OFFICIAL LAWS

OF THE
UNITED STATES,
Passed at the Second Session of the Forty-second Congress.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 266.]

AN ACT making appropriations for the Service of the Postoffice Department for the year ending June thirty, eighteen hundred and seventy-three.

[CONCLUDED.]

For steamship service between San Francisco, California, and Block Island, Rhode Island, fifty thousand dollars. And the Postmaster-General is hereby authorized to contract with the lowest bidder, within three months after the passage of this act, after sixty days public notice, for a term of ten years from and after the first day of October, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, for the conveyance of an additional mail monthly on the said route, at a compensation not to exceed the rate per voyage now paid under the existing contract, and upon the same conditions and limitations as prescribed by existing acts of Congress in reference thereto, and the respective contracts made in pursuance thereof; and the contractor under the provisions of this section shall be required to carry the United States mails during the existence of his contract, without additional charge, on all the steamers they may run upon said line, or any part of it, or any branch or extension thereof: Provided, That all steamships heretofore accepted for said service shall be not less than four thousand five hundred and seventy-three, or any other vessel of iron, and with their engines and machinery shall be wholly of American construction, and shall be so constructed as to be readily adapted to the annual naval service of the United States in case of war, before acceptance of the officers by whom they are inspected shall report to the Secretary of the Navy and the Postmaster-General whether this condition has been complied with: Provided, That in all cases the officers of ships employed in the service hereunder shall be citizens of the United States, and that persons of foreign birth, who have according to law declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, may be employed as though they were citizens within the meaning of this section, or of any act or acts specified in the act of June twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and the government of the United States shall have the right in case of war to take for the use of the United States any of the steamships or other vessels of any country, upon reasonable compensation therefor: Provided, That the price paid shall in no case exceed the original cost of the vessel so taken, and this provision shall extend to and be applicable to the steamers of the British line heretofore provided for:

For steamship service between the United States and Brazil, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

For steamship service between San Francisco and the Sandwich Islands, seventy-five thousand dollars.

SEC. 4. That if the revenues of the postoffice department shall be insufficient to meet the appropriations made by this act, then the sum of five millions seven hundred and seventy-three, and eighty cents, shall be appropriated for the purpose of carrying out the act approved March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, for carrying out the same, and for carrying out the same to establish certain post routes, and for other purposes; and section eight of the act approved March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, is hereby amended, so to modify the rates of postage in the United States, and for carrying out the same so far as said sections provide for carrying out permanent appropriations for carrying out free matter in the mails for the several departments and for the members of Congress, he, and the same are hereby repealed, and hereafter payment for carrying such free matter shall be made out of the annual appropriations.

SEC. 5. That it shall not be lawful for any person who shall hereafter be appointed an officer, clerk, or employee in any of the several departments to which this act is made applicable, or for prosecuting any claim against the United States while he was in said department, or while he was an officer, clerk, or employee, nor in any manner, nor by any means, to aid in the prosecution of any such claim, within two years next after he shall have ceased to be such officer, clerk, or employee.

SEC. 6. That if the contract for the increase of the mail service between San Francisco and China and Japan to a semi-monthly service shall be made with the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, or shall be performed by the said company's ships, or the ships of its successors in interest, the money payable under such contract shall be paid while the said company or its successors in interest shall maintain and run the said company's steamships for the transportation of freight and passengers at present run between New York and San Francisco, via the isthmus of Panama, by the said Pacific Mail Steamship Company, and no longer: Provided, That said requirements shall in all respects apply to any party contracting for the mail service between San Francisco and China and Japan, as well as to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company.

Approved, June 1, 1872.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 416.]

AN ACT making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government for the year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby appropriated, for the objects hereinafter expressed, for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, viz:—

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

FOR LIFE SAVING STATIONS.—For salaries of two superintendents of the life-saving stations on the coast of Long Island and New Jersey, at one thousand five hundred dollars each, three thousand dollars; and for one superintendent on the coast of Cape Cod and of Block Island, Rhode Island, one thousand dollars.

For fifty-four life-saving stations, at two hundred dollars each, ten thousand eight hundred dollars.

For pay of crews of experienced workmen at such stations and for such periods as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem proper, for one hundred and twenty-five hundred and twenty dollars.

For compensation of seventeen keepers of stations, at two hundred dollars each, three thousand four hundred dollars.

For contingents of life-saving stations on the coast of the United States, fifteen thousand dollars.

