OFFICIAL LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, Passed at the Second Session of the Forty-Second Congress.

[GENERAL NATURE NO. 118.]

AN ACT to revise, consolidate, and amend the statutes relating to the Post Office Department.

Sec. 36. That the Postmaster General may establish resident mail agencies at the ports of Panama and Aspinwall (New Granada), Havana, (Cuba) and Saint Thomas, and such other foreign ports at which United States mail steamers "bound to land and receive mails, as may in his judgment promote the efficiency of the foreign mail service; and may pay the agents employed at such ports out of the appropriation for transportation of the mails at private sale, at Auction Prices, 19-5-72nd St.

Sec. 37. That the Postmaster General may appoint an agent in charge of the mail on board of each of the mail steamers on the routes between San Francisco, Japan, and China, between San Francisco and Honolulu, (Hawaiian Islands) and New York to Rio Janeiro, who shall be allowed, out of the appropriation for transportation of the mail, an annual salary of two thousand dollars, and may employ such other persons as may be necessary for the prompt and efficient management of the post at service in those countries, and he may pay the postal agents employed there at a reasonable compensation for their services in addition to the salary or incidental expenses.

Sec. 38. That the Postmaster General may employ as many route agents as may be necessary for the prompt and efficient management of the post, and may pay them out of the appropriation for transportation of the mail, at the rate of not less than nine hundred nor more than one thousand two hundred dollars per annum to the head clerks, not more than one thousand two hundred dollars per annum to the other clerks.

Sec. 39. That the accounts of the postal service shall be kept in such a manner as to exhibit the amount of revenues derived respectively from postage, from the sale of paper, and from the sale of stamps, and from the sale of "miscellaneous" and "miscellaneous" and the amount of expenditures for each of the following objects, to-wit: "Transportation of the mail," "compensation of letter carriers," "compensation of clerks for post offices," "compensation of blank agents and assistants," "mail depredations and special agents," "postage stamps and cancellations," "stationery," "fuel for post offices," "light, and fuel for post offices," and "miscellaneous."

Sec. 40. That the Postmaster General shall be held responsible for the safe delivery of all letters for which no owner can be found, all money taken from the mail by robbery, theft, or otherwise, which may come into the hands of any agent or employee of the Post Office Department, and for the safe delivery of all fines and penalties imposed for any violation of the postal laws, except such part as may be lawfully retained by the Postmaster General for the benefit of the Post Office Department, and for the safe delivery of all money derived from the sale of waste paper or other public property of the Post Office Department, shall be deposited in the treasury, under the direction of the Postmaster General, as part of the postal revenue. And the Postmaster General is hereby directed to cause to be placed to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States for the service of the Post Office Department, the sum of money of the money-order business, and the receipts of the Post Office Department derived from this source during each quarter.

Sec. 41. That the Postmaster General shall be held responsible for the safe delivery of all letters for which no owner can be found, all money taken from the mail by robbery, theft, or otherwise, which may come into the hands of any agent or employee of the Post Office Department, and for the safe delivery of all fines and penalties imposed for any violation of the postal laws, except such part as may be lawfully retained by the Postmaster General for the benefit of the Post Office Department, and for the safe delivery of all money derived from the sale of waste paper or other public property of the Post Office Department, shall be deposited in the treasury, under the direction of the Postmaster General, as part of the postal revenue. And the Postmaster General is hereby directed to cause to be placed to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States for the service of the Post Office Department, the sum of money of the money-order business, and the receipts of the Post Office Department derived from this source during each quarter.

Sec. 42. That the Postmaster General shall be held responsible for the safe delivery of all letters for which no owner can be found, all money taken from the mail by robbery, theft, or otherwise, which may come into the hands of any agent or employee of the Post Office Department, and for the safe delivery of all fines and penalties imposed for any violation of the postal laws, except such part as may be lawfully retained by the Postmaster General for the benefit of the Post Office Department, and for the safe delivery of all money derived from the sale of waste paper or other public property of the Post Office Department, shall be deposited in the treasury, under the direction of the Postmaster General, as part of the postal revenue. And the Postmaster General is hereby directed to cause to be placed to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States for the service of the Post Office Department, the sum of money of the money-order business, and the receipts of the Post Office Department derived from this source during each quarter.

