OFFICIAL LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, Passed at the Second Session of the Forty-second Congress.

Sec. 96. That any person who shall willfully and maliciously injure, tear down, or destroy, any letter-box, pillar-box, or other receptacle established by the Postmaster General for the safe deposit of matter for the mail or for delivery, or who shall willfully and maliciously assault any letter-carrier, when in uniform, while engaged on his route in the discharge of his duty as a letter-carrier, and any person who shall willfully aid or assist therein, shall, on conviction thereof, for every such offense, forfeit and pay not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one nor more than three years, according to the circumstances and aggravation of the offense.

Sec. 103. That the Postmaster General may send arrangements with the departments of foreign governments, with which postal conventions have been or may be concluded, for the exchange, by means of special orders, of small sums of money, not exceeding fifty dollars in amount, at such rates of exchange, and compensation to postmasters, and under such regulations as he may deem expedient, and the expenses of establishing and conducting such system of exchange, subject to the approval of the money-order business.

Sec. 104. That the postmaster at any money-order office shall issue, in such manner and form as the Postmaster General may prescribe, an order for the payment of money, payable by the postmaster at any other money-order office which the person applying therefor may select; but no money-order shall be delivered until the amount thereof, and the proper fee therefor, have been deposited with the postmaster issuing it.

Sec. 105. That any postmaster who shall issue a money-order without having previously received the money therefor shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars.

bank designated by the Secretary of the Treasury for that purpose, to his own credit as postmaster, any money-order or other funds in his charge, nor prevent his negotiating drafts or other evidences of debt through such bank, or through United States district officers, or otherwise, when instructed or required to do so by the Postmaster General, for the purpose of remitting surplus money-order funds from one post-office to another, to be used in payment of money-orders. That disbursing officers of the United States shall be required to issue, under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, duplicates of lost checks drawn by them in favor of any postmaster, on account of money-order or other public funds received by them from some other postmaster.

Sec. 111. That no money-order shall be valid and payable unless presented to the postmaster on whom it is drawn within a year of its date; but the Postmaster General, on the application of the remitter or payee of any such order, may cause a new order to be issued in lieu thereof.

Sec. 112. That whenever a money-order has been lost, the Postmaster General, upon the application of the remitter or payee of such order, may cause a duplicate thereof to be issued, without charge, providing the party losing the original shall furnish a certificate from the postmaster by whom it was issued that it had not been, and would not thereafter be, repaid.

Sec. 113. That any person who shall, with intent to defraud, falsify, make, forge, counterfeit, engrave, or print, or cause to be printed, engraved, or printed, or counterfeit, or assist in falsifying, forging, counterfeiting, engraving, or printing, any money-order issued by the Post-Office Department, or any of its postmasters or agents, or any material signature or endorsement thereon; any person who shall falsify, alter, or change, or cause to be altered, or willfully aid or assist in falsifying, altering any such money-order; any person who shall, with intent to defraud, pass, utter, or receive, or attempt to pass, utter, or receive, as true, any such false, forged, counterfeit, or altered money-order, knowing the same, or any signature or endorsement thereon, to be false, forged, counterfeit, or altered, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and, on conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned at hard labor for not less than two nor more than five years, and be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars.

Sec. 114. That all payments and transfers to and from money-order offices shall be under the direction of the Postmaster General. He may transfer money-order funds from one postmaster to another, and from the special revenue to the money-order funds; and he may transfer money-order funds to creditors of the Department to be replaced by equivalent transfers from the postal revenues.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS—4th Dist.
J. R. BURNS, of Fayette.

FOR CONGRESS—STATE AT LARGE:
HON. LEBMUEL D. EVANS,
HON. A. B. NOTTON.

We are authorized to announce ADITMAN as a candidate for the office of District Attorney for the 2nd District.

