LOCAL AFFAIRS.

We looked expectantly for another "Prospectus" jesterday morning, for we saw the great Convention manipulator in the dity, "the smartest man in Texas"—trass-mounted, back-acting, and "buzzy" as send. But up to the time of going to as equal. But up to the time or going to press, although he and the most learned of all the city attornice in this world were seen riding in a back together, no "Pros-pected" has fluftered on the breeze. What the matter, Mr. Herald ?

seems to be a great success. Night before last the rooms were crowded, and the excellent arrangement and uplendid-display attracted the attention, and received the enconsums of every body. There will be a throng during the days of the fair, and no doubt a jamb when the prizes are to be Nouth,