For the establishment of life saving stations on the coast of the United States, Block Island, Rhode Island, fifty thousand dollars: Provided, That all life-saving stations heretofore erected shall be placed under the supervision of two captains of the revenue service, to be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury, and to be under his direction.

REVENUE CUTTER SERVICE.—Thirty-four captains, one hundred and one lieutenants, and sixty-three engineers and pilots employed, three hundred and sixty-one thousand three hundred dollars.

For ratings for officers: Thirty-four captains, one hundred and one lieutenants, six hundred and seventy-three hundred and fifty dollars and forty cents.

For pay of crews: nine hundred and forty-two petty officers, seamen, cooks, stewards, boys, coal-passers, and firemen, three hundred and ninety-four thousand seven hundred and seventy-two dollars, at thirty-four cents, including liquor equivalent of one hundred and seven thousand two hundred and twenty-two dollars and forty-eight cents.

For fuel for thirty-five vessels, repairs and outfit for same, ship-chandlery and engineers' stores for same, travelling expenses of officers travelling on duty orders from the Treasury Department, communication of quarters, and contingent expenses, including wharfage, towage, dockage, freight, advertising, surveys, and so forth, and miscellaneous expenses which cannot be included under special heads, two hundred and ninety thousand dollars.

MAINE HOSPITAL SERVICE.—For supplying deficiency in the fund for the relief of sick and disabled seamen, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars: Provided, That no part of this sum shall be used to support any sick or disabled seaman entitled to be received into a marine hospital, by contract at the lowest bidder, except when, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury, the acceptance of the lowest proposal will, for other reasons, equally secure the proper care and treatment of marine patients.

NATIONAL CURRENCY.—For paper, engraving, printing, express charges, and other expenses of making and issuing the currency, one hundred thousand dollars.

DETECTION AND PUNISHMENT OF COUNTERFEITING.—For expenses in detecting and bringing to trial and punishment persons engaged in counterfeiting treasury notes, one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars.

To enable the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to Warrington Sumners a sum sufficient to make his salary, from October first, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, to the first of August, one hundred and sixty-nine, that of a fourth-class clerk in the fifth auditor's office, one hundred and fifty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

SENATE.

For folding documents and material for the same, eight thousand dollars.

For labor, eight thousand dollars.

For miscellaneous items, eight thousand dollars; for furniture and repairs, five hundred dollars; for fuel, oil, and cotton waste, for holding apparatus, one thousand dollars for the current fiscal year.

For the expenses of the joint select committee on alleged outrages in the Southern States, the sum of one thousand four hundred and sixty-three dollars and twenty-five cents, said sum to be carried for the purpose to the contingent fund of the Senate.

JUDICIARY.

For defraying the expenses of the courts of the United States, including the District of Columbia; for jurors and witnesses, and expenses of suits in which the United States are concerned, of prosecutions for offenses committed against the United States; for the salaries of prisoners; and for the expenses which may be incurred in the enforcement of the act, relative to the rights of citizens to vote, of February twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, or any act amendatory thereof, or any act amendatory of said act, three hundred thousand dollars; of which sum two hundred thousand dollars shall be available for the expenses incurred during the present fiscal year, the said sum being hereby supplemented and amended so as to further provide as follows: "That whenever, in any county or parish, in any congressional district, there shall be ten citizens thereof of good standing two years prior to any registration of voters for an election for representatives in Congress, or prior to any election at which registration of voters is required, and the registration of voters in said county or parish, shall be known, in writing, to the judge of the circuit court of the United States for the district wherein such county or parish is situated, their desire to have said registration or election both guarded and secured; it shall be the duty of the said judge of the circuit court, within not less than ten days prior to said registration or election, as the case may be, to open the said court at the most convenient point in said district; and the said court, when so opened by said judge, shall proceed to appoint and commission, from day to day, and from time to time, under the seal of the said judge, and under the seal of the court, for each election district, or voting precinct in said congressional district, as shall, in the manner herein prescribed, have been fixed by and to be fixed by change, or renew said appointment from time to time, two citizens, residents of said election district, or voting precinct in said county or parish, who shall be of different political parties, and able to read and write the English language, and who shall be known and designated as supervisors of election; and the said court, when opened by the said judge as required herein, shall, therefrom and thereafter and up to and including the day following the day of the election, be always open for the transaction of business under the act, and the powers and jurisdiction hereby granted and conferred shall be exercised, as well in vacation as in term time; and a judge, sitting at chambers, shall have the same powers and jurisdiction, including the power of keeping order and of punishing any contempt of his authority, as when sitting in the court: Provided, That no compensation shall be allowed to the supervisors herein authorized to be appointed, except those appointed in cities or towns where the population of the voting precincts of the act of which this is an amendment shall be construed to authorize and require the circuit courts of the United States in said section mentioned to name and appoint, as soon as may be after the passage of this act, the supervisors provided for in said section, in all cases in which such appointments have not already been made in conformity therewith. And the third section of the act of which this is an amendment shall be taken and construed to authorize and require the circuit courts of the United States in said section, in all cases in which such appointments have not already been made in conformity therewith. And the third section of the act of which this is an amendment shall be taken and construed to authorize and require the circuit courts of the United States in said section, in all cases in which such appointments have not already been made in conformity therewith. And the third section of the act of which this is an amendment shall be taken and construed to authorize and require the circuit courts of the United States in said section, in all cases in which such appointments have not already been made in conformity therewith. Ball-Roads. The last number of the Indianapolis Bulletin devotes a good deal of its space to the subject of railroads. Its efforts to arouse the people of Western Texas to their best interests is laudable, its agreements are sound and just, but what can be accomplished by these newspaper appeals?

