He builds railroads and digs canals, cooks, washes, minds babies, makes cigars, shoes, etc., etc., and in whatever pursuit he follows he is industrious will work longer and cheaper and live more frugally than any other class of laborers. We do not say this by way of eulo gy, but mere state a fact known and acknowledged by all.

When he came first to California, John was treated with deferential curiosity, and on public occasions was permitted to (participate in our festivities and processions as an unbjectionable novelty. It was only at a later period, when his increasing numbers brought him into competition with white laborers, that my signs of hostility were shown Organizations were then formed to oppose his further coming among us, and to withhold patro the Chinese and their employers, The popularity of this movement was an great that efforts were made to make the expension of the Uniness a party measure. Common Sense.

Has it ever occurred to you to en quire, with a determination to solve ing. What more do we ask for ?

the problem before you, what is Common units looks upon these remeant by "common sense" It certain sults and says : We prefer the tried to ly does not mean the sense that is the untried, common to all, or even the majority Common of mankind; for, also! there are the noisy p few things more evident to the man but it plods on, it thinks silently of thought than the fact that Hum and, when the November election bug reigns triumphant in the race to comes, IT WILL YOTE. Yes, YOTE which we belong. True merit some FOR GRANT! times slowly makes its way in this world and attains to success; but, that the clever charlatan, whose only aim is to gull his tellow-creatures. that their credidity may the more rapidly ensure his success, and work out his fortune, is too notorious to need argument to make good the assertion. Barnum, with his Mermaid -the upper part of a monkey and the tail of a fish, cleverly stuffed and united - drew crowds to his Museum, and pocketed the quarters without remorse. Greeley, passing nimself off for an unaspiring philosopher, anxious only to cultivate turnips and prune his trees at his Chappaqua farm, began by drawing crowds, in the expectation of pocketing the votes. But P. T. Barnum has told us how his mermaid was manufactured, so that it would not attract much attention at the present day, even if it could rise from its ashes; and philosopher Greeley, having been unable to conceal the fact that thirst for office is the motive power of his life, disguised as it may be by an assumed rural licity, sees day be day his adirers dropping off, and the pros- damages are laid at $150,000

pect of votes sufficient to carry him to the White House, about as uncertain as the foretold collision of [SPECIAL TO THE SAN ANTONIO E mother earth with a smashing comet, that was to leave us not one leg to stand upon.

Common sense is that calm second thought that triumphs over the temporary insanities of the hour, It is that sober comparison of a solidly established reputation, with the vacillating character of a clever political acrobat. It is the discovery that, after all, the wonderful mermaid is nothing more than the ridiculous combination of a sore-head-republican monkey body with a fishy-democratic tail, and that it won't wash.

Greeley started with a flourish of trumpets and a big dram. Sumner blew the trumpet and Carl Schurz beat the big drum. But the termer lost his breath and, under cover of an M. D.'s certificate, made tracks tor Europe. The desertion of his best friends, Garrisson, Wendell Philipps and the rest, who preferr ed their country's weal to the promotion of the weather-cock Greeley to the presidential chair, "quite vanquished him, and in his mantle muffling up his face," as there was no statue of Pompey in Boston at the base of which he could decent ly fall, he did the next best thing -he took a berth in the Cunard steamer for Liverpool. "Requiescat in pace," Carl Schurz still pounds the ass esskin and, to do him justice, he pounds it well. He beats hard, be shows his teeth, but he will find it hard work to preserve until November, for it's a very thankless of-

"Common sense" compares the candidate Greeley with the present incumbent Grant, He finds the latter attending to the important duties of his office, following the even tenor of his way, undismayed by the yelping curs who bark their slanderous malice at him. Civil Service Beform. Always favoring practical reforms, I respectfully call your attention to one abuse of long standing, which I would like see remedied by the Congress. It is a reform in the civil service of the country. I form in the civil service of the country. I would have it to go beyond the mere fixing of the feature of office of clirk sand employes, who do not require "the advice and consent of the Senate" to make their appointments complete. I would have it govern, not the tenure, but the manner of making all appointments. There is no duty which so embarrasses the Executive and licade of Departments as that of appointments; nor is there any anch assumes and thankies laper imposed on Senators and Representatives as that of fluding places for constituents. The present system does not secure the best men, and often not fit men, for public place. The elevation and purification of the civil service of the Government will be hailed with approval by the whole people of the United States.