N. O. GREEN, Esq., is announced by authority as a candidate for the office of District Attorney, at the coming election.

We are authorized to announce M. G. Anderson as a candidate for District Attorney of the 5th District, subject to a nomination of a Republican Convention should one be held.

Republican Convention.

A Convention of the Republicans of Bexar county will be held at the Fireman's Hall, city of San Antonio, on Saturday, the 7th day of September, 1872, at 9 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of nominating county candidates, and electing delegates to the District Convention, to be held on the 12th of September.

Each precinct is respectfully invited to hold primary meetings and send delegates.

J. G. NEWTON,
For Rep. Ex. Com. Bexar County.

Call for a Republican Nominating Convention.

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 19, 1872.

The chairman of the Republican Executive County Committee of the 29th Senatorial District, composed of the County's of Bexar, Wilson, Comal, Kendall, Blanco, Burnet, Bandera, Edwards, Kimble, and Menard, will call General Conventions of Mass Meetings, and select delegates to the 29th Senatorial District Convention, to be held at San Antonio, on the 12th day of September, 1872, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature, County Officers, and elect delegates from matters held Mass Meetings and elect delegates to said convention.

Chairman Ex. Com. 29th Senat. Dis.

HON. W. D. KELLEY, of Philadelphia, said at San Francisco not many days since, that in his judgment Philadelphia would give a larger majority for Grant than she did for many years ago.

The straight out Democrats are playing the deuce with the Liberals. Up to the 7th August, Col. Duncan had received notices of delegations from all the States in the Union excepting only California, New Hampshire, Nevada, and Idaho Island. Greeley has no more show than a brass monkey.

MOON SHAN

Affairs in Ireland.

Dispatches from London state that terrible riots are going on in Belfast, Ireland, between the Orangemen and the Roman Catholics. The city authorities finding the forces at their command inadequate to quell the disturbances, have notified the Lord Lieutenant at Dublin, and the city, at latest, advice was accepted by the military, who had received orders to shoot down all rioters.

The Jacobin bakers have struck work in Dublin, and a large number of the inhabitants are deprived of bread. It is feared that riots will ensue and probably an attack on the bakers' shops.

JUDGE BRIDGES of Ohio, one of the original movers of the Cincinnati Convention and one of the Committee on Resolutions at that Convention, has repudiated its action and come out for Grant. In his speech at Avondale the Judge says: "The administration of Grant is at least entitled to the credit of having unperishably linked its name with one of the greatest achievements of the century—the adoption of the fifteenth amendment—which has given the right of suffrage to every black man in the nation. It has universal peace with foreign government. It has fully applied the revenues to the payment of public debts. From an administration directed by Horace Greeley, supported by Cochrane and Fenton in New York, McClure in Pennsylvania, Grant, Brown in Missouri, Warmoth in Louisiana, Read in Florida, we have the right to argue nothing but disaster."

Thus it is day after day, some one of the original movers in the Cincinnati Convention are disowning the act which has grown so prodigiously ugly, and which should be rank and offensive that no one cares to look after it. At this rate in a very short time there will not be a single decent man left in the Liberal ranks. There are devilish few already.

Louisville Democratic Convention.

On the 3rd of September, the Democratic Convention will meet in Louisville, for the purpose, it is supposed, of nominating a straight out Democratic candidate for President. That such a candidate would stand any chance of election is not likely; but there is this much to be said about it—that in the absence of any regular Democratic nominee in the field, a great many honest Democrats would vote for Greeley, he having been endorsed by the Baltimore Convention. But should the Louisville Convention nominate a Presidential candidate—they would support the nomination, although without any hope of success, in preference to voting for a life-long enemy and thorough Radical Republican.

The class of Democrats of whom we are now speaking, are, so to say, on the fence, as between Grant and Greeley they would rather not vote at all, but as that would be equivalent to voting for Grant, they think they ought to support Greeley as he was endorsed by the Convention at Baltimore.

