

DAILY EXPRESS.
Office of Commerce Street.
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION—One
Dollar per month.
ADVERTISING.—
Advertisers will find our rates below on the back page.

San Antonio Daily Express.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1872.

VOL. VI.

NO. 93.

DRY GOODS.
Spring 1872. Spring 1872.

BAAAR.

A. ALBERT WOLFF.

Quick Sales & Small Profits.

BEST AND CHEAPEST STOCK

OF—

Dry-Goods,

Clothing

Hats & Caps,

Boots & Shoes.

We have a large STOCK to select from.

Quick sales and small profits

OUR MOTTOS,

AND A SUCCESS.

A. ALBERT WOLFF.

CITY AND COUNTRY!
HIGH & LOW!

Days of Trade!!!

At THE TIME WILL change with the weather.

We can now purchase all his goods of any man who sells New York Prints.

Or we can afford this and a small profit.

We are determined to sleep more at and only anybody to compete with us.

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

Whom the Gods will sell them;

No matter about the price;

All kinds of friends and customers

is to be made to feel at home.

And so assured we will enjoy in

every respect.

Clothes and all on your old bystanders,

before you spend your money elsewhere!

NO PARCE!

The Daily Express.

A. SINKERING & CO., Publishers.

JULIA W. VAN SICKLE, Editor & Proprietor.

Official Journal of the United States.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF REBELLION.

FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1872.

REBELLION.—STATE CONVENTION.

CHANGE OF TIME ORDERED.

A delegation of the Republican party of Texas is here called to a session at the city of Houston on the second Tuesday of May, 1872, for the purpose of nominating Presidential Electors, selecting Delegates to the Philadelphia National Convention, for a thorough reconstruction of the state, and for the transaction of other business as may properly come before the body.

The basis of representation is fixed at one delegate and one alternate for every five thousand voters cast.

County delegations, called by chairmen of committees, are authorized to elect Delegates where regular conventions are impracticable.

Papers friendly to the cause hereto expressed will please copy this call.

J. G. TRACY,

Chairman of the Executive Committee.

J. P. NEWCOMB, Secretary.

The Transcontinental R. R.

A short time since we called attention to the propriety of our citizens taking some steps towards inducing this R. R. to complete its line to San Antonio before the time fixed by their charter. We suggested a meeting of our citizens, a call of a delegation upon Mr. Pierce, and in the event of his failure to give us satisfaction, that immediate active steps be taken so as to induce a prompt building of the International from Austin to this place.

Nobody moves in the matter. Every one says "what is everybody's business is nobody's"—and so our capitalist merchants, and business men of all classes are waiting supinely for something to turn up. Austin, in the mean time, is using every effort to divert the trade and freight which would naturally pass through this city, to and through its own ware houses, and on its own route. Will nobody wake up, and do something for this city? One live man can do all that needs be done in a single day, if he will go about the business in the right way.

"What should be done is, a careful consultation, among several of our leading men and a decision upon a programme of operations.

Let this be made known to the people at large through the newspapers, and by circulation of petitions for signatures. Once the ball is in motion it will roll to the end of the alley to the satisfaction of everybody, and make a ten-strike.

We know what the people have need and desire; but the live-outdoor work must be done by themselves. He who goes to work earnestly at this business now, with enlightened sentiments and the proper views, will do this city and all of its inhabitants a service, and will receive that approbation which so good a work deserves.

Congratulations.

If Mr. Newcomb had any faith in the success of his little party last Saturday night, why should he and his wife make themselves so active in trying to persuade their forty of fifty followers to be present at the genuine republican convention to be held next Saturday night? If he was the genuine one, and the coming one will not be, what does he wish to do with it? He came over here not to ascertain what the sentiment of Bexar county republicans is, (which he, however, must know pretty well by this time so far as it relates to himself at least,) but to get himself elected a delegate to the Houston Convention.

He failed in the effort at Austin, he will fail here, and there is no doubt he will continue his journeys until he finds a country which he can dope and persuade into making him a delegate. It was a sad blow for him when he failed to secure the honor in his Austin struggle; it will be a sadder blow when, after all his exertions and misrepresentations among the colored people here, he fails again.

But it will not do to sing over this matter. He is working night and day, and has all his striking engaged in the same work. If the republicans of the county do not come out in force next Saturday night, and in time, he will make a great effort to obtain control of the meeting and have himself voted in, as he calls it.

He and his tools will not hesitate to disturb the meeting after the fashion of the Tammany blood-tub in order to accomplish his purposes.