Sec. 43. That the money received from the sale of postage stamps, and from the sale of paper, and from the sale of stamps, and from the sale of "miscellaneous" and "miscellaneous" shall be deposited in the treasury, under the direction of the Postmaster General, as part of the postal revenue. FOR PRESIDENT, Ulysses S. Grant, OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, Henry Wilson, OF MASSACHUSETTS. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS—4th Dist. J. R. BURNS, of Fayette.

FOR CONGRESS—STATE AT LARGE: HON. LEMUEL D. EVANS HON. A. B. NORTON.

WE are authorized to announce A. DITTMAR, as a candidate for the office of District Attorney for the 23rd District.

N. O. GREEN, Esq., is announced by authority, as a candidate for the office of District Attorney, at the coming election.

We are authorized to announce M. G. Anderson as a candidate for District Attorney of the 2nd District, subject to a nomination of a Republican Convention should one be held.

Republican Convention.

A Convention of the Republicans of Bexar county will be held at the Freeman's Hall, city of San Antonio, on Saturday, the 7th day of September, 1872, at 2 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of nominating county candidates, and electing delegates to the District Convention, to be held on the 13th of September.

Each precinct is respectfully invited to hold primary meetings and send delegates. S. G. NEWTON, J. W. VAN SLYCK, For Rep. Ex. Com. Bexar County.

Call for a Republican Nominating Convention.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Aug. 19, 1872. The chairman of Republican Executive County Committee of the 29th Senatorial District, composed of the County's of Bexar, Wilson, Comal, Kendall, Blanco, Burnet, Bandera, Edwards, Kinble, and Menard, will call County Conventions of Mass Meetings, and elect delegates to the 29th Senatorial District Convention, to be held at San Antonio, on the 13th day of September 1872, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature. County's which have no organized Committee will hold Mass Meetings and elect delegates to said convention.

W. J. LOCKE, Chairman Ex. Com. 29th Dist. Dis.

FAILING to win over any colored vote by honeyed words of sophistry, the Liberals are now pelting them with stones in good old Democratic fashion. The "Tribune" is afraid they are "ignorant of the rights that belong to a free American citizen." This is drawing it mild. We shall soon be told that they have forfeited their right to citizenship, if not their right to freedom also. To that complexion must this spurious "Liberalism" come at last.

JUDGE EVANS and Col. Gillespie of the third Congress district have challenged Judge Maxey and Col. Giddings to a joint discussion of the political issues of the present canvass throughout the District. It is presumed by the Houston Union that the challenge will be accepted; in which case there will be an exciting time in that district, and from the character of the men who are to engage in it no doubt great good will result. The Union thinks "it will work a new era in Texas politics, and have a tendency to dispel that bitterness which has therefore accompanied our political campaigns." We hope to furnish, in this district, to the opposition stump speakers worthy opponents, and that the questions in issue will be fairly and squarely discussed on both sides. The Republicans have nothing to fear in any fair open contest.

THE SCHOOL-TAX.—In our article of yesterday upon this subject we failed to mention the fact that a good many of the tax-payers of the city have presented themselves to the sheriff proffering to pay the school-tax, but the sheriff construes the injunction granted against him collecting it as prohibiting him from receiving it. Some of the tax-payers complain that neither Mr. Berends, nor any other man, has a right to interfere with their affairs in the manner he has done. They say if they are willing and desire to pay the tax it is not the business of anybody to prevent them from doing so.

Indeed, we are inclined to the opinion that the sheriff misconstrues the law, and ought to receive the tax when tendered. Suppose, for instance, that the tax should hereafter be declared by the Supreme Court as legal one, and it should become the duty of the sheriff to collect it, cannot those who now make a tender of it plead the tender in bar of any action to recovert? But in such case the sheriff would be none less responsible for the amounts rejected by him. He would have to pay those taxes out of his own pocket.

The end of politics is law, but the end of law is not political triumph, but the triumph of justice. Justice is tolerably sure of winning in the end in any game of this kind played by the political card dealers.

The Popular Vote for President.