What says Kampmann, Yancey the Mavericks, and many others who are the largest property owners in this section of country? Not visible. What is the reason of their apathy? Ask the north-winds—we cannot conjecture. But we can say to these men—to all those who are looking backward instead of forward, that the day is coming when they will regret having played the crow-fish. It is an easy going crawl with them now, but the tight will weigh them sooner or later.

Suppose Greeley is elected, what reasons have you for believing that the condition of things in respect to this matter will be improved? Greeley has given his adherents to understand, notwithstanding all that is said about civil service reform, that when he is President he will remember those to whom he is indebted for his election, whether they be Democrats or Republicans, and no man doubts that he will, if elected, remove from office every man he can, who opposes his election, on that ground, if no other exists, and fill the places so made vacant with his supporters.

Look at the long and hungry procession that will follow him to the White House in view of this result! Foremost among these are the renegade Republicans, the modest men; then follow the Tammanyites, who responded to Greeley's nomination with a hundred gans, the pure men; and last, but not least, the Democratic politicians, the patriotic men. All these will press their respective claims for office upon the consideration of the new Executive, with a Babel like confusion of tongues. I have heard that the presidency does not believe in the existence of a hell; but if all these men go after him for office in case he is elected, as they assuredly will, he will not only change his mind in respect to the existence of such a place, but he will conclude that its location is not very far from man and English schools of this city, he makes his bed with a priest, and these two suck each other's ears like two loving bull-calves of the most promising breeds. It is a rare sight—and we shall not be surprised if Mr. Berenda, before he gets through the vain effort to extract anything like lasting nourishment from the priests' ear, should actually take orders in the church, or retire to a monkey.

The ex-warrior who does the heavy writing for the Herald of this city, says, in yesterday's issue, "we Texans much prefer to be defended by white troops." This reminds us forcibly of the ten tailors of London who issued their proclamation, beginning, "we the people of Great Britain, &c."

Now, there cannot be the slightest objection to the venerable rose of the Herald expressing a preference for the color of the troops which shall be called out to defend his scalp, his virtue and integrity, but when he undertakes to speak for Texans at large there is danger of his creating false impressions. The fact is the Texans don't care a d—olly varden who defends the frontier, if it be only properly defended. What difference does it make to us whether the troops scouting the frontier are white, black, blue or mixed—like the politics of the Herald? Not a white. But there is an admirable naiviti in the observations of our neighbor which would make the fortune of any boarding school miss among the softs of a country dance. While it is acknowledged that the negro troops have done good service when in command of white officers, (and it is well known that all the officers are white), he graciously yield "the palm of philanthropy to our northern brethren," (including Horace Greeley of course), and will be content to have his soap detended by a "Cancaasian!"

It is a gracious condescension which induces this child of Chappaquaque to consent to be offended by a "boy in blue" of any color. We imagine that the color which most disturbs his vision in the blue and not the black; but be that as it may, his master Horace would be grieved at such a bold manifestation of prejudice against color.

It is not judicious you see. Yet we thank the Herald for setting the Pica-yune aright in its unjust attacks upon the army of the United States—and for its defense of the commander of this department. FLORENSVILLE, Wilson Co., Tex., September 17th, 1872.

