TO BE FEATURED IN PARADE--R. B. Cunningham shows off his covered wagon which is pulled by a matching pair of white mules, Pat and Mike. They will be featured in the annual Christmas Parade Saturday afternoon in Muleshoe. Cunningham will depict Christmas in bygone days and will have his wagon ready for the Christmas spirit. Cunningham frequently appears at parades and functions throughout the South Plains, Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico.

Area Meetings Set On New Farm Bill

The new farm bill will be the subject of a series of educational programs across the South Plains this month. Understanding this legislation is one of the most important functions of the farm manager in 1978.

According to Billy C. Gunter, District Agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, these programs will be held at 1:15 p.m. at the Community Building in Lamesas on Wednesday, December 14; at the Agricultural Center in Plainview on Thursday, December 15; and at the Plains Cooperative Oil Mill in Lubbock on Friday, December 16. All farmers and other interested persons are invited to attend.

All topics of these programs will be related to the Food and Agricultural Act of 1977 with emphasis on explaining the opportunities, alternatives, and regulations applying to the 1978 crop year. Gunter notes that the speakers are local individuals who have been close to the formulation of the legislation and who can interpret it for

South Plains growers. Elbert Harp, executive director of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association, will discuss provisions of this law applying to feedtrain production. Oscar 'Cotton' Fanning, Executive assistant of the Plains Cotton Growers, will present the discussion relevant to cotton production. Marvin Sartin, area economist-management with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, will discuss the

SWPS Home Services To Do Program

Mrs. Vivian Limer, home service advisor for Southwestern Public Service Company, will present a program on energy management through the use of portable appliances on Thursday, December 8 at 1:30 p.m.

She said the program is to be at the 16th and Avenue D Church of Christ and sponsored by the Bailey County Home Demonstration Council. She said all interested homemakers and other interested persons are invited to attend the program.

In addition to energy saving tips, Mrs. Limer will demonstrate Festive Foods for the Holiday Season. She will also have recipes and consumer service bulletins for the persons attending.

Football Contest In Three Way Tie

Ending up the regular football contest for this year, three previous winners took the top three spots, as a result, the final tally has ended in a three way tie for the two tickets for the Cotton Bowl and $50 expense check.

Late this week, a tiebreaker is expected to be conducted to see whether or not Kenneth King, Mike Perez or Patricia Young will be the final winner.

During the last football contest, Kenneth King came up with a first place win by missing no games, and being 39 points off on the double tiebreaker.

Second place winner Mike Perez also missed no games, but was 40 points off on the double tiebreaker, but did tie with King and with Young for the lead in the final analysis.

In third place was J.E. McVicker, who missed one game and was 31 points off on the

Floats, Scouts, Others Will Be Featured

According to Willie Reeder of Llano Estacado, entries will be accepted for the annual Christmas Parade until noon tomorrow (Friday) and the parade is scheduled for 2 p.m. on Saturday, December 3.

Each year, the Llano Estacado coordinates the parade, which is held on the first weekend in December to herald the approaching Christmas holidays.

Featured this year will be the Muleshoe City Police Chief, Buddy Black, heading the parade, and in the parade will be floats, marches and probably antique cars, along with Pat and Mike pulling the covered Christmas Wagon in an 'old-fashioned spirit' of Christmas. Guiding the wagon will be the owner, R.B. Cunningham, as he will display some of the spirit of Christmas from bygone days.

Also in the parade will be Boy Scouts, Girls Scouts, the Bailey County 4-H, the Epsilon Chi Beauty Queen, Tutu's Dancers, the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture Ambassadors, Alpha Sigma Phi and other floats, antique cars, and the junior high school band.

Mrs. Reeder said contributions are still being accepted also for

Holiday Time

Muleshoe Superintendent Neal B. Dillman said schools will dismiss at regular time on Thursday, December 22, to begin the Christmas holiday.

There will be no school through January 2, with school scheduled to begin at regular time on Tuesday, January 3.

Lazbuddies' Homemakers Give Check

A major project is underway at Lazbuddie and Monday, the Lazbuddie Young Homemakers added to the funds necessary for the Lazbuddie Volunteer Fire Department Project.