As a matter of reference, interesting as we are entering into a new political campaign, we have compiled the popular vote of the country for President since 1836, giving in the first column the vote for the successful candidate, with his name, and in the second the vote of the opposition candidate or candidates:

Table with 3 columns: Year, Candidate, and Votes. Includes entries for 1840 (Van Buren vs Harrison), 1844 (Polk vs Taylor), 1848 (Buchanan vs Fremont), 1852 (Pierce vs Fremont), 1856 (Buchanan vs Fremont), 1860 (Lincoln vs Breckinridge), 1864 (Grant vs McClellan), 1868 (Grant vs Seymour).

It will be seen that from 1844 to 1860, inclusive, no less than four presidents were elected by a minority vote of the people, though they had the requisite electoral majority. In 1845 Mr. Polk had a majority over Mr. Clay, on the popular vote, of only 37,370, while the Abolition vote for James G. Birney was 60,494.

In 1848 General Taylor had a majority of about 140,000 over Cass, but was in a minority of 150,000 against the combined votes of Cass and Van Buren. In 1852 Pierce had but a slight majority over the opposition. In 1856 Buchanan was in a popular minority, as against Fremont and Fillmore, of nearly four hundred thousand; while in 1860, Mr. Lincoln, though having a plurality of the popular vote, and a majority of the electoral, was in the minority as against the total vote of Bell and Breckinridge. The total popular vote cast for President in 1836 was 1,301,298.

In 1868 it was 5,160,480, having nearly quadrupled in 32 years. When we take into account the addition to our voting population since 1868, by the passage of the Fifteenth Amendment, the removal of the disabilities of a large number of Southern rebels, and the natural growth of the country, we shall expect a total vote at the coming Presidential election of very nearly seven millions.

Notes from Washington.

Filling Up vs. Bridging Over the Bloody Chasm.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13th, 1872. Horace Greeley and his supporters propose to restore the country to permanent peace and harmony by "bridging over" the bloody chasm that has so long divided the South and North in their sympathies and interests. Grant and the Republican party propose as a more substantial remedy to "fill up" the chasm, and make the permanency of our peace and mutual interests a positive certainty.

Will not the people approach the subject in the spirit of conciliation and strive for that policy that will secure to all real and permanent harmony in the future? We have been "bridging over" long enough. Almost since the Declaration of Independence, the two sections of our great country have been held together only by "bridging over" the chasm and preserving a precarious Union. Among the primary causes, in fact, the root of all secondary causes of division, was the question of slavery. And to avoid a separation of the States upon this difficult problem, through three quarters of a century, a constant system of "bridging over" was carried on by Congress. From slavery and its interests and demands grew up wide differences of views on the subject of Free Trade and Protection. The South demanded a system of low tariffs, while the North, as a general rule, sought protection and encouragement to home industries, through a protective tariff. Year after year those questions engrossed the attention of Congress, and drew from statesmen some of the most animated debates on record. The chasm widened until it culminated in 1832, in the nullification act of South Carolina. In that act the laws of Congress were declared null and void so far as they related to the tariff, and no duties enjoined by that law or its amendments, shall be paid or permitted to be paid in the State of South Carolina, after the first day of February, 1832.

Robert Y. Hayne was elected Governor and sustained the nullifiers, who had a large majority in the legislature. By prompt decision President Jackson checked the nullification proceedings for a time, and in March following Mr. Clay, by his compromise tariff succeeded in "bridging over" the chasm, and preventing civil war. Still, the chasm between the North and South existed and grew wider year after year until it culminated in one of the bloodiest civil wars recorded in history. Out of this grew unparalleled burdens in the form of drafts for armies and taxes to sustain them. These taxes grew year by year as the expenses of the war increased, until it "extended," as a late writer observed, "to every branch of industry; and almost to every transaction of life. The cradle and the coffin, the swaddling clothes of the new-born babe and the shroud of the dead, with all the articles used by the living, were alike subjected to this all-pervading system of taxation." But while the country was in danger there was not a murmur. The mother parted with her last son, and the father gave his last dollar to meet the emergency, and did it cheerfully. Even after the war was over, and until the credit of the country was re-established, the taxes were borne without complaint. Now they are largely abated, and instead of taxing actually about 10,000 articles of home manufacture or growth, for wear, food, or otherwise, the internal taxes are confined to stamps and the tax on spirits, beer and tobacco. The country is again at peace. Shall not that peace be made permanent and perpetual? The original cause of a separation between North and South has been forever removed. Can we not remove that feeling of hatred and revenge that grew out of it? After twelve years of extraordinary hardships and vicissitudes, North and South, shall we not fill up the great chasm with the solid materials of a full conciliation—each section of the country striving to outdo the other in a manifestation of mutual forgiving and forgetting? Do not bridge over the chasm. The bridge will decay and fall by and bye, and the chasm will be again exposed and the country become separated.