But as we have before said, if a regular nominee should appear in the field—this difficulty would disappear and they would then consider themselves bound, as Democrats, to vote for a Democrat, although he might have no show of success. Every vote given to the Louisville nominee is one less for Greeley and as a consequence that much more for Grant.

The Greeley supporters have whistled very loud about the Louisville Convention, in order to keep up their courage, but with very little success. They may shut their eyes—but they cannot be blind to the fact that it is something more than a joke. Some of the most prominent men in the Democratic party have declared their intention to support and work for the Louisville nominee. Charles O'Connor, Alexander H. Stephens, Blanton Duncan, Senator Bayard, and many others have announced such to be their intention. We may safely predict a row in the Greeley camp when the news arrives, as it most assuredly will, that the Convention have nominated their candidate for President—and we shall then be able to prove what we have thought all along that there are still some good, staunch, honest, Democrats behind the scene who have not yet swallowed Greeley, and those same men will be elated at the idea of being able to vote for a Democrat though he have not the ghost of a chance.

Greeley stock is on the decline and by the end of September, at the latest, we shall see the supporters of Greeley and Brown reduced to a few rebels, Tammany thieves, hangers on and cast off of other political parties—which already constitute the nucleus of the so-called Reform party of to-day—Quis scias, terra.

Take Your Home Paper.

The following is taken from the editorial columns of the Ladies' Book: "What tells us so readily the standard of a town or city as the appearance of its paper? And its youth or its age can as well be determined by the observing, as by a personal notice. The enterprise of its citizens is depicted by its advertisements, its liberality by the looks of the paper. Some papers look good, solid, healthy foundation, plecthoric purses, and well-to-do appearance generally; others show a striving to contend with the grasping thousands around them, trying hard to wrench out an existence from the close-fisted community around them. As occasional meteoric display in its columns of telegraph, or local, or editorial, shows what it can do if it had the means, but it cannot continue in the expensive work until support comes, which ought to be readily granted. A newspaper is like a church; it wants fostering in the commencement, and for a few years; then, as a general thing, it can walk alone, and reflect credit upon its location. Take your home paper; it gives you more news, of immediate interest than New York or other papers; it talks for you when other localities belie you; you always have a champion in your home paper, and those who stand up for you should certainly be well sustained. Your interests are kindred and equal, and you must rise or fall together. Therefore, if you ever intend to support your home paper, not grudgingly, but in a liberal spirit, as a pleasure, not as a disagreeable duty, but as an interest which will supply you the expenses."

Notes from Washington.

(Concluded.)

Horace Greeley, before his last fit of eccentricity, had a good word for the administration on this very point. Here are his words from the Tribune, Aug. 23, 1871: "Mr. Boutwell has vigilantly guarded the Federal Treasury, and applied every dime of receipts, first, to the payment of current expenses; next, to the liquidation of the National Debt.

"Having reduced the principal largely and steadily, Mr. Boutwell is trying hard to reduce the interest on what remains unpaid by funding the Five-Twenty's now redeemable and drawing six per cent. interest, in new bonds drawing lesser rates of interest. Suppose he could succeed in this, and reduce the average rate of interest barely one per cent., the amount thus saved would pay off the entire principal of the debt in less than half a century. Ought not every patriot to wish him well not merely, but to render him all possible support in his arduous undertaking? Every dime he thus saves inures to the benefit of the whole American people."

"That is a fair, square and honest statement of facts. Then again in the Tribune as late as Dec. 5, 1871, Mr. Greeley said: "The fact that the debt has been steadily and largely reduced has done more than anything else to make the administration and the party strong and popular."

