Policy of the Administration. In conclusion, I would say on the policy of the Administration to be a thorough...

1. A Postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscription is not taken...

2. Any person who takes a paper from the Postoffice, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or is responsible for the paper...

3. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears of the published rate...

4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it...

5. The carrier has no liability for loss of papers or for delay in delivery...

6. If a paper is not delivered on the day it is due, the carrier is liable for the loss...

7. If a paper is not delivered on the day it is due, the carrier is liable for the loss...