Republicans of Bexar county are you prepared by inactivity, or otherwise, to endorse this Austin official who foists himself uninvited and uninvited upon us in order that we may control our party action, and defeat the will of the majority? Are you going to amply submit to the audacious interference, and supercilious arrogance of this official who neglects his own duties for the opportunity of insulting telling you both in speech and in his acts that you do not know how to manage your own affairs?

If not, come out in your might on Saturday next, and teach him by your independence, and thorough-going work, that he has mistaken his calling, as well as the spirit of the people whom he tries to govern and control by political chicanery and sophistry.

The colored people know and feel what the republican party has done for them, but some of them are at a loss to distinguish between the great party and a few men who have turned themselves inward in every political sense. In other words, they give credit to men and not to principles which have guided and controlled millions of men. Among this few, with an occasional exception, most were mere soap-bubbles upon the surface. They have admired burst, and refuse sometimes to acknowledge its dissipation; but the weak ones always do in time—and sooner or later they will realize the fact.

The Newcom bubble has burst, a few of our colored friends refuse to see it, but it is nevertheless just as much a fact.

Silent Men.

Washington never made a speech. In the south of his time he once attempted it, failed, and gave it up confused and dismally. In framing the Constitution of the United States the labor was almost wholly performed in Committee of the Whole, of which George Washington was day after day the chairman, and he made but two speeches during the convention, of a very few words each, something like one of Grant's speeches. The convention, however, acknowledged the master spirit, and historians affirm that had it not been for his personal popularity and the thirty words of his first speech, pronouncing the best that could be uttered upon the Constitution would have been rejected by the people.

Thomas Jefferson never made a speech; he couldn't do it. Napoleon, whose executive ability is almost without a parallel, said that his greatest difficulty was in finding men of deeds rather than words.

When asked how he maintained his influence over his superiors in age and experience, when commander-in-chief of an army in Italy, he said by reserve. The greatness of a man is not measured by the length of his speeches and their number.

Gen. Siegel, who is well known in Missouri to need an indorsement, and who has as many friends there who are just as willing as ever to "fight my Sigel," has no idea of being carried around in Schenck's pocket. A recent New York letter says: "Senator Schenck's efforts to alienate the Germans from the President have not been successful in this quarter. Gen. Siegel is a warm friend of the Administration, though he holds no office under it. He has done all in his power to neutralize Senator Schenck's endeavors, and the Germans in New York are with him."

Schenck's complete breakdown in his efforts to prove that the administration sold arms to the French government, and placed him in an untenable position before his own countrymen. He has been set down as a dangerous mischief-maker, who, to gratify his personal revenge, would, if possible, involve his adopted country in war with his native land.

COMMENTING on the overthrow of the leaders of the Eric Ring, the London Times of the 26th said: "When we consider the ruin those men have brought on the enterprise they managed! The progress they have reflected on their country, the discredit which through them has attached to American invasions, the evil example of successful dishonesty and unprincipled defiance of law which they have held up to the nations and governments throughout the Union, the official and legislative corruption of which they have been guilty, and that a short time ago he attempted to commit suicide. He is supposed to have been suffering under mental alienation for some time past."

The Chicago Journal has this: The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The Chicago Journal has this: The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The N. Y. Herald says: "Connecticut establishes the fact that the lines of the Republican party remain unbent around the administration, and that the bitter will be as powerless against the re-election of Grant in 1872 as were the hawks of 1861 against Jackson, or as were the malcontents of 1864 against the re-election of Lincoln. Your disappointed politicians are an old custom; and the American people know his tricks and know how to deal with him, whatever the fancy outcome in which he may appear."

The N. Y. Tribune says that the Cincinnati Convention is to be an exclusively Republican affair. The N. Y. Evening Post denies this, and expects to see a patriotic meeting, openly devoid of political complexion; while from the tone of some Southern exchanges we wouldn't be surprised at the renomination of Seymour and Blair, or the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Breckinridge, by that uncertain body.

The Daily Express

Arrival and Departure of Mail.

Arrived, COLUMBUS. Departs, DAILY except Tuesday Daily except Sunday at 6 a.m. WACO. Daily at 12 m. Daily at 6 a.m. through Friday. Wednesday Thursday & Friday at 5 p.m. Saturday at 6 p.m. PORT CONCHO. Sunday, Wednesday Tuesday, Thursday & Friday at 6 a.m. Saturday at 6 a.m. HAGUE PASS.