Editor San Antonio Express: SIR:—I am informed that the Republican party at a recent Convention in the city of San Antonio presented my name to the voters of this Senatorial District as a candidate for representative. I am truly thankful to my friends for the compliment, but do most respectfully decline to accept the nomination feeling my incompetency to discharge the duties of a Legislator. I make this early declaration that the party may substitute another name on the ticket. With many thanks to my friends both in this county and of the Convention, I am Respectfully, JUAN N. FLORES.

Civil Service Reform. From Speech of Attorney-General Williams, at Philadelphia, Sept. 19. Suppose Greeley is elected, what reasons have you for believing that the condition of things in respect to this matter will be improved? Greeley has given his adherents to understand, notwithstanding all that is said about civil service reform, that when he is President he will remember those to whom he is indebted for his election, whether they be Democrats or Republicans, and no man doubts that he will, if elected, remove from office every man he can, who opposes his election, on that ground, if no other exists, and fill the places so made vacant with his supporters.

Mr. Newby at Chappaqua.

A DILEMMA AND HOW IT WAS AVOIDED—INCIDENTAL PROVISION FOR THE FUTURE. CHAPPAQUA, (which is in the State of New York) August 18th, 1872.

I am quartered now more correctly to my taste than I have since the halcyon days of A. Johnson, who is now so near. I have a room to myself to which my meals are sent, I have my own private bottle, and the labor is light, though the responsibility is heavier than I could wish. I was sent here by the National Democratic Convention to take charge of these premises, and to see that our beloved candidate, the good and great Greeley, did not make an ass of himself more frequently than is good for us.

I arrived yesterday morn and to-want associated the docteev to the postmen. My first work was the inspection of the acre on the farm, with the great and good Horace yoness on his horse. I found them all too heavy for such contumacious choppins as he too. With them was his strength given out long since the company is over. I ordered a half-dozen high-top boots, and sold the stock on hand to the suburban farmers, the proceeds of which I have remitted to the National Committee of the Democracy.

Just after the Cincinnati Convention it was reported to Horrie that it would have a good effect of visitors should all betch him a true trimmings brush, and ever since the old man has gone out at nine in the morning, clean a free and stayed there till nine, with hometic procedure was a fearful waste of time, as visitors only come four times a day. He was terrible exhausted. I fixed this by having a small but intellectual boy perch himself onto a post on the road which leads to the house, with a signal flag. When a party headed for the philosopher's house makes its appearance, the boy waves his flag, and the great and good Greeley takes off his coat and gets up a tree, waiting to be surprised at his youthful avocation. At first he used to get down too quick to make it look natural, but I have trained him so that he whacks away with a most bland expression on his face, till I call twice or three times. To save walkin' too far, I dig up a tree and plant it by the house. One will keep green for ten days, and when the branches is cut off we take out the naked trunk and put another in its place.

I have, however, some trouble. My personal appearance is better suited to the latitude of Kentucky than New York, and I have to wear a hat without any rim to it, in the sun, to account for this redness of my nose. Then I have to meet so many kind and good people. We have here the old Abolitionist and the old Democrat, who are the hardest to manage. These latter the modified Democrat who accept siniger suffrage and sish, of he kin be schooled the post office in his native village, and the modified Republican who is willing to swallow amnesty, and likewise to doubt whether universal suffrage was a good thing after all, provided he kin be schooled by the collector's office which Greeley refused to give him, and which is now held by a minion and nepot. In short we have all shades here, and it's bother to take care of 'em. I don't like malice babies, because every one of us is proof positive that there's no adultery somewhere. For the same reason I don't like coal-burn parties.

The Missouri Democrat says: "Theodore Tilton has turned his back-hair on the past. He said in one of his Maine speeches that he was sorry he wrote the Woodruff's life, and that Greeley was right when he denounced it as an outrageous thing. But poor Woodruff! what shall become of her, seeing that her anonymous biographer has 'Ridged her of all her sweetness and sang her like a withered weed away!'"

The Chicago Journal says: "The Republicans of the North-west continue to prosecute the campaign with unrelaxed vigor. In almost every town and district frequent meetings are the order of the day, largely attended, and characterized by the good old spirit of devotion to principles. Our advice from every Western State are in the highest degree inspiring. It is evident that the 'tidal wave' that has been claimed for Greeley, is really for Grant."

The losses on ninety-three plantations; on Warrior river, in Alabama, in the recent floods, aggregate over $400,000. The Mobile Register says that of the "ninety-three plantations referred to, fifty-seven had met with a total loss of every bushel of corn, every bale of cotton, and every item of stock and improvements; and only eighteen have saved anything whatever; and even these were only able to foot up a trifles, snatched from destruction, in the way of such stock as could be hastily removed."
