Special Session of the Legislature. A Delegate Convention of the Republican Party...

EDITORIAL ITEMS.

The New York Democratic Convention. Declared in favor of the proslavery policy.

News from Mexico says Juarez is in a very bad way, and will probably be evacuated by the revolutionists.

The President's message. The President's message to Congress...

It is not thought Quins Yveta is in danger of dying in work, as she is fresh and vigorous.

In case the positive policy is not adopted in Indiana, D. W. Voorhees will probably receive the Democratic nomination for Governor.

Since June 1867, when the Colfax bridge was first inaugurated, there have been landed in Cuba 10,000,000 dollars, at an average cost of $200 per head.

Has not returned, Burnett & Grant.

Interesting course maps are prepared at Washington, representing the distribution of population in the United States by different degrees of latitude.

The population of New Orleans has steadily increased since 1850, when it was 70,000, and now it is 170,000.

In Florida there is a small hole in the wall of the levee, but it is not serious.

Five fine white shirts, $10, Burnett & Grant.

The total number of failures last year throughout the country was 9,916, with liabilities of $1,500,000,000, against $1,000,000,000 in 1870, and liabilities of $1,000,000,000.

The Republican Committee of Congress report that for the Congressional census of 1870 they read and counted 84,438, and distributed about one million and a half of pamphlets.

General Grant, the chairman of the House Committee on Ways and Means, in a recent report upon proposed finance, shows that the reduction of the debt since 1861 had been $440,000,000, and the reduction of the interest on the debt $90,000,000.

Mr. Brooks, of New York, a leading Democrat of the country, in a speech on the 20th, he further stated that the proposed of the appropriation bill for the year 1872 is $1,000,000,000 less than last year.

Mr. Brooks, of New York, a leading Democrat of the country, in a speech on the 20th, he further stated that the proposed of the appropriation bill for the year 1872 is $1,000,000,000 less than last year.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Deferred Dispatches. The Senate is now considering the bill making the road pay the extra expense of transporting mail.

ONARA, Feb 21.—Railroad officials are telegraphing that the snow blockade is raised, and trains are running on time.

IRAMATI, Feb 21.—The snow is melting. Great damage to the road is apprehended from floods.

NEW YORK, Feb 21.—Augustine Schell has been installed as Grand Sachem of Tammany.

Delegates to the National Labor Convention are instructed to support Wendell Phillips for President.

PARIS, Feb 21.—Much excitement prevails over a Bonapartist conspiracy, and the Government is taking extraordinary precautions here, and also in the Southern departments.

NEW YORK, Feb 21.—Historical injuries from a railroad accident are more serious than was at first supposed. The fracture of the knee will prevent her professional pursuits.

CHICAGO, Feb 21.—The Emperor is much better, and is again attending to his business.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Feb 21.—The bridge over the Mississippi river is completed. It is the longest structure in the world. It is built on the high bridge system.

WILMINGTON, Feb 21.—Reports indicate a loss of one-half the crop of wheat in this section.

Senate.—The entire day was occupied on the sale of arms to France, in which Morton, Conkling and Sumner have been speaking.

Conkling's amendment to instruct a committee to inquire whether any Senator had been in unlawful communication with the agents of foreign governments passed.

This points at Sumner and Schlar, who particularly they call for an investigation upon information furnished by the Marquis de Chambard.

Adjourned.—An amendment making the legation at St. Petersburg first class passed.

NEW YORK, Feb 21.—The police will protect the President American procession to-morrow.

Charles Francis Adams arrived on the Brooklyn Eagle, is dead.

The Staked night is postponed till Monday.

Car-kid murderer Foster has been recommenced, and is to be kept in the County Jail.

It is the testimony of experts was given to the effect that the health officer's fee amounted to $20,000 per annum, and that the quarantine right to be regular salaries one; that the quarantine duties can be performed with a less number of men, and at a smaller expense; and that the period of the quarantine can safely be reduced by two months.

The Grocers' Board of Trade today endorsed a petition to the Senate of the United States, asking immediate action on the bill already passed by the House for the relief of the tea and coffee.

The Board of Health are taking measures to prevent the bringing of small-pox patients into the city from New Orleans.

LONDON, Feb 21.—It is reported that Lord Northbrook will be Vice-roy of India.

PARIS, Feb 21.—The Gazette in its issue of yesterday, says King Amadeus of Spain has been diagnosed with the ungovernable disposition of the Spanish people, and has urged his father, Victor Emmanuel of Italy, to assist in the abolition of the monarchy.

NEW YORK, Feb 21.—Cotton quiet, sales 325 bales; upland 23; Orleans 20.

MADRID, Feb 21.—Napoleon has formed a new ministry. Berriena is to be Minister of the Colonies.

LONDON, Feb 21.—The yacht Ketchikan is to be sent to the Admiralty to be used as a tender to the Earl of Mayo, and accompany him to England.

The Wages of Royalty. The Emperor of Russia has the most prodigious birth, his wages averaging $25,000 per day or 500 times as much as President Grant receives.

The Sultan of Turkey struggles along up $10,000 per day. How the Emperor of Mexico is getting on, and the inevitable enormous demands Louis Napoleon, last September, lost a place that paid him $10,000 per day, but he has been again raised, and saved up some thing handsome, which will keep him comfortable in his old age.

What the pay of Emperor William of Germany may be, we don't know, but as King of Prussia he was paid only $9,210 per day, or $3,000,000 per year. Victor Emmanuel, of Italy, enjoys and income of about $3,000,000.

Queen Victoria is a good bargainer, and keeps the pot "bills" about $2,000,000 per year. The Prince of Wales sends $25,000,000 to his expenses. Some time ago, a mad man named Quins Yveta, who was a Frenchman, was sent to the insane asylum at Washington. Prince Albert lost $2,000,000.

In contrast to these magnificent figures it may be interesting to know that the average income of plain middle class people in England and Wales is less than two shillings per day. There are 107 Englishmen who return incomes of over $250,000 per year, and 1,271 who return $50,000 to $100,000.—Every Statesman.

The President has ordered Secretary Seward and Collector Arthur to prepare recommendations for the New York general election, and to put it into operation as soon as the report of the returning officers is received.