Recently the Lazbuddie VFD started a drive to obtain funds to purchase a paging system for firemen. With the system, no matter the fireman's location in the Lazbuddie area, both day and night, the paging system would instantly alert them in the event of fires or disaster.

The firemen were informed the system would cost $4,500. They ordered the system and borrowed the money from a bank to pay the purchase price. Glen Lust of the VFD said the note is due at the bank on January 15, and an accelerated effort is being made to obtain the funds to pay off the note.

Monday afternoon, the Lazbuddie Young Homemaker's president, Mrs. Jim Collum, and secretary treasurer, Mrs. Clay Mims presented a check to the fire department for $300.

The Young Homemakers explained that the money was from their annual sale of pecans, and they decided the worthwhile project this year would be the paging system for the fire department.

They also urged all local and area residents help with the fund drive, as the fire department was organized to help everybody and depend on their own pocketbooks and those who are willing to contribute to help add to the equipment for the department.

Seven Mules Are Named To AA All-District Honors

Muleshoe just racked up what may be one of the best seasons ever for the Muleshoe Mules, and wound up in a three way tie for district honors, sharing with Friona and Littlefield. With a season record of 9-1, the best record for Muleshoe since 1938, the mules only loss was to Friona by a 13-7 score. They won all the pre-district games and four of the five district games, as they amassed 164 points while giving up only 72 points. This averaged out 16.4 points per game, while holding their opponents to an average of 7.2 points per game.

With the end of the season, seven Mules were named this week as AA All-District players. Offensive All-District players are Danny Wilson, who was unanimous for quarterback; Dean Northcutt, unanimous as a running back; along with honors for Tight end Marcus Beversdorf and tackle, Johnny Estep.

Mark Washington, playing end, was unanimous on defense and was also named the AA All-District punter. Also honored on defense as all-district players were Charles Briscoe and Brent Burrows, both in secondary.

Receiving honorable mention were Brent Maddox, Curtis Carpenter and Ernie Vela. During the football season, named Player of the Week by the Amarillo Daily News were Dean Northcutt for the Levelland game; Brent Maddox for Tulia and Curtis Carpenter for Dimmitt.

Dean Northcutt broke Derrell Oliver's yardage record which had stood since the late 1950's and George Villarreal broke the field goal distance record while setting a record of 37 yards. Brent Burrows tied the interception return of 95 yards which tied a previous school record.

Dean Northcutt made the longest run for scrimmage at 51 yards in the levelland game; Mike Northcutt also made the longest pass play with a 70 yarder to Charles Briscoe in Cooper game.

Having the most carries per game was Dean Northcutt with 31 in the Morton game and he also had the most rushing yards with 240 against Morton.

Danny Wilson had the most yards passing in one game with 100 in the Tulia game and in the Dimmitt Game completed seven passes for the most completions during the game.

Marcus Beversdorf had three pass receptions in the Tulia, Dimmitt and Olton games and Billy James had three pass receptions in the Dimmitt and

Police Report

During the latter part of November and on through December, breakins, thefts and burglaries tend to increase nationwide. This apparently holds true for this area as several thefts have been reported during the past several days in this county.

Included was the theft of basketball uniforms and warm-up jackets from the Morton schools. They were taken from a Morton school bus while it was parked at the restaurant in Muleshoe.

Also, Jerry Ray, five and a half miles north of Bula reported the loss of a large number of tools and tires; Darnell Gin at Progress reported the loss of $300-$400 in tools and a tool box and Spurgeon's reported the loss of a CB radio, antenna, tape deck; watch and wrenches.

Thirteen persons were charged with public intoxication during the past week, along with two jailed for auto theft; two for driving while intoxicated and one each for public intoxication and carrying prohibited weapon; shoplifting; drinking after hours and contempt of court.

Absentee voting in the runoff election between Bob Price, Republican and Bob Simpson, Democrat, for the vacated seat of Senator Max Sherman started Wednesday, November 30, in the office of Bailey County Clerk Hazel Gilbreath.

The absentee balloting ends on December 6, prior to the December 10 election date.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Beal is still hospitalized at Central Plains Hospital in Plainview, undergoing treatment for hepatitis. He is expected to be released from the hospital during the weekend.