It is a common statement that General Lee laid down his arms, has been an advocate not only of amnesty, but of a full and hearty reconciliation. Never were words uttered in greater sincerity than those of General Grant when he said, "LET US HAVE PEACE."

I believe now, that it is the earnest desire of the Republican party to see the country united, not only politically, but in spirit and affection, with a reciprocal confidence, and under and identity of sentiment and feeling as permanent and enduring as the hills. And I am just as confident that no man, in the full exercise of his reason, who fought and fought gallantly and bravely too, for the "lost cause," has any desire to perpetuate that feeling of those acts that would lead to another trial of strength between the South and the North, or even to prolong the feeling that caused the late war. Who then desires to keep open the "bloody chasm"? Could that question be announced from the dome of the National Capitol, and caught up from hill-top to hill-top, East to river St. Croix, West to the Columbia, South to the Rio Grande, and North to the 39th parallel, the one universal response would be "No one. Let the bloody chasm be forever closed, and all our hatreds, jealousies, and animosities be forever buried at its bottom." This, I am, sure, the spirit that pervades the minds and fills the hearts of all classes to-day in every section of our great country. If there can be found a man who expresses an opposite sentiment, he is influenced by an abnormal condition of mind, and is neither a patriot, a statesman nor a lover of his country.

God has given us a glorious heritage. Never were national prospects brighter or better. The nations note our achievements and material progress with wonder. The people from almost every other country come here for permanent homes, bringing with them capital, muscle and energy. Our domain is large; our borders are broad; there is room yet, and to spare. Shall we longer check immigration by unnecessary divisions and sectional hatreds? By the oppression of races and prejudice against color? By persecution for opinions sake? Close up the chasm large and small, and let good will and harmony prevail.

Old political landmarks are obliterated forever. The Cincinnati and the Philadelphia platforms are both most emphatically Republican. There is not a sentence, nor a line, nor even a syllable in either that may not be accepted by the supporters of the other. Let us have equal harmony in the canvass throughout the campaign. Let misrepresentation and low personalities be avoided on both sides, and the canvass be conducted upon the high and honorable principles of patriotism. Let every voter examine the claims of each candidate and decide for himself. Political franchise is the right of every citizen. Let this right be exercised according to his best judgment and for the best interests of himself and his country, and in consulting the one he accomplishes the good of the other. Be considerate, independent and prudent in the exercise of your right. If Greeley be the better man, then give him your vote; but if Grant, to him discharge your duty without fear or bribe. But under all circumstances let the object and desire of all classes North, South East and West be to fill up forever the chasm that has hitherto divided the country. O. S. T.

EDITOR EXPRESS.—In the absence of T. Fairweather from the city, I beg to expose a cowardly attack on his character, made in your issue of yesterday, by the Directors of the Fair. The facts are as follows, viz: Prior to the last Fair, the President of the same, who is also the agent for the Singer machine, came out with a challenge of $50 that the Singer would get all the prizes. It did not take T. F. to get all the prizes, however, he being then agent for the Grant & Baker, and having at immense trouble and expense, prepared a large variety of work specially for the Fair, he entered for competition. The work was allowed, by every lady present, to be the best in every respect ever shown here. The committee refused to look at it, although requested by Mr. F., repeatedly, so to do, and they gave all the prizes to the President. Mr. F. then told them he would never exhibit at their Fair, and he fully exposed the wire-pulling through the columns of the city papers, and this is what pinches. Every worthy man and lady in this city is aware of the above facts, and knows they cannot be controverted, and hundreds, both here and elsewhere, verbally and in writing, have expressed their genuine sympathy with Mr. Fairweather, and their detestation of the foul play shown him at the Fair. Mr. F.'s only crime is that of the true patriot who fearlessly exposes corruption in high places, and their crime abominable, slanderous and disgraceful conduct, which smells to Heaven. Respectfully yours, D. W. FRAZER.