A California newspaper prints the fo owing touching obitmary;

Beneath the quivering arch of leaves.
Where sunlight flickered through.
While birds asng merry songs of love.
Each lo lie main so kine.
Where just below the mean bank.
The laughing stream flowed by,
We same, with fishing line and rod,
My blue-eyed May and I. Oh, how her merry laugh rang out, Startling the birdrabove!
And I forget the shining fish While whisparing words of leve.
And now the sublight, failing through The tangled web at green,
Came trumbling down to crown her hea
My blue cyal May, my queen!

Ah! years have passed since then, and she Hath with them passed away;
But nature smiles no whit the less
For troubled hearts each day!
The leaves, the birds, the bank, the brook;
Their mission still fulfill:
But memory only cheers my heart,
And keeps me happy chill.

The following saturages are strom the New York Times:

It is the misfortune but the necessity of he cause in which the Tribune is engaged, and the company it keeps, that it must sconer or later be opposed to every true Reform movement or organization. Yester-day it denounced the "Council of Political Reform," charging that body with being a Grant campaign organization in disguise; whereas the fact is that it is an organizatian which has existed for several years; that it is and always has been wholly free from partizan affiliations, and is composed of sincere and earnest men who really de-sire true reform. Being sincerely in favor of Reform it is not probable that it will favor the caudidates whom the Tribune must support; but it will be news to every ne to find that it is a Grant organization. But it is a necessity of the Tribune's position that such an organization should be denonneed and slandered. Mr. Greetev, he he works around toward home, is getting hysterical over the prospect. Yesterday he complained, in one of his harangues, that "in Maine one hundred thousand dollars was paid for rotes, and if they (the Republicans) succeeded there, it is because they have one hundred dollars to our one." But this won't explain the approaching Republican triumph in Indiana, for only last Wadnesday Mr. Greeley told a little crowed of the citizens of the State :

Rev. Frank Green was then called for and made an eloquent speech, showing how the Democrats, as he said " larristed" him as soon as he struck town, to ring him, into a Greeley. Club meeting, and cleated him a delegate to a "ditch meeting" he said he saw at this ditch meeting Gen. Knox, Colonel Logan and others, and thought it strange that they were taking so much interest in "ditches;" but he stood the racket, and to-night, when the time arrived, he went to the so-called "Ditch Convention" and the first man he met at the door was Peyton Smythe; he said he knew then that he was in the wrong box. The "Chicage Journal" says: The ex-rebels of Kentacky are just now busily en-gaged in "reising men and money" to send juto Indiana to carry the October election. The men are being sent across the river and colenised in Demogratic localities to do the voting for the Hoesiers' and the money is to be paid them for their services and expanses. This means "pelitical reform." These Greeley "reformers" are a great people.

The "reformers" who are remaine Greeley for President are just now exemplifying the sincerity of their prelended opposition to "political corruption" by residing large amounts of money throughout the country to send into Indiana and Pennsylvania to buy votes with. Greeley told the Hoosiers that "we must have reconciliation and purification." These corruption funds are probably designed for the "purification", part of the programme.

pointed adventurers who have from time to time attempted to run their worthless potions against Drake's Plantation Bit-TREES, yow that they cannot understand what foundation there is for amazing popularity. The explanation is simple enough. The reputation of the world-renowned tonic is founded upon a rock, the ROCK OF EXPERIENCE. All its ingredients sook OF EXPERIENCE. All its ingredients, are pure and wholesome. How, then, could tricksters and cheats expect to rivalit with compounds of cheap drugs and refuse liquor, or with liquoriess thresh in a state of acetous fermentation? The drawing will take place under the direction of a Committee selected by the Shareholders and those present at the Shareholders and those present at the drawing, in full view of the andiquee, and, will be by blind children, from 10 to 15, years of age, from two glass wheels, the centents of which can be seen by the andience, one of which will contain the gifts on printed slips in sealed boxes, and the second wheel will draw a gift therefrom, and the gift thus drawn will belong to the number drawn immediately before it. Thus this process will continue until the 651 gifts are drawn, and it is evident that by this mode of drawing, fraud, favortism, as a knowledge of what gift any number will draw, is impossible.