His mother, Mrs. Madge Beal and grandmother, Mrs. Lucille Tipton, were injured in an automobile accident in Clovis Sunday. Mrs. Tipton is hospitalized in Clovis undergoing treatment for head injuries received in the accident.

Bailey County Sheriff and Mrs. Dee Clements returned to Muleshoe Saturday night from Pawnee, Okla. where they had spent Thanksgiving with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arnold and children.

Wanda Gramling and Wilma Embry attended funeral services for their mother, Edna McLin, 86, of Decker, Ind. Monday. Services were conducted at Gardner Funeral Home in Vincennes, Ind.

Mrs. McLin died Saturday. Survivors also include several grand children and great-grandchildren.

Visiting in the Cecil Davis home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Copley of San Antonio, former residents of Muleshoe. They all attended the First United Methodist Church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Weyer had the Copleys and Davis's for afternoon coffee Sunday. Mrs. Office Weyer and Mrs. Bess Hobbs were also visitors in the Weyer home.

After visiting in Muleshoe the A.W. Copley's visited their daughter Mr. and Mrs. R.R. Calkins (LaVon) and family of Las Cruces, N.M. They also visited A.W. Anthony, Sr. of Friona. Anthony's are their son, Don, in-laws. They left Muleshoe Tuesday to visit in Plainview before returning to San Antonio on Thursday.

Simpson On Final Tour

Bob Simpson, the Democratic candidate for State Senator, announced Monday that he will begin a final campaign tour, during which he will visit with people in every one of the twenty-six counties of the Senatorial District.

Simpson will be in Muleshoe on Tuesday, December 6, from 12:00 - 1:30 p.m.

"We have already been in each of these counties several times during the last four months," Simpson said, "and we are now going to make a final tour before election day. This is the way I like to campaign! People to people. We're not bringing in outsiders to tell the people of this district how they ought to vote; we're going to the people ourselves to listen to their views," Simpson said.

The election will be held on Saturday, December 10, and absentee voting will be open from November 30 through December 6.

View From The Plains

by J.D. Peer
I & E Field Officer

CANYON--Both Panhandle waterfowl hunters and ducks and geese are finding dry playa lakes as northwest Texas continues to have dry weather with available water fast becoming mud holes.

"Many of the ducks that usually winter in the Panhandle are moving on south or are concentrating on dwindling playa lakes where hunting pressure is increasing," said Max Traweck, waterfowl biologist.

"Normally, the Panhandle records from one to two million ducks but the lakes that had water in August are drying up and weather forecasts do not predict any favorable forecasts for substantial rains to help the situation," Traweck continued.

One lake in Castro county was estimated to have from 30,000 to 75,000 ducks stretching from shore to shore. Hunters should be especially careful when hunting where large concentrations of waterfowl are crowded as a misplaced shot could put the hunter's take of ducks well over the daily limit.

Goose populations are near normal as the short-grass prairie geese utilize the feeding areas of the Panhandle. These sub-species of Canadian geese do not winter any farther south in Texas and normally will not go to the Gulf coast even if there is little water in the Panhandle.

The larger reservoirs such as Meredith, Greenbelt and Mackenzie will show gains in the overall waterfowl population as more playa lakes become dry this winter.

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Creek this week discusses a burning issue of the times.
Dear editor:
In these troublesome times, although as far as I can tell nearly all times in the history of the world have been troublesome, there are some things that take priority over others. For example, when the networks interrupted a football game a couple of weeks ago to flash some news about Sadat's trip to Israel, telephone switchboards at TV stations all around the county lit up with protests from sports fans.
You see, the Mid-East will never become fully civilized until it becomes normal for a network to say, "We interrupt this war to bring you the score of the Super Bowl game."
Therefore, recognizing what takes priority, I'd like to plunge right into a grave matter now bothering professional football. It's the matter of penalties.
Players are saying the officials are making some bad calls and missing some good ones. They'll call pass interference when it wasn't, miss calling it when it was, They'll call some holding penalties, especially at crucial times, and miss threefours of the others. When a fight breaks out, they'll throw out the wrong guy.

The players are being unreasonable. How can they expect five or six officials to keep up with twenty-two players jumbled up on a football field 100 yards long? And all trying to win by whatever means because their salary depends on it.

Actually the solution is simple. Every game should have twenty-two officials, each assigned to just one player with instruction to never take his eyes off of him.