P. S.—Should the Committee desire to see me, I am on hand for some time at the Grover & Baker office. B. W. F.

A Case in Point.

The other day an old bell-wether of a Democrat, who acts as whipper-in for the party in that section of the country in which he lives was trying to induce a stubborn old-line Democrat to vote for Greeley, saying to him;

"Didn't you help elect delegates to the Baltimore Convention?" "Yes," said the man "I did."

"Well, then, as they nominated Greeley at that convention, why is it that you are not bound to support him?"

"Pshaw!" says the unwilling one. "If I commission you to buy me a horse, and you get for me, instead, a jackass am I bound to take him? I reckon not."

The whipper-in found this illustration so forcible and unanswerable that he gave up the attempt at proselytism in despair.

The Democratic papers speak of Greeley as "our future President." The pleasures of the imagination are the chief of human joys. We are glad to see our opponents happy, but would suggest to them that the "future always is to be, but never is."

The Greeleyites are not so merry as they were over the Louisville Convention. They show evident signs of alarm. The Democrats and Liberals, the Macbeth and Lady of days to day, would like a little less Duncan in their.

Greeley and Grant.—One whaled, the other bailed Davis, who, if right should not have been whaled; if wrong should not have been bailed! Grant or Greeley was wrong. If Grant was wrong, then Greeley was wrong for urging him on. If Greeley was wrong, give him no credit for it.—Pomeroy's Democrat.

The Terre Haute Express calls "dem."—Greeleyites, "pollwogs." And if you never saw "a tadpole turn to a frog," you just watch the "Greeleyites" all turn to democrats after the election.—Matt. J.

"Dem! Reps" is suggested by the Mount Pleasant (Iowa) Journal as a fitting name for Republicans who have deserted to the Democracy, but claim to be still Republicans.

PROCLAMATION

By the Governor of the State of Texas. TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS shall come: Whereas, it is provided by section thirty-seven (37) of article (3) of the constitution of this State, that at the first general election after the acceptance of the Constitution by the Congress of the United States, an election shall be held to settle permanently the seat of government of the State of Texas.

Now, therefore, I, EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of this State, do hereby order and direct that said election for the permanent settlement of the seat of government of this State be held at the same time and place for voting as at the next general election, viz: at the county seat of each county, and commencing on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1872, and continuing for consecutive days, viz: the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth days of November, A. D. 1872. The returns of said election shall be transmitted to the Governor and other returning officers in accordance with law.

The attention of all officers of the law, voters and others is called to provisions of the law of this State and the United States, enacted to secure the free exercise of the right of suffrage, and the punishment of those who may in any manner attempt to interfere with this franchise. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and have caused [L. S.] the great seal of the State to be affixed, at the city of Austin, this 16th day of July, A. D. 1872. EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor.

By the Governor: JAMES P. NEWCOMB, Secretary of State. 8-21-72-wide.

PROCLAMATION By the Governor of the State of Texas TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS shall come: Whereas, by a joint resolution of the Twelfth Legislature of the State of Texas, passed May 17th, 1871, was resolved, "that section six of article ten of the constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as hereafter to read and be as follows: Sec. 6. The Legislature shall not hereafter grant lands, except for purposes of internal improvement, in any person or persons, nor shall any certificate for land be sold at the Land Office, except to actual settlers upon the same, and in lots not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, provided that the Legislature shall not grant out of the public domain more than twenty sections of land for each mile of completed work in aid of the construction of which land may be granted; and provided further, that nothing in the foregoing proviso shall effect any rights, granted or secured by laws passed prior to the final adoption of this amendment."

