FOR PRESIDENT

Ulysses S. Grant OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

Henry Wilson. OF MASSACHUSETTS.

Whenever the sore heads and disappointed office-seekers who oppose the present Administration wish to make their point stronger than usual they quote Summer's charges against Grant without taking the least trouble, to ascertain the Sen-ator's meaning or test the trath of his assertions. This is possibly bea blind obedience, immovable trust in their leaders and because they are aware that they have so little the small modicum of brains possessed by their self-appointed leaders and dictators, and take all they are for gospel truth. Foremost amongst his flagrant charges against the President, Mr. Sumner him of having turned the adquarters-is this true ! Who are the officers at the White House? There are three Babcock a major of Engineers, and Dent and Porter belonging to Sherman's staff. If they were dismissed to-day, Babcock would have an office ne other public building and ent. He trimmed a little more, and still more, but it would look loperded; so he went to the barber's and got shaved for the first time in twelve years. He was very busy, and business detained him in his office until a late hour of the night, and when he went home he found that his family had retired. This was not so unusual occurrence; so he silently entered by means of a pass-key,

Horace White on Horace

As Horace White, of the Chicago Triperfers of old Chappaqua, for President, it may be interesting to recall Mr. White's opinion of his friend, as published a few years since. It will be useful in showing how easily a manean change his opinion, when it is to his interest to foreswear what little principle he ever had, in order that temporary Chairman, Yan Siyek, of Bexar, he may have his finger in the political pie.

Mr. White is one of many who have thus apostatized from their original belief in the mistaken idea that Greeley is to be the next President, and that they are to party is very sure, just as aure as the next President, and that they are to they deserted it of their own accord the minute they pronounced in favor of the Cincinnati candidate. be rewarded in proportion to the amount of lying and dishonesty they have been nount of support their evil influence can

The following is Horace White's opinhe said: If there were a contest twist him and Grant, he was sure "Horsee Greeley is not now, and never the Democrats or nine, tenths of them, would rather vote for Grant, with an official position requiring practical representation of the old adage: "Quem fine, consistent action, For twenty-divergence has been a man who ought to be trusted them, with an official position requiring practical requirements of the old adage: "Quem fine, consistent action, For twenty-divergence has been a man who ought to be trusted with an official position requiring practical requirements." on of Greeley, as published in 1866:

unreliable commander in action, a misan throps in victory, and a riotous disorgani per in defeat. He has always been fanatical in his demands for the extremest meas res, and when the party has reached the eye of triumph, invariably thrusts himself orward as a negotiator of terms of sur-ender to the enemy. His course during the war was but a repetition of his course in politics. In 1861, he was an open deunder of secession; he changed to a vigprous champion of the war, and thereaf ter was forever recklessly making propos als for peace and as recklessly withdraw ing them-making war in spite of Mars and negotiating in spite of Minerva.

For 1872.

The consolidation of Italy, so long fragmentary and important, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital; the bumiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siego and capitulation of her proud and gay metropolia; the expulsion of the Bourbone from the Spaniel throme, and the substitution for them of a noise of the most liberal among repal, houses; the virtual almorption of the kingdoms of Saxony, Wurttenberg, Bavaira, with Baden, Resso, the Haine Towns, &c., under the headship of Francia, into the triumphant and powerful cupirs of Germany; and the arming of Rassia to reassert her proponderance in the councils of Europe, or to pronounce in the councils of the superior reliaming and the vant but decaying and anachical dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invent with profound interest the over-changing phases of our tidings from the Old World. The Transiva, through trusted correspondents stationed of Sil points in Europe where great movements over-shanging manes or our tidings from the Old World. This Thirty is, through trusted correspondente stationed as all points in Europe where great neverments are in progress or imminent, sime to present a complete and instructive pancrams of events on that continuit, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middlenge Foundamen and Eccleviasticium on the one hand and Sineteenth-Century alepticism and secularism on the other.
