CHARLES SUMNING SERENADED, Dr. Augusta, a colored gentleman who has been shown a good many favors by the Administration, but because he did not receive more, has gone over to the opposition, arranged with Charles Summer to tender him a serenade last evening. At 9 o'clock, David Fisher, A. M. Green, Wm. the opposition, it is from personal motives F. Thomas and James and Wus.F. Thom-bly, all colored, assembled at the house of standing. The Senator made no reference to his break with the Republican party, and no Democratic party the means of his attempt to explain his apostacy, and the attempt to betray the colored people into the power of their former oppressors. I stood near enough to the speaker to map his depression of spirits, as indicated by his countenance, his actions and the top

The Daily Star, whose reporter was preent, says: "The audience at the serenade was mainly white, there being perhaps, a a dozen colored men present." Certainly three-fourths of those present, were there out of mere enricelty to hear some reasons from the speaker for his defection. In this, however, they were not gratified. Candidly, the affair was a failure. The colored people of Washington are not with the Senator in his apostacy.

PRESIDENT GRANT'S PROULIABITIES The colored people of Ohio, as well as in some other States, have been in the appears that Comal county is distemancipation of the slaves in the West Indies by the British Government. The occasion was observed at Rockland, Ohio, on the lat of August. By invitation, the Hon. A. F, Perry, M. C., was one of the speakers. He referred briefly to the Pre sident, and as he has been much in Wash Ington, and with the Chief Executive of favorable opportunities of studying the peculiarities of that much abused and mis represented man. Mr. Perry said of the President:
