This consolidation of Italy, so long fragmentary and impertant, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital; the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege and capitulation of the prond and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a scion of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the kingdoma of Saxony, Wurttensberg, Havaria, with the fron, Hosse, the Hamse Towns, &c., uniter the headship of Prussia, into the trimphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to reassert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her often postponed but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Conhe councils of Europe, or to prosecute her fiten postponed but never relinquished issigns on the great city founded by Cons-antine and the vast but decaying and an-rebical demilition of the Sultan, all com-bine to invest with profound interest the over-changing phases of our tidings from the Old World. The Tribune, through ever-changing phases of our tidings from the Old World. The TRIBUNE, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe, where great movements are in progress or imminent, alms to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle-age Feudalism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand and Nineteenth-Century skepticism and secularism on the other. Recognising a Divine Providence in all that proceeds and is, it looks hopefully on the great conflict as destined (like our own recent convulsion) to evolve from strife, disaster, and seeming choos, a fairer and happier future for the tolling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our City, whereby the government of our State has been revolutionized through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sangular antichations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated causot, in its gress, be circumseribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Cotton for use or 75 ets for both.