While I realize that on nearly every play yellow flags flying in the air would like balloons being released at half-time, you've got to admit few rule infractions would go undetected.

At the same time, attendance might drop off drastically as fans discovered they couldn't see the players for the officials. It'd be like going to a car-racing event and never seeing any smash-ups. I give up. Next week I'll solve the Mid-East problem.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Farm Bureau Boosts Positive Approach

Houston-- Farm Bureau is for a "positive, realistic approach" to solving agriculture's problems, the president of the 214,197-member Texas Farm Bureau said Monday.

Addressing the organization's 44th annual meeting at the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel, Carol Chaloupka said farmers want to be assured of their fair return in the marketplace according to productive contributions.

More than 1,000 voting delegates from 210 organized counties converged on Houston for the Nov. 27-30 meeting to adopt policies to guide the organization next year.

"We are for expanding overseas markets and avoiding price-depressing surpluses," the Dalhart cattle and grain producer declared. "We favor programs that will permit farming and ranching operations to be large enough for maximum efficiency. And, just as important, we are for cutting costs of production."

"The alternative is to become the same as a public utility -- wards of the government -- with production rights allocated and with prices and net incomes determined by political planners. The result would be a nation of peasant farmers -- bad for farmers and bad for consumers," the farm leader said.

Chaloupka said obstacles to better prices and higher net incomes for farmers include what he called "monopoly power" of labor unions, energy supplies and prices, inflation caused by federal deficit spending, over-regulation by government, inadequate water resources, and taxes, particularly ad valorem taxes for financing public schools.

Chaloupka said the best opportunity for obtaining better prices lies in expanding markets overseas.

"Exports are absolutely necessary for our survival as farmers -- more so than any other segment of our economy because we operate on the world market," Chaloupka said. "The production from one out of every three harvested acres goes into export. Nearly one dollar in four earned by American farmers comes from foreign sales," he said.

He pointed out that American farm exports pay for 85 percent of this nation's petroleum imports.

On a brighter note, Chaloupka said chances for grain exports have improved with news of short harvest in the Soviet Union, China, and Poland. He said the U.S. Department of Agriculture predicts extremely strong exports markets in the coming months.

"Already we have seen prices of wheat, feed grains, and soybeans increase substantially," he said.

The farm leader said "George Meany and his cohorts" seek total domination over the nation's economy.

"The monopoly power of labor unions has done more to push up prices and create an imbalance in our economy than any other single factor," he said. "Over-priced labor hurts all other people in two ways. We pay an inflated price for everything this labor touches. We also lose the competitive edge in world markets," he added.

He said the President should invoke the Taft-Hartley Act in any work stoppages that interfere with shipments of farm products such as the recent dock strike. He said the American Farm Bureau Federation has been asked to be ready to use legal proceedings, either class-action lawsuits or injunctive relief through the National Labor Relations Board.

Chaloupka charged that federal deficit spending causes inflation which he said hits hardest at people on fixed incomes and at farmers who cannot pass along increased costs of production.

"When Congress wishes to fund programs for which there is insufficient tax revenue to pay for, it simply votes to increase the national debt limit," he said. "This is deficit financing, or printing press money. There is nothing complicated about inflation -- it's merely a hidden tax -- a tax that nibbles quietly about at your income," he said.

Chaloupka said the Texas Farm Bureau had gained more than 18,000 member families in this year despite the economic hardships suffered by farmers.

"I believe that our tremendous gain in members in the face of such problems is evidence that producers are determined to work at solving their problems through Farm Bureau," he said. "They want positive, responsible action through on organization that can bring all commodities together and one that can exert maximum influence on Congress."

The state farm leader said that freedom of choice is part of the framework of philosophy that has served Farm Bureau well for many years.

"The cornerstone of our belief is the concept of farmers sneaking for themselves through voluntary organizations which they build, finance, and control through membership dues," he said. "There is no short-cut to building an organization that is truly representative of the people it seeks to speak for," he added.

ROTC Scholarship Applications Ready

LUBBOCK--High school seniors interested in Army ROTC Scholarships should begin preparing applications now, according to Lt. Col. George T. Kimbro, professor of military science at Texas Tech University.

"About 700 full-tuition four-year scholarships will be awarded to students who enter college in the fall of 1978," Kimbro said.

