The fact is we all three saw,  THE SHIP BELLA

The tall white ships pass on and on,
And wans upon the sea;
And o'er the billows' broken breast
Their bells steal back to me.
Sind break, in trembling, sobbling throng,
Upon to sands in dim, sweet song
Of riven melody.

And sailing o'er sweet fields of gold And clouds, and summer bine. Through alanting sun, and shadows dun, The sails slip through and through. And throbbing bells that tremble back Upon the fair ship's fading track, 'he waves with cellous strew,

And still the ships go on and on, Out gates of havy gray,
As dreams upon the slumbering sense
Pass, unfulfilled, away,
And leave but memory's grieving bells,
That sob and moan, like seean shells,
Ever and alway.

And thus our lives go on and on,
Like ships, unceasingly;
Thro' morning's gold and shadows cold,
That check time's varied sea.
Glod grant that, like the sweet ship bells,
The good that in my being dwells,
May echo after me.

And now, my friends, as we have been talking a good deal about our-selves, let me say a good word for President Grant; and I am the more free to say it because some-persons think because I have left the office I have left him. The truth is, I have gone back to my editorial chair; not simply that I may enjoy congenial pursuits, but be more effeetive in supporting the Republican party and Gen. Grant. Perhaps I may have a way of proving this different from yours, but anyhow, my friends, my way will be sincerely followed. I believe that Gen. Grant's nomination is inevita-ble. I know of no Republican in this city or State, whatever his views may be on other questions, who is against Grant. I believe his re-election essential to the preservation of the Union. And sometimes when I see the attacks on his private character, and read the pro-ceedings of these investigating com-mittees, I feel like opposing to these silly resentments and prejudies the great historical facts of his military nd civic record.

Then I remember Grant as the man who saved my country, and yours. I remember how he seized our cause when it was sinking almost for the last time and bore it to victory: I remember his patience and his perserverance; I remember how he avoided complaints to the authorities and appeals to the peo-ple; I remember when Hickmond ple; I remember when Richmond fell, he refused to ride through the conquered city at the head of his victorious army, but quietly return-ed to his family, then in New Jersey; I remember how he abstained from the Presidency till it was fore-ed upon him, and that, but for him, in 1858, we should have been de-feated, even by Seymour and Blair. And what of his administration ? tions as to his public measures ! Approved, March 5, 1872.