Now, therefore, I, EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and Laws of this State, do hereby order and direct that the said election to vote on the said proposed amendment to the constitution of this State be held at the same time and place for voting as at the next general election, viz: at the county seat of each county, and commencing on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1872, and continuing four consecutive days, viz: the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth day of November, A. D. 1872. The returning officers at said general election, shall open a poll for and make a return to the Secretary of State of the names of all those voting for Representatives, who have voted on the proposed amendment to section 6 of article 10 of the constitution, in accordance with law, the ballots used by voters to have written or printed on them the words "for the amendment," or "against the amendment."

The attention of officers of the law, voters and others is called to the provisions of the law of this State and the United States, enacted to secure the free exercise of the right of suffrage, and the punishment of those who may in any manner attempt to interfere with this franchise. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and have caused [L. S.] the great seal of the State to be affixed, at the city of Austin, this 16th day of July, A. D. 1872. EDMUND J. By the Governor of the State of Texas. TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS shall come: Whereas, it is provided by section thirty-seven (37) of article (3) of the constitution of this State, that at the first general election after the acceptance of the Constitution by the Congress of the United States, an election shall be held to settle permanently the seat of government of the State of Texas.

Now, therefore, I, EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of this State, do hereby order and direct that said election for the permanent settlement of the seat of government of this State be held at the same time and place for voting as at the next general election, viz: at the county seat of each county, and commencing on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1872, and continuing for consecutive days, viz: the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth days of November, A. D. 1872. The returns of said election shall be transmitted to the Governor and other returning officers in accordance with law.

The attention of all officers of the law, voters and others is called to provisions of the law of this State and the United States, enacted to secure the free exercise of the right of suffrage, and the punishment of those who may in any manner attempt to interfere with this franchise. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and have caused [L. S.] the great seal of the State to be affixed, at the city of Austin, this 16th day of July, A. D. 1872. EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor.

By the Governor: JAMES P. NEWCOMB, Secretary of State. 8-21-72-wide.

PROCLAMATION By the Governor of the State of Texas TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS shall come: Whereas, by a joint resolution of the Twelfth Legislature of the State of Texas, passed May 17th, 1871, was resolved, "that section six of article ten of the constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as hereafter to read and be as follows: Sec. 6. The Legislature shall not hereafter grant lands, except for purposes of internal improvement, in any person or persons, nor shall any certificate for land be sold at the Land Office, except to actual settlers upon the same, and in lots not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, provided that the Legislature shall not grant out of the public domain more than twenty sections of land for each mile of completed work in aid of the construction of which land may be granted; and provided further, that nothing in the foregoing proviso shall effect any rights, granted or secured by laws passed prior to the final adoption of this amendment."

Now, therefore, I, EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and Laws of this State, do hereby order and direct that the said election to vote on the said proposed amendment to the constitution of this State be held at the same time and place for voting as at the next general election, viz: at the county seat of each county, and commencing on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1872, and continuing four consecutive days, viz: the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth day of November, A. D. 1872. The returning officers at said general election, shall open a poll for and make a return to the Secretary of State of the names of all those voting for Representatives, who have voted on the proposed amendment to section 6 of article 10 of the constitution, in accordance with law, the ballots used by voters to have written or printed on them the words "for the amendment," or "against the amendment."

The attention of officers of the law, voters and others is called to the provisions of the law of this State and the United States, enacted to secure the free exercise of the right of suffrage, and the punishment of those who may in any manner attempt to interfere with this franchise. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and have caused [L. S.] the great seal of the State to be affixed, at the city of Austin, this 16th day of July, A. D. 1872. EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor.

THE THREE BELLS.

BY WHITTIER.

Beneath the low-hung night cloud
That raked her splintered mast
The good ship settled slowly,
The cruel leak gained fast.

Over the awful ocean
Her signal guns pealed out.
Dear God! was that Thy answer
From the horror round about?

A voice came down the wild wind,
"Ho! ship ahoy!" its cry;
"Ours stout Three Bells of Glasgow Stand still till daylight by!"

Hour after hour crept slowly,
Yet on the heaving swell
Tossed up and down the ship lights,
The lights of the Three Bells!

And ship to ship made signals,
Man answered back to man,
While off, to cheer and hearten,
The Three Bells near ran!

And the captain from her taffrail
Sent down his hopeful cry,
"Take heart! Hold on!" he shouted,
"The Three Bells shall stand by!"

