San Antonio, Texas, July 24, 1873. To the Honorable City Council...

The present indebtedness of the city due and maturing within a year, as appears by its records, is Gold, thirty-three thousand five hundred and thirty-one dollars and thirty-one cents...

The regular income of the city under the old rates of assessment of taxes for the year 1873 is estimated at about one thousand dollars ($1,000) and the necessary expenses of the municipal government, exclusive of improvements...

It is believed that there is a great necessity for improvements of a permanent character for the health, safety and comfort of the citizens...

For the first, it is estimated that thirty thousand dollars will be required, and the second, all parts of the city are suffering for the want of sufficient drainage...

The attention of officers of the law of this State and the United States, enacted to secure the free exercise of the rights of suffrage...

Separate registers will be kept for each ward, and each register will be kept in the hands of the City Council...

Since the above was prepared for the press, it is reported that there is a note of the City of San Antonio...

No objection to this liability appears on the books of the City, and it is believed that the same will be paid...