Wednesday and Sat Tuesday and Friday at 10 a.m. at 6 p.m. through Friday at 5 p.m. PORT CONCHO. Monday by 6 p.m. Thursday at 6 a.m. through Friday at 6 a.m. Saturday at 6 a.m. through Friday at 6 a.m. Monday at 6 a.m. through Friday at 6 a.m.

Policy of the Administration.

In conclusion, I would call the policy of the Administration to be a thorough enforcement of every law, a faithful collection of every tax, a prompt payment of every debt of the nation, a reduction of the taxes as rapidly as the requirements of the country will admit, the reduction of expenses, and the greatest relief to the people.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and baseness in office has been successfully carried on, where the government of our State has been reorganized through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the administration will be successful in its efforts to evolve from strife, disorder, and seeming chaos, a fair and happy future for the toiling masses of our own country, a war upon corruption and baseness in office has been successfully carried on, where the government of our State has been reorganized through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the administration will be successful in its efforts to evolve from strife, disorder, and seeming chaos, a fair and happy future for the toiling masses of our own country.

U. S. GRANT.

Washington, Dec. 5, 1870.

Newspaper Laws.

We shall call the special attention of Postmasters and subscribers to the following extracts of the newspaper laws:

1. A Postmaster is required to give notice to his subscribers that he has received the last issue before a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and states the reason for it "not being there" or "not having it ready." This is morally certain that the administration will be successful in its efforts to evolve from strife, disorder, and seeming chaos, a fair and happy future for the toiling masses of our own country.

2. Any person who takes a paper from the Postoffice, whether directed to his name or another, or whether it is unchristened or otherwise, must pay for it.

3. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all bills or the publisher may continue to send it until the order is discontinued.

4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it.

The law provides upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take a paper and periodicals from the Postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

DISTRICT JUDGES OF TEXAS

THREE POSTOFFICE ADDRESSES.

W. Chambers, 1st district, Liberty, Liberty county;

H. C. Dodge, 2nd district, Woodville,

Tyler county;

L. W. Foster, 3d district, Crockett, House

county;

M. Price, 4th district, Rush, Cherokee

county;

J. W. Wheeler, 5th district, Conroe, Con-

roe county;

J. B. Williams, 6th district, Marshall, Marshall county;

A. H. Lovelace, 7th district, Clarksville,

Bell River county;

Z. Norton, 8th district, Tyler, Smith

county;

C. S. Bowles, 9th district, Palestine, Anderson

county;

J. B. Andrews, 10th district, McKinney, Collin

county;

J. H. Moore, 11th district, Sherman, Grayson

county;

G. L. Lovelace, 12th district, Brownsville,

Cameron county;

C. T. Bassett, 13th district, Indianapolis, Calhoun

county;

J. W. Andrews, 14th district, Golds-

Gated county;

A. P. McCormick, 15th district, Galveston,

Galveston county;

H. M. Morrison, 16th district, Houston,

Harris county;

J. M. Burkhart, 17th district, Matagorda

county;

J. L. Lindsey, 18th district, Lagrange, Fayette

county;

H. Henry, 19th district, Seguin, Guadalupe

county;

Geo. Nease, 20th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

J. J. Thornton, 24th district, Chaves,

Medina county;

G. J. Clark, 25th district, El Paso, El

Paso county;

L. W. Everett, 26th district, Beeville, Nue-

cesco county;

J. F. Richardson, 27th district, Austin,

Travis county;

J. M. Quist, 28th district, Caldwell, Burnham county;

J. B. McFarland, 29th district, Breckenridge county;

J. B. Edwards, 30th district, Henderson,

Walker county;

J. M. Thibaud, 31st district, Calvert

county;

W. E. Jones, 32d district, Georgetown,

Williamson county;

J. W. Oliver, 33d district, Waco, McLennan

county;

J. P. O'Conor, 34th district, Belton, Bell

county;

F. W. Wood, 35th district, Dallas, Dallas

county;

Franklin, 36th district, Fort Worth, Tarrant

county;

John G. Nease, 37th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 38th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 39th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 40th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 41st district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 42d district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 43d district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 44th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 45th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 46th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 47th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 48th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 49th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 50th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 51st district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 52d district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 53d district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 54th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 55th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 56th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 57th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 58th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 59th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 60th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 61st district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 62d district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 63d district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 64th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 65th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 66th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 67th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 68th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 69th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 70th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 71st district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 72d district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 73d district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 74th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 75th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

John G. Nease, 76th district, San Antonio,

Bexar county;

<p