"No man could or need say more in favor of Grant and his Administration; and no honestly disposed man would say less to-day, for neither Grant, nor his policy has since been changed one iota in any respect. But Greeley of 1871 and Greeley of 1872 is quite a different person. Then he recommended Grant for a second term and declared that he could not be beaten; now he has applied the flattering eulogy to his son that Grant should not serve two terms, that he can be beaten, and that too by Horace Greeley! It was the editor of the Canoeist, Lexington, Mo., who first suggested to Greeley to run for the Presidency; and now the names of Greeley and Brown stand at the head of his editorial columns, while below he announces his platform in these significant words: "We believe in secession, in the rights of slavery, in the illegality of all 'snake-bigger-lay-out' amendments to the Constitution, and the total repudiation of all debts, Federal, State and county, contracted by Radical fraud, violence and misrule."

"That is a pretty plain card, but it is nothing more than an expression of the sentiments entertained to-day by a large proportion of Horace Greeley's supporters; and when brought to bear upon the old man as President, his characteristic instability would result, not in 'bridging over' but in widening the 'bloody chasm' and lead to the most disastrous consequences to our national credit, and very possibly to our national unity.

"No, this is not the time for experiments. We want peace; we want prosperity too; but we must have it upon a solid basis, where such sentiments as those of the Canoeist can have no effect. The present Administration have done more than all in all the departments of the Government, and the Progres, in their 'sober second thoughts,' and especially capitalists, protest against any changes, and especially such a change as would give us Greeley for Grant."

Here are some echoes of the public voice. General E. B. Ward, the millionaire of Detroit, who covers the upper Great Lakes with his magnificent steamboats, says in a public letter: "Keep General Grant at the head of the government; keep Boutwell in his place; elect a wise Congress, and we may expect four years more of our unequalled prosperity."

"Desiring no office or favor from either party, having no wish but for the best possible Government we are capable of making, and all my interests and hopes of comfort during the few years I may remain in active life, being invested in the great question of Government, I can have but one motive in making this public reply to my numerous and trusting friends, hoping, as I do, never to live to see a good and worthy Administration overthrow for the simple purpose of gratifying the claims of office seekers and Constitutional fault finders. Whenever the people yield to these two vicious elements, we may reasonably expect that our Republic will die out long before the end of another century."

There, we have the whole matter condensed into two graceful and truthful sentences. Read them over again. They are the honest sentiments of a man who has worked his way to immense wealth by stability of purpose, and the consequent enjoyment of the confidence of the people through a life time.

Take another illustration. A manufacturer and wholesale dealer of New York City was asked this week to join an organization for active work on behalf of Grant and Wilson. His answer was as follows: "I did not intend to take an active part in the campaign; but I find I cannot afford to be inactive. My business suffers through the fear entertained by dealers of the possible election of Greeley, and of his disastrous consequences, and for the sake of my business I must work for the election of Grant."

That is New York, Greeley's own State, speaking; entering the sentiments of capitalists, manufacturers, railroad corporations, and owners of real estate all over the country.

One more illustration—and that from among the thousands as heard that might be quoted. We select from the West. Says a dispatch to the New York Times: "A bombshell has exploded in the democratic camp, in the shape of the resignation of James W. Carson, Esq., a prominent merchant and politician of Cleveland, Ohio, of the chairmanship of the county Democratic Central Committee. The resignation given by Mr. Carson for his office was that he could not conscientiously support a policy which he had to vote for General Grant; that he had no confidence in Greeley's theories of the theory of inevitable redemption of bonds, and that he could not believe that the Greeley is elected, his Administration will be marked by financial reversions as sure as those of 1837 and 1867."

Quite a number of other Democratic business men entertain the same views as Mr. Carson, and will vote for Grant and Wilson, preferring a certainty under a Republican administration to an experimental uncertainty under a would be Greeley administration."

This is to the point, and its force will be admitted by every candid mind. Space forbids to-day further evidence of the popular feeling throughout the country. Greeley has no hold upon the thinking classes, and before the canvass is over there will be few indeed who have not heard abundant opportunities presented to them to hear the claims of the respective candidates and judge for themselves in whose hands the government will be safest and the country most prosperous.

