whatever. The public will judge from this how the charges of fraud against Grant and against the Departments are manufactured. But the campaign character of the Tribune is now pretty well known throughout the country, and its statements have very little effect upon the public mind. Greeler publicly appounced that he had retired from the paper, but he is still upon the stage, concealed behind the scenes, and directing the actors as usual. Reed does his bidding, which in turn the correspondents in Washington and other parts of the country, are instructed by Reed, and write not as they find the facts, but warp and wist everything to falsify the Government and magnify the coalition movement. But the thing has been overdone. A rection has already set in, and one cause of t may be traced directly to the Tribune falsehoods by which the communities have become thoroughly disgusted.

THE following article written by H. G. himself we clip from the semi-weekly Tribune of May 2nd, 1871, a file of which pa per for that year we have preserved. It requires no comments, but it would be in-teresting reading if the great H. G. would tell us now what he knows about "Jim Crow gyrations."

"THE DEMOCRATIC METAMORPHOSIS, The World exults over "the Inextinguishable Vitality of the Democratic party." If it had merely affirmed the unconquerable ntility of the Democratic name, its boast would have been well grounded. So long as Whiskey breeds ruffians, there will always be found a large class rejoicing in the appellation of Democrats. But the "inextinguishable vitality" aforesaid is that of Protons. The Democratic party can "turn, and turn, and etill go on." In our very young days, most ne's he home for two Democrate were thereugh Protection Possibly they may. At all events, if a poor chance, it is their best. But we insist that the Democracy thus evinces vitality only by Jim Crow gyration. It is as if a negro should undertake to prove quality—guaranteed. Our motto is to by peeling off his skin Should The World succeed in thus transforming it, the Democracy may perplex it self with the tipey carter's conundrum on awakening from a long and strong de-bauch, "Be I Giles Scroggins or be u't I f If I be Giles Scroggins, I've lost six good oxen; If I be n't, I've found a cart."

THE STATE OF TEXAS. To the Sheriff or any Constable of Bexar

WHEREAS, on the 16th day of August, A. D., 1872, James P. Newcomb, a citizen of the county and State aforemid, now re-siding in Travis county in said State, and John Gore Newcomb, formerly a resident citizen of said county of Bexar, and State of Texas, now a citizen of Atascosa county in said State, filed a petition for a writ of error, alleging that they are the plaintiffs in a certain suit, pending in the district court of Bexar county, styled No. 2933 J. ct als., wherein Eliza Newcomb, J. C. Hall, C. A. Harper and J. H. Beck were originally the defendants; that said J. C. Hall hav-ing died, his heirs, Wm. Hall, Mrs. Theo-dore Ayers and Theodore Ayers, were made parties; and the said J. H. Beck having also died, the suit was dismissed as to him; that at the February term, A. D. 1872, of said district court on the 15th day of May, 1872, said cause came on for trial, and a judgment was rendered, whereby it was adjudged that the said plaintiffs recover nothing by their suit, and that the defendants recover of the plaintiffs and the sureties on their cost bond all costs in curred in said suit for which execution could issue; that they believe themselves aggrieved by said judgment, that the same is erroneous and that many errors appear upon the face of the record; that said Wm. Harper are non-residents of this State, and that neither said Eliza Newcomb and C. A. Harper had any Attorney of record nor any other Attorney to represent them in said cause.

Petitioners having filed their obligation as required by law pray that citations is-sue for said parties, resident in this State, commanding them to appear before our Supreme Court at its next term, and that issue and that in due time the record of this cause be transmitted to the Supreme Court.

And whereas, said plaintiffs in error have filed a supplement to the above de-scribed petition, alleging that neither said defendant Eliza Newcomb, nor C. A. It is a mark of the unsuccessful man that he invariably locks his stable door when the horse is stolen. This sort of wisdom never thinks about bodily health until it is gone. But just as much as any disease has become seated, the power of the system to resist and throw it off is weakened; hence time is all important. For dyspepsia, all diseases of the liver, stomach, skin and kidneys, and that begin in vitiated blood, do not wait until the trouble is confirmed, but attack it by a mely use of DR.
