J. Henry, we rejoice with pleasure. The "Grand Era," lately appointed Official Journal of the United States, leaves nothing to be desired in point of ability and execution. We also hope to hear from its brave editor during a new legislative session, and in a manner that will make Democrats and hags Republicans wise.

New-year calls—call on Burnett & Grant.

The New Orleans Republic ("") calls the Express a stupid conducted paper.

Thank you, Governor, we sincerely regret to have to return the compliment. You are so used to call papers that venture to express some doubts about the propriety of your ways that are dark and tricks that are visible that confidence in you is quite dead.

Tell it like it is.

Holiday gloves and ties, Burnett & Grant.

The ESCAPE.—About a quarter past eight o'clock Christmas night, six prisoners escaped from the county jail under the following circumstances:

The jailor, a young white man, a Mississippian—was absent from the prison about an hour and a half. During his prolonged absence confined in a cell in the northern corner of the jail, succeeded in wrenching off an iron bar attached by a single nail to the window of the cell. With the bar they tried off hand a dozen or the upright bars in the grating of the cell, making an opening through which they secured an exit to the exterior, getting over the high wall by means of a box placed against it. In the cell a square piece of the heavy wrought iron bar was bent under the eye of Captain Smith expressly for the escape committee.

The only prisoner who failed to escape was the Chinese, colored, who is only voluntarily confined, but also raised the alarm when his brethren were getting over the wall.

The names of the prisoners who escaped are as follows:

J. L. White, connected with the Hutchins, the "Blue Blood" of New Scott, who succeeded with shooting a man named Bell, a gambler, about three weeks ago; McCarty, white, charged with killing W. Polkman, Curley, white, same charge; Frank Fowler, colored, thief; George Henderson, colored, same charge.

None of the escaped have since been taken—Galveston News.

New Year's day went off very quietly,
as the meager docket of the recorder showed very conspicuously yesterday morning.

The case of Trumbull, defendant in the murder of Fletcher, will come up before Judge Morrison, January 10, at which time probable be surprised.

We are gratified to note that the bi-annual meeting of the new theatrical society,
the Horowitz, will take place on Thursday evening at Peacock Hall. Mystery and comedy sketches and get-togethers will be the order of the day.

Our Gasoline fellow citizens gave one of their usual performances in the way of a "Professor Bell," on New Year's Eve, which was a great success in everything else in which the Cating takes in hand.

The new name of our fellow citizen Mr.
J. H. FARNUM, still continues to be the center of attention to those desirous to purchase
first class furnishing and dress goods.

Mr. McCLEARY is progressing very favorably with his lameness. Well, he has lived to the age of 80 years, the lifespan of which have been through hard luck, under which it is presumed that he will be able to strike water.

Two Mexicans undertook to run a race near the "Society Club," grounds, on New Year's day, and the result was that one was pitched over his horse head and run over by the animal, injuring him seriously.
The accident was caused by his en-
catching hold of the tail of his horse.

THERE will be no action of the District Court of Appeals, owing, we are informed,
to some legalistic Austin in jawshing
the offense with the proper notice.

Judge Thompson and District Attorney Fanchon presented their information that,
although there was but little game,
he was set for a dead game, and, that the lugs were literally rolling in fat, induced by the heavy rain.

Those who appreciate a dinner gotten up in style, in addition, quite dainty, at extremely moderate expense, are referred to our new establishment on Main Street. For good cooking, delicate attention and cheap rates, the establishment of the entrepreneur is second to none. In addition to the staple meat, he serves exquisitely prepared supplies, soups, puddings and pastries, and has nothing like it seen in the best eating-houses in the city.

Two news of the death of Mr. Yelton Dodd, an attorney, otherwise very popular, came in yesterday and were understood that he was improving rapidly.
He passed fully within any perceptible stroke. He was very venerable years ago, enough so that he would be widely regretted. His last words, however, were, "I am going home in a body by his friends."

ALREADY at 9 o'clock, on New Year's eve,
we noticed a bairley horse and buggy.
The driver was conveniently lying on the ground holding by the reigns, and we proceeded to interview him, who pronounced himself to be bringing the horse to a stand.
The gentleman, who was dressed in the height of fashion, required his seat and drove on, and the appearance was sufficient for another runaway that we followed apparently, but lost sight of him.

The audience had a remarkable escape from death. He was captured and seemed to be under the influence of liquor.