Foremost among the supporters of the transcendentalist Greeley, are Tipton, Trumbull, Schurz and Fenton—a noble lot of volunteers for civil service reform—whose sincerity may be judged from the facts that Tipton has asked for no less than seventy appointments; Trumbull eighty-seven; Schurz ninety-eight, and the wily Fenton, of New York, the most modest of two hundred and eighty-eight. How many the leader of the gang, Greeley, has asked for, we cannot precisely say, but it will be shortly proven that he is not far behind the rest of this precious crew.

This is the way Greeleyism is 'growing and swelling, and sweeping over the land.' In May—'Hurrah for Old Horace and Reform!'" In June—'Greeley has his faults, but we can stand them.'" In July—'Anyway, Greeley is better than Grant.'" In August—'No Greeley in mine, thank you.'"

RETAIL dealers in leaf tobacco are required to pay a special tax of $500, and if their annual sales exceed $1000, they are made liable for an additional tax of fifty cents for every dollar in excess of $1000 of their sales. The retail dealer in leaf tobacco, as defined by the act of June 6, 1872, is any person whose business it is to sell leaf tobacco in quantities less than an original hoghead, case or bale, or who sells to persons other than the following three classes of purchasers, viz: 1. Dealers in leaf tobacco who have paid a special tax as such. 2. Manufacturers of tobacco, snuff, or cigars. 3. Persons who purchase in original packages for export. The payment of any other special tax will not exempt a person who sells leaf tobacco as heretofore stated, from the payment of the special tax as a retail dealer in leaf tobacco.

PROCLAMATION

By the Governor of the State of Texas.

WHEREAS, It is provided by section thirty seven (37) of article (2) of the constitution of this State, that at the first general election after the acceptance of the Constitution by the Congress of the United States, an election shall be held to settle permanently the seat of government of the State of Texas.

Now, therefore, I, EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of this State, do hereby order and direct that an election for the permanent settlement of the seat of government of this State be held at the same time and places for voting as at the next general election, viz: at the county seat of each county, and commencing on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1872, and continuing four consecutive days, viz: the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth days of November, A. D. 1872. The returns of said election shall be transmitted to the Governor and other returning officers in accordance with law.

The attention of officers of the law, voters and others is called to the provisions of the law of this State, and the United States, enacted to secure the free exercise of the rights of suffrage, and the punishment of those who may in any manner attempt to interfere with the franchise. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and have caused [L. S.] the great seal of the State to be affixed, at the city of Austin, this 16th day of July, A. D. 1872.

EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor.

JAMES P. NEWCOMB, Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION

By the Governor of the State of Texas.

WHEREAS, by a joint resolution of the Twelfth Legislature of the State of Texas, passed May 17th, 1871, it was resolved, that section six, article ten of the constitution of the State of Texas, be so amended as to read as follows:

Section 6. The Legislature shall not hereafter grant lands, except for purposes of internal improvement, to any person or persons, nor shall any certificate for land be sold at the land office, except to actual settlers upon the same, and in lots not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, provided that the Legislature shall not grant out of the public domain more than twenty sections of land for the purpose of completed work in aid of the construction of which, land may be granted; and provided further, that nothing in the foregoing proviso shall affect any rights, granted or secured by law, prior to the final adoption of this amendment."

Now, therefore, I, EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and Laws of this State, do hereby order and direct that the said election be held at the same time and places for voting as at the next general election, viz: at the county seat of each county, and commencing on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1872, and continuing four consecutive days, viz: the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth days of November, A. D. 1872. The returning officers at said general election, shall open a poll for and make a return to the Secretary of State of the names of all those voting for Representatives, who have voted on the proposed amendment to section 6 of article 10 of the constitution, in accordance with law, the ballots used by voters to have written or printed on them the words "for the amendment" or "against the amendment." The attention of officers of the law, voters and others, is called to the provisions of the law of this State and the United States, enacted to secure the free exercise of the rights of suffrage, and the punishment of those who may in any manner attempt to interfere with this franchise.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto signed my name and have caused [L. S.] the great seal of the State to be affixed, at the city of Austin, this 16th day of July, A. D. 1872.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

WALKER'S is the place to go and get a shave, bath, shampoo or other luxuries for the hot season.