All night across the waters
The tossing lights shone clear;
All night from reefing taffrail
The Three Bells sent her cheer.

And when the dawn watches
Of storm and darkness passed;
Just as the wreck lurched under,
All souls were saved at last.

Sail on, Three Bells, forever,
In grateful memory still!
Ring on, Three Bells of Glasgow,
Above the wave and gale!

As thine, in night and tempest,
I hear the Master's cry,
And, tossing through the darkness,
The lights of God draw nigh!

Do not forget the meeting of Grant & Wilson Club No. 3, to-night, at Kotula's Hall. Colonel S. G. Newton will address the meeting; a large attendance is expected.

A GENTLEMAN just arrived from New Orleans, informs us that he was in that city at the time of the Greeley-Brown procession. He states that there were two colored men in the procession—and that they were badly treated because there were not more of them.

A FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE.—The young man Charles Albert, arrested on Thursday evening, on Dryades street, for being drunk and disturbing the peace, and on whose person was found a large amount of money when he was searched at the stationhouse, turns out to be fugitive from justice. He is wanted in Texas, for stealing $500. He was arraigned before the Recorder yesterday and fined $10, and having received the balance of his money from the station clerk, was about to depart when Special Officer Dumas made his acquaintance and reconducted him to his cell, to await the arrival of a requisition from the Governor of Texas.—N. O. Republican.

JUSTICE.—We know something of the rules which prevail in the conduct of newspapers in the large cities of this country. We also know something of the spirit with which the business men and reading people at large support their home press. The hands of the press always go hand in hand with the hands of business and vice versa—especially the vice versa. Some of our business men here have something yet to learn; and that is, the simple fact that when they advertise and subscribe for a home newspaper they receive in return all for which they pay. Therefore it is not just for them to grumble when called upon to pay such bills. It would be equally just for a man to complain of the bill presented to him by the butcher for meat he had eaten, or by the grocer for provisions he had consumed, or by the tailor whose clothing he had worn out. The newspaper earns every dollar it receives by hard labor—the hardest labor, it is a rare case when the equivalent is not received in return. Let this be understood fully and our city will take a step forward. While we work for all, we are compelled to have food and clothing also.

THE ALAMO LIBRARY, now members nearly 500 volumes and the society has decided to open it on Mondays and Thursdays from 4 to 6 P. M. and on Tuesdays and Fridays from 8 to 10 P. M. Ladies and gentlemen desiring to become Library members can do so by applying to any member of the Library committee and paying the entrance fee of one dollar coin. The Library members have the privilege of visiting the Library at all times when open and of keeping out each one volume for two weeks at a time. They are also required to pay a sustaining fee of twenty-five cents per month. All money accumulated in the Library fund, after paying the contingent expenses, will at the end of every month be appropriated to the purchase of books and subscription to periodicals, magazines, and newspapers. The committee is assisted by the citizens who make this Library, which is already a success, a real benefit and ornament to the city of San Antonio. J. H. McLeary, W. H. Maverick, W. H. Young, A. L. McLean, J. A. Speland, Library Committee of the Alamo Literary Society.

A LIBERAL REWARD! Will be given for the recovery of a horse and buggy stolen from the undersigned on Monday, the 27th inst. Gray horse about 15 hands high, six years old, branded IX on left shoulder and NR on left hip. Top buggy, without side curtains. REDFORD SHARP, 29 S. 7th St. San Antonio.

At the recent sale of the Middle Park stud in England, 339 head of thoroughbred stock were sold for $512,575 in gold. Blair sold for $67,570; Gladstear sold for $35,700; Breadbaird sold for $30,600; Santer sold for $10,710; and Victorious sold for $10,300. The above prices are all in gold and silver.

Captain William H. Macomb, of the United States navy, died recently in Philadelphia. He was carried off by an attack of paralysis, induced by the injudicious use of a cold bath. Captain Macomb was a son of Major General Alexander Macomb, of the U. S. army. He was born in Michigan and appointed to his first commission from the State of New York. He entered the service on the 10th of April, in the year 1834. In June, 1858, he commanded the war steamer Palaski.

