THEY THOUGHT THEY WANT Ever ready to forgive and forget, we de-licate those lines to all, who, right or wrong, followed what they conceived to be the path of duty.

C. AUGUSTUS HAYLLAND.

"They thought they were right,"
When their path was o'centrown
With our dead and our dying—
While the Heaven's bright moon
Shous through the dim clouds
And whispered away,
To the realise for above,
The pure souls from the clay,

"They thought they were right,"
When near to death's door
They carried their banner,
And still cited for more;
More blood from our true ones,
Mere blood from our braves;
While they clamp to their idols,
Their idols, the slave.

"They thought they were right,"
Shall we hate them to-day,
Though their path he o'crahadowed.
Or dark be their way!
No, no! let us strew
Kaught but flowers in their path,
White we draw to the curtain,
And shut is our wrath.

It will, for a time, be devoted especially to the past, present and future of Chicago; besides being the most complete weekly newspaper in the world.

PIRESIDE COMPANION AND NEWS PAPER

Its columns are devoted to News. Com-merce. Segence, Literature, Art. Drams, Music, Humor, Pastime, Poetry. Pashion, Society news, and enough of Romanes to make its most desirable fracide companion, as well as the most reliable and complete newspaper for the business man in the collec-ing room.

BRAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATIONS.

It will be illustrated with engravings ta-ken from Photographs of the Chicago Ruins, instead of aksteless "By Our Special Artist" who was not 'on the spot;" and thus give a series of rusracy views, not obtainable classwhere, and the first number will contain the only correct map of the bursed city.

That boautiful literary journal, "Happy House," whose publisher was the first to issue a paper to meet the public demand, after the turful fire, has been merged late, the literary department of the Purch, which will embrace the contributions of the day.

HAPPY ROURS.

A SPECIAL FRATURE. The PERKER will contain, as an especial feature, a more complete record of incidents and results of the late terrible fire, then can be found in any book, paper of ether publication in the country. Be namerous and inaccurate have been the accounts control, that something reliable and readables of country at this time and The Perker will fell the bill.