A. ALBERT WOLF on Main street, of dry goods fame, has been getting some new stock of handsome silks, in all colors and is selling them at very reasonable prices.

WHEN shall we have our streets decently lighted? At present it is positively dangerous to walk out in some portions of the city, after dark.

COLONEL NEWTON said truly in his speech on Thursday evening: "The Republican party does not propose to shake hands over blood-chains—it proposes to cut them that they may never be again."

To those wishing carpentering, mason and stone work, plastering, painting and jobbing, in first class style, and at low figures, we call their attention to the card of A. R. Cowan, Architect and Builder, which will be found in another column.

Dramatic Personae.
SCENE—MAIN STREET.—TWO LITTLE BOYS.
1st. Little Boy.—Pa said he knows men in town that eat crow.
2nd. Boy.—Crow! Why that's a buzzard, buzzard ain't good to eat, is it?
1st. Boy.—I wouldnt eat crow, would you?
2nd. Boy.—(Emphatically) No!

THE ELECTION OF HIDE AND CATTLE INSPECTOR.—The undersigned invite the stockraisers of precinct Nos. 1, 3 and 4, to hold a meeting to consult and agree to hold in regard to the election of an Inspector of Hides and Cattle, at the following named places and dates, viz: Precinct No. 1, Sept. 1st, at the residence of John Forman, near the San Pedro Springs, at 3 o'clock, P. M.; Precinct No. 3 at Olmos school-house, on Sept. 4th, and Precinct No. 4 at Polish settlement school-house, on Sept. 4th, 10 o'clock, P. M.

They solicit at the same time to elect delegates out of their number who shall represent them on Sept. 7th, next, in the county convention to be held at Kotula's hall, for the purpose of making county nominations.

CARL SCHURZ,
KENS. RUDIMANN.

GRANT & WILSON CLUB, No. 2.—There was a large and enthusiastic meeting at Kotula's Hall on Thursday evening, of the Grant and Wilson Club, No. 2, the room was full and there were numbers standing at the door. At half past 8 Mr. Dillmar called the meeting to order—He minutes of the previous meeting were then read and adopted, and some ten or fifteen gentlemen enrolled themselves as members of the Club.

Colonel S. G. Newton, then addressed the meeting in a speech which for neatness of diction, sound practical logic and easy delivery we have seldom heard excelled. He touched on the most important questions of the day, read extracts from the Philadelphia and Houston platform—and proved conclusively that whatever persecution the South may have suffered since the war, has been caused by the instrumentality of Schurz, Sumner & Co.

We regret excessively that we have not space to publish the speech in toto—but we must be content with what we have the opinion of all present that it was a complete and masterly effort which was received with enthusiasm and untiring satisfaction. Some minor points of business being settled.

Mr. Degener moved and Mr. Newton seconded that Mr. Dillmar be requested to address the Club at their next meeting, carried. The meeting then adjourned.

The following is from the local column of the "Herald" of yesterday:

"GRANT CLUB.—The officials of our City, Federal, State and Municipal, have been busy lately in getting up Grant and Wilson Clubs. They have offered every club—but have no material for members."

Does the local of our contemporary imagine that truth is incompatible with the duties of a journalist? It seems so. We leave it to any honest man if the meeting at Kotula's hall on Thursday night was not composed, with but two or three exceptions of members of Grant and Wilson Club No. 2, and if the room was not crowded. We are informed by a gentleman of reliability, that the Democratic meeting on the same evening was attended by few people. We would again inform the local scribbler of the "Herald" that the Grant and Wilson clubs of this city number already between four and five hundred members. The local of the "Herald" can now have no excuse for scribbling these articles so devoid of truth. We state the fact and are prepared to prove it. So if we see any more pieces of the above description in the "Herald," we shall pass them over as unworthy our notice—and simply set them down to the fact of the "Herald" staff being so insured to falsehood, that they cannot tell the truth, if they try.

