WEDNESDAY, FEB. 28, 1872.

Republican State Convention.

A Delegate Convention of the Republican party of Texas is hereby called to assemble at San Antonio, on the 1st and 2nd of March, 1872, for the purpose of nominating Presidential Electors, and for a thorough reorganization of the party.

The rules of organization in hand now will be adopted by the local delegates after the present adjournment.

Papers relating to the subjects herein expressed will please be sent to:

Z. G. TRACY,
Chairman of the Republican State
Executive Committee.

J. P. NEWCOMB, Secretary.

FRANCIS M. STONE,

To each particular reader of the Express I wish to announce, that for whatever may appear in the paper, the author is not responsible, after the press has left, and cannot be held responsible, for what may appear in it.

I shall call myself "John," in accordance with the universal, but absurd and egotistical, habit of newspaper editors; but there is really no such thing as "John" — average weight 150 pounds, and a three-cented seal in the next room. I mean to say, I haven't sold out yet. The reason of this unusual silence will be apparent when I state, that nobody has ever offered me to buy me.

It is not true that Gov. James P. Davis has tendered to us the office of City Commissioner of this City. It is true that I have been to Austin and Fredericksburg, to Washington City and Floresville, to Chappell and Springtown, and to New York, Podunk and Sweet Home, and several other cities, and have not found any one so absurdly willing to pay my hotel bills, sleeping-car fees, and for other miserable luxuries, except myself. Even the Brooklyn purchase is a billion, as far as I am concerned. I have made a point out of it yet. I think Mr. G. N. B. is staying away because he is afraid to meet me face to face. And yet I am willing or knowingly going to be a Democrat or a Know-Nothing in my life. But I know 10 or 25 very intelligent Democrats whom I expect to persuade to cast their votes for Grant next autumn for President. They are very good men, too — their wives and daughters go to church, and belong to the sons of bummer. But I know several who don't care about politics, or religion, but who do care about the freedom of the press and about a sound Republican principle.

Great pains will be taken to make the Weekly editions attractive and acceptable to every intelligent reader. There will be less of politics and more reading of a general nature in the issues of that day.

Every effort will be made to make the Weekly EXPRESS the best family paper published in the State. The most valuable stock and farming news will be obtained and published, particularly that which will interest the people living in the western counties of the State.

Indeed, no interest will be neglected, and we only ask a fair and candid judgment, and that patronage which we may deserve.

—Lotto, Feb. 26th, 1872.

Express, San Antonio:

In the Weekly Herald of the 24th inst., I see an article dated Wilson County, Feb. 1st, 1872, purporting to be signed by a voter (not many voters), asking to know what he became of the one half of his per cent school tax.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The Preamble to the Constitution of the United States, was present. Samuel Chase was chosen President, who advocated a party independent of the Republicans and Democrats.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 22.—The stockholders of Memphis and Charleston road have ratified the lease to T. A. Scott and the Southern Security Company for 99 years.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 22.—Two soldiers of the National Asylum, found frozen near a building, had been covered with snow for months.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 22.—The National Prohibition Convention convened to-day. One hundred and twenty-four delegates, from nine States, were present. Samuel Chase was chosen President, who advocated a party independent of the Republicans and Democrats.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 22.—The He-republican State Convention nominated Thomas Brown for Governor, and G. R. Orth for Congress at Large.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 22.—The tobacco manufacturers of this city protest against the proposed change in the tobacco tax. They want a uniform tax of five cents a pound.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 22.—The Republicans in this city protest against the proposed change in the party.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—A decision has been issued to suspend the publication of the Gantlet.

ROME, Feb. 22.—The Pope has convened Cardinals for to-morrow to elect a Bishop for Russia.

HALIFAX, Feb. 22.—A brig and sloop are in the ice, with signs of distress. It is impossible to reach them, and they must soon perish with cold and hunger.

PARIS, Feb. 22.—It is thought that

Cisneros will be compelled to resign

the Ministry of War, on account of ill health.

—Trotter,

Julian W. VAN SLICK.

Detroit is the largest fur depot on the American continent.

The Astor (N. Y.) also factories make over 5000 skins per year.

Cincinnati has 10000 skins per year.

Mr. Fenton, who a few days ago resigned the collectors position at Philadelphia succeeds Cresswell as Postmaster General.

Kid gloves, all sizes and colors at cost! at cost! Burnett & Grant.

The Huntsville Union Republican is now issued as a semi-weekly. Though small in size, it is neat and well edited.

Gov. Davis was expected at Austin yesterday. He has not placed his democratic friends under obligations yet, by "ranging the ranks."

Notes of reduced prices, Burnett & Grant.

The Vice-Presidency is considerably tilted. Mr. Gilmer's paper proclaims for Mr. Colfax, and Mr. Colfax's paper declaims for Mr. Bissell.

The railroads, railroad engineers are now competing, and leaving the two between Paris and Fort Worth. At the last meeting the Southern Pacific and Trans-Continental are to meet.

6 fine white shirts, $10, Burnett & Grant.

The New York Commercial comments on the railroad, which is making a system as extensive as the transatlantic to the trans-Atlantic. It seems only allowed for every foreign called, and it looks as if no half-pint passengers would be allowed any place chosen.

Buy your shirts of Burnett & Grant.

A resident of San Antonio has instituted 1000 little institutions, before the Court for several leagues of land on the Beans, including the towns of Beans, and a score of plantations. The International and Central Railroads are among the parties against whom suits is brought.

Notions have a well-regulated household without the Wool Family Parcels, $2.00.

The narrow gauge Railroad is to be built. The contract was signed yesterday, by which the charter passed into the hands of the Eastern company. The Company has ample capital, and has bound itself to show that the work of 1000 miles will be completed in three years.

THE VIENNA PRESS publishes, upon some private "authentic" authority of its own, a statement that the Grand Duke Alexis is engaged to be married to a young American lady.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Deferred Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Arrived the "Morning Star," mail steamer for Mexico to the 15th inst. No important news from the City of Mexico, but that man who is there, for the editor? It is plain he is mostly a month piece, or else, or if we may be allowed the expression, hash-manufacturer of stale viands.

You cannot find a man in San Antonio who does not know better how to edit and run a newspaper, than you do — his own estimation. He sells groceries, retails beer and wine liquors, to the great detriment of the public, who are now compelled to buy beer and whisky, or a porter, or a glass bottle of milk, or a vegetable vendor; yes, nails a sign of "lawns" on the Hotel of soap-suds office; he talks politics and circulates petitions to have somebody appointed to some office; he is always on hand when there is an election, and the ballot, can summon a jury of his peers without travelling to the verge of the country; in short, there is only one man who has not yet arrived in San Antonio, and that is the man who does not know how to edit a newspaper. If we were modest, we would announce ourselves to be an abandoned world as that ideal individual; but since we are not, we boldly declare that "we know who is in our service."

We do not propose to burlesque a bunch basket of exchanges every day, to satirize and condemn by name, or to editorialize, but those is really on the "lines" of "—verage weight 150 pounds, and a three-cented seal in the next room. I mean to say, I haven't sold out yet. The reason of this unusual silence will be apparent when I state, that nobody has ever offered me to buy me.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Dr. Mann's (Episcopal) CHAPEL.—The Annual New-Benting will take place on Tuesday, Feb. 20th, at 2 p.m. 2700.

The annual meeting of the Society, mentioned in our last number, was dissolved by Secretary Dr. G. H. Pease.

J. A. Simon, M. A., proposes to form a class in history, and tends the organization of Texas flowers and plants, &c. He can be seen at Col. Newton's residence.

We learn that the City Physician, Dr. Petersen, has extracted teeth, removed the arm and shoulder of a man named Garcia, who accidentally shot himself some time ago.

The weather changed to rain yesterday, and then drizzling, fell all day, laying the dust, but we do not think sufficient to affect much for the benefit of our gardens. Our gardeners and farmers are clapping more.

A good deal of the master in today's issue has crept in without the supervision of the editor. Therefore, it is his intention to overlook and control everything which appears in the columns of the paper, both in gift articles.

Notice of the advertisement of a Soda Fountain and Ice Machine for sale, by Mr. John Karp, Person in need of either or both of those articles will find it to their interest to call upon the lady and to effect a purchase.

Our new advertisement of our enterprising friends, Messrs. Loxton & Cosgrove, Stove and Tinware dealers, 50 Commerce street, in our today's issue. Those energetic gentlemen show their business tact by largely advertising in the Exams and papers to be largely patronized.

MATTHEWS in Judge Klocke's court are dull as chips and dry as dust, he having, in consequence of the session of the Dist. Court, had to do with but few unimportant cases for the last month. The Judge is now occupied in preparing the assessment of taxes for State and county.

Moschell & Co. are very wholesale dealers of our city. Their brands of soap, pencils, brushes, whiskers, waxes and fruits, are unsurpassed in purity and flavor, and their prices are as low as those of any house in town. Give them a call.

Burnett & Grant, the young and enterprising merchants, near our office, are still abroad in the variety and tasteful selection of their fine goods, in the high quality of their linens and other merchandise for sale at their store, the "West" Sewing Machine, for which they are the sole agents in our city, does all others in simplicity, practicality and durability. They can safely challenge competition.

EVERYTHING was dull around town yesterday. We saw but few people on the streets—among others, Fred. Ferrell, the teacher. Every body, however, had and continues looking for customers, there was absolutely nothing to interest the most casual observer. Even the "knifeman," if appears, has taken his departure. There was no "way" being done on the new Cathedral, probably on account of the weather.

TRUTH.—The powers of Mrs. Whitcomb's Sewing Machine are as positive as the sunlight from heaven, and gentle and something as an angel's whisper.

NATHANIEL'S—The famous and enterprising merchant, near our office, is a real giant in the field of trade, and the most successful in the country. His goods are well selected and his prices are very reasonable.