Our Washington correspondent on female equestrianism states that the women of the primitive tribes, who ride astride, ride with stirrups so short that their posture is more like that of sitting on a stool. We suspect he has acquired this idea from observation of the women of the North American Indians, who do ride in this way, and whose horsemanship is of course very limited. But we do not understand that this is the case in the countries where horsemanship is a greater feature, and where they have better horses. Mark Twain, in his "Roughing it," describes the women of the Sandwich Islands as riding fully astride and in a very dashing manner, which is very little incumbered by drapery.

Widow Bedott was not more sombre over the absence of "Shad-rack my shad" than the Democracy are over the untoward loss of North Carolina. The disconsolate have nothing to mitigate their poignant grief, and the louder they whistle the more plainly they show their gloom.

The Mo. Democrat says: Koerner (the dem. rad. candidate for governor of Ill.) has given up all hope of carrying Illinois, as has gone to Indiana to make speeches for Greeley and votes for Grant. Hon. James C. Allen has done the same thing. It would be just as well for all Democratic politicians to quit our neighboring State. It would take fasting and prayer for the rest of the campaign to keep Oglesby's majority below 50,000; and as Democrats never fast and seldom pray, we shall not be surprised to see Illinois give 60,000 or 75,000 for both Grant and Oglesby.

Frank Leslie has an artist who understands the properties. In a late number illustrating the scenes attending Mr. Greeley's visit to the clam bake at Silver Springs, and his arrival at the Bristol Hotel, he represents the "stars-and-stripes" as displayed Union down. If this was intended as an allegory, he might have made the picture more effective by reversing Mr. Greeley's position, and representing him as standing upon his head, over which "sixty years had rotted."

In Switzerland a milkmaid who in a good singer gets more salary than others, because under the influence of music cows "give down" better, and give more milk. An Eastern former is trying to hire Parepa-Rosa and Kellogg to sing around his pump.

Want of Vitality. If a deficiency of vital energy is not a disease in itself it is a condition which lays the system open to the attacks of all conceivable maladies. Night and day we are surrounded more or less by deleterious influences. No atmosphere is entirely pure, no water utterly free from injurious particles; while in many localities both are positively unwholesome. What defense has the weak-languid system, in which the vital principle is deficient or dormant, against any of the morbid influences? None whatever. There is no safety save in artificial reinforcement. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, beyond all question, a vitalizing effect. If the nervous forces of the body have been recklessly expended in exhausting physical or mental labor, or dissipated in the indulgence of a "fast" life, this powerful vegetable tonic and corrective will restore them. If the defective vitality is a constitutional evil it can be remedied to a great extent by this wonderful invigorant. At a season of the year when the air is more or less impregnated with the seeds of periodic fevers, it is especially desirable that the digestion should be perfect, the habit of body regular, the liver active, the blood pure and the nerves firm. These conditions are the best protection against all disorders, and they are conditions which the Bitters are better adapted than any other medicinal agent to promote and secure. See to it, however, that no imitation of counterfeit is substituted for the genuine article, and let all who value health and have an antipathy to poison beware of the local bitters made from opium and other vilely adulterated alcohol, and have syringing up like unwholesome fungi all over the country.

Have You Seen Her?—A lady who for the last five years has been a leader of fashion in New York, and who may be seen twice a week in her elegant carriage, driving a pair of superb ponies in Central Park, has recently stated in the select circle to which she belongs, that the only article in existence which imparts beauty and lustre to the complexion without ultimately impairing the texture of the skin and causing it to collapse and wrinkle, is HARRIS'S MACGOLLA Balm. The name of the distinguished member of the beau monde who made this declaration cannot with propriety be given, but it may be mentioned en passant that she has spent several years of her life in Europe and is familiar with all the arts and preparations employed by the court beauties of the old world to enhance their charms.

It is a mark of the unsuccessful man, that he invariably locks his stable door when the horse is stolen. This sort of wisdom never thinks about bodily health until it is gone. But just as much as any disease has become seated, the power of the system to resist and throw it off is weakened; hence time is all important. For dyspepsia, all diseases of the liver, stomach, skin and kidneys, and that begin in vitiated blood, do not wait until the trouble is confirmed, but attack it by a timely use of DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.