REDFORD SHARP,
29-8-72nd St. W. L.,
San Antonio.

A Board of Survey, to consist of Major G. E. Glenn, Paymaster, Captain W. O. O'Connell, 4th Cavalry, and Second Lieutenant Colan Augar, Aide-de-Camp, will assemble at the Government corral, in this city, to-morrow, the 30th instant, at 10 o'clock A. M., or as soon thereafter as practicable, to investigate and report the facts attending the injury to one Government mule, left at the corral by Captain F. M. Crandall, 24th Infantry, for which Lieutenant Colonel S. G. Newton, Deputy Quartermaster General, is accountable.

The Board will, if possible, fix the responsibility in the case.

The leave of absence granted Captain F. W. Perry, 24th Infantry, in paragraph III, Special Order No. 102, Headquarters Fort Duncan, Texas, August 22, 1872, is extended ten days.

Upon arrival of Colonel Abner Doubleday, 24th Infantry, at Ringgold Barracks, Texas, Major T. M. Anderson, 10th Infantry, will proceed with Companies B and F, 10th Infantry, to Fort McKavett, Texas, via San Antonio, Texas.

All transportation of every description, taken by Colonel Doubleday, will be returned with the command of Major Anderson.

Upon the recommendation of his post commander, a furlough for sixty days is granted Sergeant George W. Shane, Company H, 10th Infantry.

Don't Give It Up.
One of our citizens is blessed, or otherwise, with a very stubborn wife. In his case he finds that when a woman will she will, you may depend on it, and when she won't she won't, and that's an end on it. This peculiarity of disposition in his wife is no secret among his associates, and of them meeting him the other day asked: "Well W., do you know why you are like a donkey?"

"Like a donkey!" echoed W., opening his eyes wide. "So, I don't."

"Do you give it up?"

"I do."

"Because your better half is stubborn as itself?"

"That's not bad. Ha! ha! I'll give that to my wife when I go home."

"Mr. W.," he asked, as he sat down to supper, "do you know why I am like a donkey?"

He waited a moment, expecting his wife to give it up, but she didn't; she looked at him somewhat commiseratingly as she answered: "I suppose it's because you were born so."

W. has abjured the habit of putting conundrums to his wife.—[Lawrence American.

The "London Times" in its newspaper "perfection" of Great Britain; has, in its issue of August 31st a long article on the Liberal Republicans, Schurz & Co.; in which, as an impartial observer, it criticizes Schurz and his coadjutors—hopeless for the Liberal—and concludes by saying of the present contest:

It is to us most memorable as illustrating that power of party organization which Mr. Schurz valuably thinks he may break up after he has been to stay.

Greeley is assisted by his crowd of falling behind in the race. You must not blame him; he cannot run very fast. He has the Confederacy on his back, Tammany in his ears, and North Carolina sticking to his heels. Pity the sorrows of the poor politician!

Carl Schurz is the most unprincipled, un-naturalized, un-American, and un-conscientious demagogue in the country.

"ANOTHER CLAIMANT."—The Two Eagles asks: "Can't some move be made to have the capitol removed to Laredo?" Certainly!

The Chicago Times says very pertinently: "Fred Douglass says the reason he should not vote for Greeley is, that he can't not know which Greeley he was voting for. The case is much the same with many Democrats. They cannot find out whether they would be voting for Mr. Voorhees' democratic Greeley, or Mr. Trumbull's anti-democratic Greeley, or Mr. Ben. Hill's right-of-secession Greeley, or Mr. Sumner's miscegenation-by-force Greeley, or Mr. Greeley's Greeley of this year, last year, or some other year. The trouble seems to consist in too great a number of Greeleys."

ON MARRIAGE.