The scholarships pay all tuition costs for four years, books, laboratory fees, plus an additional monthly allowance of $100 for up to 10 months of each school year, Kimbro said.

Kimbro said that with rising college costs, the Army ROTC Scholarship could easily be worth more than $12,000 after the four-year period.

"That's a big financial burden for parents to have to assume and for most families this scholarship can be a big help," he said.

Students who apply for and receive an Army ROTC Scholarship must agree to serve at least four years of active duty as an Army officer upon graduation.

To be eligible for a scholarship, a student must be a United States citizen, be at least 17 years old by Oct. 1, 1978, and under 25 on June 30, 1982. He or she must also be able to pass a physical examination. Applicants should plan on entering college next fall and be able to finish by June 30, 1982.

Kimbro stressed that students should begin preparing applications soon.

James Symcox Releases Album Of Religious Music

A trooper with the Texas Department of Public Safety, James Symcox of San Marcos, has just recorded and released a religious album.

Symcox' lifelong dream of singing and recording religious music became reality in June of this year, when he was invited to sing for the 50 Anniversary of the Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church near Farwell, where he grew up. As a youth, he acquired the strong religious beliefs typical of the farming communities on the High Plains. Two weeks later, Symcox was invited to sing at Childress, his first assignment as a State Trooper. Here he received numerous requests to make an album and a close friend contributed the funds to make this possible. In September, Symcox' first album was recorded at the studios of Rainbow Sound, Inc., in Dallas. Entitled "Feeling At Home", the album consists of nine songs expressing his home-grown religious background, including, "He Touched Me", "Only Jesus Can Satisfy Your Soul", and "Amazing Grace". Symcox is performing concerts in numerous churches throughout the state, is singing and speaking before civic groups, and is planning a second album to be recorded in January.

Anyone wanting to purchase an album may contact Mrs. Janice Snell at 965-2665. She is sister of Symcox. The albums are $6.30 each.

- 1 c sugar
- 1/4 t cinnamon
- 1/4 t nutmeg
- 1/4 t cloves
- 2 eggs, separated

Plan Holiday Decorating Theme And Color Scheme

COLLEGE STATION-Let a new theme and color scheme create excitement of serenity at home for the holiday season.

Holidays provide an excellent opportunity for generous use of accent colors and decorations--and this year's color choices are "anything goes," suggests Glenda Moore, a housing and home furnishing specialist.

HOLIDAY THEME
Selecting a holiday theme first can help set the color scheme, she says. A decorating theme might be religious, country, modern, or an "old-fashioned" Christmas.

Miss Moore is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A & M University System.

Spending a lot of money on new decorations is not necessary to create this year's holiday look, either, the specialist says. New ideas and color combinations can start with adapting decorations already on hand.

"On-hand" items can become fabric or ribbon bows, or tinsel made from popcorn or colored paper rings to carry out an "old-fashioned" theme.

For an effective country look, glue fabric scraps onto plain styrofoam balls, include a velvet ribbon at the top, and hang it on the tree with a bobbin--or mount them around the house with thread and thumbtacks.

COLOR SCHEME

In choosing a holiday color scheme, first consider the existing background colors of walls, carpets and upholstery. Also, take the style of furnishings into consideration.

Then select one or two harmonizing or contrasting colors of "holiday colors," which do not have to be traditional red and green.

Color choices are limited only by the imagination, Miss Moore says.

Considering using red, white and gold -- or green, blue and silver.

Perhaps purple, lime and green might be this year's selection. Or pink, white and gold -- or green, orange and browns -- or even burgundy, red and gold might look best.

In considering on-hand items with color in mind, remember that greenery usually fits into most color schemes. Using either red or green as the base color also allows for the use of more lights and ornaments from last year's supply.

In fact, lighting and accents give a color scheme added excitement or serenity.

Use color paper over lighted valances, or try lighted wall brackets or corners for example. A final thought: if regular home accessories do not fit into the 1977 holiday color scheme, store them till the season is over.

Girls Slam Friona Girls In Basketball

The 7th grade girls played Friona, Monday, Nov. 21, at 4:00. This was their first game of the season so the Coaches didn't really know what to expect out of the girls. Coach Scott says, "I was really impressed with several of them, this being their first games, Sherry Ellis, Rhonda Dunham, Dana Smith, Kelly Bayless, Denise Wilso, Abby Kennedy, and Sandra Haight, showed lots of enthusiasm and hustle from the beginning to the end of the game.

This week Coach Scott would like to recognize Rhonda Dunham and Sherry Ellis as 7th grade players of the week.

Sherry did a great job of hustling on both sides, offense and defense. She really did a good job of getting in and stealing the ball and tying it up for us, so we would really have a good chance for a jump. She also did a really good job of bringing the ball down court and set it up for the offense to set up their plays. Sherry had 6 points and 4 rebounds.

Rhonda also did a great job on offense and defense. She really looked good on shots under the basket; and she did a good job on rebounding. Rhonda had 22 points and 10 rebounds. Coach Scott would like to congratulate these girls on their first win of the season and hope they continue to work as hard as they have so far.

She would also like to recognize the B team, they won 12-2. Becky Lobough did a very good job of hustling and shot some good jump shots. Berna Lopez also showed a lot of determination and good hustling.

The Journalism Staff would like to congratulate all of the 7th grade players on their wins!!!

Player Of The Week

This week the 8th grade had two players of the week. They were Delia Shaw and Michelle Townsel. Actually if you considered just the game every member would have to be chosen.

Delia did a fantastic job of bringing the ball down, especially with 3 or 4 girls pressuring her all the time. She put out a 100 percent effort for her team and we are very proud of her.

Michelle's hustle was outstanding in the game with Friona. She did an excellent job of rebounding from the start to the finish. With a little more experience, Michelle should prove to be a tremendous asset to her team.

Coach Flowers said, "I was very proud of everyone on the team this week and all the effort each one showed. It will pay off in the future, I'm sure." We would like to congratulate both Delia and Michelle on all their efforts and hustle!!!

Young Widowed Parent.. Help For Coping

COLLEGE STATION--A young widowed parent must go it alone, facing all sorts of unfamiliar responsibilities in a time of shock, grief and mourning, yet there is research-based advice that can help, says Dorothy Taylor, a family life education specialist.

It places special importance on family closeness and friends, she says.

A widow now has to manage all the family affairs, perhaps take a job, seek financial assistance, or go to live with or near her parents again.

A widower has to arrange adequate care for his motherless family while he is at work, and often he must cope with unfamiliar household duties as well, the specialist points out.

Miss Taylor is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

When children have been motherless a short time, it's best to keep them at home in familiar surroundings, close to friends and other members of the family. That way, the children won't feel their whole world has suddenly vanished, the specialist advises.

"The difficulty of finding the right person to run a home and give the children responsible care, as well as affection, is enormous, of course."

"Some solo fathers or employed mothers of school-age children manage without hired help. A relative or older child may take charge after school with all the children helping with housework."

"Fathers or employed mothers of preschoolers may put them into a day care and may hire an afternoon helper for the school-age children," she says.

However, don't expect to find the perfect person, and don't think you can rely completely on any one person every day, Miss Taylor cautions.

"Try to be on hand as much as possible, so you can give your youngsters the warmth and the interest in their daily concerns that they so sorely need."

"Encourage them to keep close to grandparents or other relatives through letters and visits."

"The sense of belonging to a 'clan' of aunts, uncles and cousins has special value for children and widows going through a tough time in life," she emphasizes.

"Ford pickups and ranching just naturally go together. We depend on 'em for everything."

... Says Jay Palmer of Kaufman, Texas, rancher and trainer.

"We own nothing on the ranch but Ford pickups...use 'em for haying, feeding, repairing fence, general ranch work."

"We make a lot of long trips hauling horses, pulling a six-horse trailer. There's no place to stop and we can't afford to be broke down. That's why we drive Fords. We can depend on 'em to get us there."

"Back home, the service on the Ford pickups is just the best from my Ford dealer. And that's as important as the Ford pickups themselves."

See all the Ford pickups at your Texas Ford dealer. As Mr. Palmer knows, they're built tough for Texans.

When Does The Therapy End?

