Policy of the Administration.
In conclusion, I would say by the policy of the Administration to be a thorough enforcement of every law, a faithful collection of every tax provided for, economy in the disbursement of the same, a prompt payment of every debt of the nation, a reduction of the taxes as rapidly as the requirements of the country will admit, the reduction of the national debt, and the maintenance of the highest credit of the country.

Newspaper Laws.
We would call the special attention of Postmasters and subscribers to the following provisions of the newspaper laws:
1. A Postmaster is required to give notice by letter to the publisher of any objection to the publication of any article or advertisement.

New York Tribune

For 1872.
THE consolidation of Italy, so long a dream, and the unity of the Italian people, with Rome as its capital, the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the capture and capitulation of her proud and gay metropolis, the expansion of the borders from the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a series of the most liberal and enlightened constitutions, Western Europe, under the leadership of France, has been triumphant and powerful.