Happy relief for Young Men from the effects of Errors and Abuses in early life. Manhood restored. Nervous debility cured. Impediments to Marriage removed. New method of treatment. New and remarkable remedies. Books and Circulars sent free, in sealed envelopes. Address, HOWARD ASSOCIATION, No. 4 South Ninth St., Philadelphia, Pa. (4-1-72d & W)

It is a mark of the unbusiness man, that he invariably locks his stable door, when the horse is stolen. This sort of wisdom never thinks about bodily health until it is gone. But just as much as any disease has become seated, the power of the system to resist and throw it off is weakened; hence time is all important. Dyspepsia, all diseases of the liver, stomach, skin and kidneys, and that begin with vitiated blood, do not wait until the system is ruined, but attack it by a timely use of DR. WALKER'S CATHARTIC VEGETABLE BITTERS.

BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE.
This superb Hair Dye is the best in the World. Perfectly hairless, reliable, and instantaneous. No discoloration. No hair loss. This, or Unpleasant Odor. The genuine W. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye produces IMMEDIATELY a beautiful Black or Chestnut Hair. It stains the Skin, but leaves the Hair Clean, soft and beautiful. The only safe and Perfect Dye. Sold by all Druggists. Factory 18 South Street, New York. (4-1-72d & W)

Want of Vitality.
If a deficiency of vital energy is not a disease in itself it is a condition which lays the system open to the attacks of all conceivable maladies. Night and day we are surrounded more or less by deleterious influences. No atmosphere is entirely pure, no water utterly free from injurious particles; while in many localities both are positively unwholesome. What defense has the weak, languid system, in which the vital principle is deficient or dormant, against any of the morbid influences? None whatever. There is no safety save in artificial reinforcement. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have, beyond all question, a vitalizing effect. If the nervous forces of the body have been recklessly expended in exhausting physical or mental labor, or dissipated in the indulgence of a "fast" life, this powerful vegetable tonic and corrective will restore them. If the defective vitality is a constitutional evil it can be remedied to a great extent by this wonderful invigorant. At a season of the year when the air is more or less impregnated with the seeds of periodic fevers, it is especially desirable that the digestion should be perfect, the habit of body regular, the liver active, the blood pure and the nerves firm. These conditions are the best protection against all disorders, and they are conditions which the Bitters are better adapted than any other medicinal agent to promote and secure. See to it, however, that imitation of counterfeit is substituted for the genuine article, and let all who value health and have an antipathy to poison beware of the local bitters made from Dallas to St. Louis, 65¢ per bottle. It is adulterated with alcohol, and has sprung up like an unwholesome fungus all over the country.

Have You Seen Her?—A lady who for the last five years has been a leader of fashion in New York, and who may be seen twice a week in her elegant caleshe, driving a pair of superb ponies in Central Park. Her hair, which is the select color to which she belongs, that she only article in existence which imparts beauty and lustre to the complexion without ultimately impairing the texture of the skin, and of which she has a wonderful wrinkle, is HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM. The name of the distinguished member of the beau monde who made this declaration cannot with propriety be given, but it may be mentioned as a fact that she has spent several years of her life in Europe and is familiar with all the arts and preparations employed by the court beauties of the old world to enhance their charms.

Harmless as Summer Dew.
Yet in the highest degree disinfectant and preservative. Sigmoid keeps the teeth always healthy and spotless, and the gums red and free from canker.

The advertising house of Geo. P. Howell & Co. has recently gained a world-wide reputation. Its business is being extended every month, and it now has contracts for space in nearly every newspaper published in the United States and Canada. Messrs. Geo. P. Howell & Co. have exhibited a remarkable business tact, and have reduced the advertising system down to a very nice science.—[Journal & Recorder, West Meriden, Conn.]

Truth.—The powers of Mrs. Whitcomb's Syrup for children are so positive as the sunlight from heaven, and gentle and soothing as an angel's whisper.