Many handicapped people today are asking, "When does the therapy end?" As a person with a very severe cerebral palsy involvement, different forms of therapy have been, and still are, an important part of life. "I've been through the gamut of physiotherapy, and occupational therapy, and speech therapy, and comprehensive rehabilitation. Each has given me some benefits. None has been a panacea. Many disabled people, especially the developmentally disabled, have compared therapy with education. Therapy was supposed to be a preparation for a better life. We often thought that when we completed our therapy we would begin to live like other people. This may be the case for some handicapped people, but for others of us it is a fallacy. Not only do we require therapy to accomplish any new goals, but it is often essential to maintain our present level of functioning. As more severely handicapped people attempt to find employment, live independently, and function within their communities, they are finding that the need for rehabilitation services never ceases. Fortunately, there seems to be a growing realization on the part of many professional and lay leaders that the severely handicapped need follow-up services if they are to reach and maintain their maximum potential.

Many of us find ourselves in a great dilemma because of this. On the one hand we are forced to admit that we need many types of therapy and on the other hand we resent what we could be called the "therapeutic" outlook of others. We often have difficulty dealing with the fact that when we need others to help us, it can create problems in establishing normal, healthy relationships. This is often apparent in family situations. If a handicapped person has been dependent on those around him for a long period of time, it is difficult, if not impossible, for these people to see him as an equal human being. My own work with rehabilitation publications is very rewarding, but I do not know whether the people I am working with see me as patient or co-worker. The fact that I often need their professional help does nothing to ease this problem. I sometimes want to write about the sex life of the African ant in order to escape from the therapeutic context. It would be easy to blame this entire problem on the non-handicapped. This is not wholly justified. Recently when I sought professional advice on this very problem, I realized to my astonishment that in seeking help I was reinforcing the problem that I was trying to solve. In our attempts to improve ourselves and gain a greater independence, we sometimes find ourselves developing a greater dependency on others. If we who are handicapped require certain forms of therapy, does this mean we are inferior? This is the crux of the dilemma. If our need for therapy and other types of services does denote inferiority, we have little hope of gaining equal citizenship. It became evident during the recent White House Conference on Handicapped Individuals that disabled people do not feel that their need for special services should take away any of their rights as citizens.

When society learns to value interdependence more than independence for everyone, the handicapped will have a far greater chance of a rewarding life. Today most people are dependent on their plumbers, TV repairmen, and auto mechanics--and think nothing of it. Barbers and beauticians provide necessary services without creating any stigma for their clients. Receiving ordinary medical care does not cast the average citizen in a dependent role. Why, then, should needing therapeutic assistance lower the image of a handicapped person?

Handicapped people should not feel inferior for their need of continuing therapy and special services. If such services enable them to be productive individuals, their status and rights should not be impaired in any way. True, therapy may never end for many severely handicapped people. Neither will education end for many so called normal people. The same way that the dependency of the young child on a kindergarten teacher must come to an end as the student matures, so must the dependency model of the therapeutic relationship come to an end. Such a model does more than degrade handicapped people. It also deprives those who work with--and for--them of the satisfaction of helping fellow human beings achieve their full potential.

Cotton Prices Stay Steady, To Some Lower

Prices paid High Plains cotton growers were steady to $1.25 per bale lower the week ending November 25, according to Paul R. Dickson in charge of USDA's Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock.

Growers sold mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and better, staples 31 through 34, mikes 3.3 and above for around 43.75 cents per pound. Mixed lots of mostly grades 31, 41, 32 and 42; staples 30 through 33; mikes 3.5 - 4.9 brought around 43.35 cents per pound, Dickson said. High Plains Classing Offices graded 299,000 samples this week, bringing the season's total to 1,548,000. This compares with only 406,000 samples graded by November 25 last year, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Predominant grades across the High Plains this week were grade 31 and 22 percent, grade 41 was 27 percent and grade 32 accounted for 24 percent.

Staple lengths were mostly staple 31 at 31 percent, staple 32 was 30 percent and staple 33 accounted for 16 percent.

Micronaire was mostly in the desirable 3.5 to 4.9 range at 83 percent of the total. Eleven percent was higher and six percent was lower.

Three percent were reduced one grade because of grass and two percent for bark. Average breakage strength of High Plains cotton registered 86,000 pounds per square inch. Gins paid growers 58 to 70 dollars per ton for cottonseed, mostly 63 to 64 dollars.
