LOCAL AFFAIRS.

We learn that Miss Emily, Miss Col. 11th Infantry, arrived in this city yesterday on her route to New Orleans, so we have had her.

Our Legislature, unfortunately and accidentally, adjourned yesterday, but we were happy to make this.

A messenger from Atlanta was arranged before Recorder Adams yesterday morning and engaged with trading in miles without delay. The case was reported to us today.

We are sorry to learn that General G. E. Dixie, a valiant general and a. S. Y. C. of Sedgwick Post No. 4, Department of Texas G. H. H. recently deceased. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Miss Parsons has completed the removal of his military and my store, to the new place next door to the national bank.

The new establishment will surpass everything ever seen in San Antonio in her line.

We do not like the article that the jury in the trial of Senator Fontaine's case brought in a verdict of "not guilty of perjury," but guilty of making out a second enquiry which would not be accepted, they "overruled," not guilty generally, which was also rejected to at least one of the juries.

Mr. Johnson, a 60% exhibition of diamonds, gold and silver ornaments, was held at the Hotel Alamo yesterday. The show was perfectly fair. They were selling out at a big sacrifice for the purpose of settling up their losses.

Some of these articles are worth a hundred dollars, while others are more, but are valued now since the author invented. We shall run to the subject again.

We saw the man shot yesterday morning, the first time in some weeks, more weeks than we have time to reckon; but it was "on suspicion," and we protest against the conduct of Dr. Evans. He is the old Harry, or any other man, as he looks over old John Johnson. He is not "an ordinary" man, but is killing the man who is.

This subject is a very interesting one.
