THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Registration. All who wish to vote at the coming city election must register. Persons who have not previously registered for the county, must do so now. Office east side of Main Plaza.

The Bishop and Public Schools. We have been informed, and upon enquiry the information has been authenticated, that the R. C. Bishop of this diocese has instructed the priests over whom he professes to rule, that they are to refuse the sacraments of church to all parents who send children to public schools.

For several reasons this is a very injudicious order, to call it by no harsher name. It savours of that spirit of persecution and intolerance which are, or should be, things of the past. It looks like leaning to wards ignorance. But worse than all, it is an encroachment on the rights of the people of a free country to choose for themselves; it is an attack upon laws of the State, and upon its constitution.

Does the Bishop forget that in this country the distinction between Church and State is complete and peremptory? That no encroachment of the one upon the other will be tolerated? That the people—and we speak for them and in their name, for we know we are uttering their sentiments—would no more tolerate an interference on the part of the State in church matters, than they will quietly put up with sacerdotal opposition to constitution and laws.

Reader unto Cesar the things that are Cesar's is as much the peace and harmony of a community are best preserved by a general understanding of, and regard for, the respective rights and duties of all.

Remembering that no religious instruction of a sectarian character is allowed to be imparted to the pupils of public schools in the schools, leaving that matter altogether within the control of parents; remembering that the law is that all children of scholastic age shall attend a school, public or private, where teachers, holding certificates of competency, are employed; remembering that the teachers in Roman Catholic schools here hold no such certificates; the Bishop would do better to see to it, that qualified teachers only are employed in his schools, and not endeavor by church authority to interfere with the execution of the laws.

Verbum sat sapienter.

The Cathedral Fair.

As we sauntered down the street last evening, we were struck by the brilliant appearance of the plaza and attracted thither. The brilliancy was caused by the tawny illumination of the front of the cathedral, and by 31 torches borne by the 31 admirers of Miss Ida Greeley. Or, to be more correct, by some of these, and some smaller substitutes, who were doing in several cases double duty, by holding two torches instead of one, while the Idaites were wetting their lips at some neighboring bar, doubtless in honor of the aforesaid young lady.

It is needless to say that we were among the fugitives who were driven from the plaza by a gentleman of the legal persuasion, who was frantically endeavoring to repair the mischief which John Hancock had succeeded in doing to the Greeley cause last Saturday night. The few colored men who were in the audience, were surprised to find so much attention bestowed on them by a party, whose mouthpiece on Saturday informed them that he had no further use for them, and that they never should vote after November.

Our flight was arrested by the Catholic fair. It was crowded. The ladies and gentlemen who dispense the luxuries of the season in the shape of ices, punch, coffee and other delicacies, had their hands full of business. Beautiful eyes beamed upon us from all sides, as long as we had a quarter in our pocket, and irresistible appeals about lotteries, wafers by syren voices reached our ears, which unfortunately for our finances, we had not, like Ulysses, taken the precaution to stop with WAX.

The great attraction seemed to be, and very deservedly, the admirable collection of stuffed animals, so tastefully and skillfully arranged by Monsieur Toulouse, the greatest taxidermist in the United States, though he does live in Bexar county, and makes bricks. If you want to see fine specimens of the art, go to the cathedral to-night.

Questions to be put to Greeley Candidates. Have you paid your school tax? How much school tax do you pay?

Are you in favor of repealing the school law? Are you in favor of repealing the arms law? Are you in favor of repudiating any of the obligations of the State? Are you in favor of the impeachment of Governor Davis? When Johnny Hancock and his co-workers answer these questions we have a few more to ask.—Star Journal.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Oct. 7, 1872. Mr. F. Green—Chairman R. E. Executive Committee, San Antonio, Texas.

DEAR SIR:—I beg leave to report to the Executive Committee the results of my mission, since the date of my last communication, on 29th ult., from Hearne, Texas. That night I proceeded to Houston and on Monday following, the 30th ult., up to the night of the 4th inst. my time was constantly devoted to ascertaining exactly how matters stood with all the Rail Road enterprises of Texas, and more particularly with regard to the Columbus Road and the Western Narrow Gauge. With regard to the former controlled by Mr. T. W. Pearce, we have absolutely nothing to hope in the way of speedy extension to San Antonio. No definite conclusion had been reached between Mr. Pearce and certain parties in Houston, who tried to effect a consolidation of his Road with others terminating at Houston. Mr. Pearce's terms it was understood were too high and extravagant. He having failed at New York in raising funds to continue his Road from Columbus, or at about the 25th inst. started for Europe. My firm conviction is that the people of Bexar County will never be called upon for the $200,000 county bond donated to the Columbus Road under the conditions expressed, and I may be have good reasons for feeling that we have not been fairly and candidly dealt with, in having our expectations aroused by promises vain and futile.

Concerning the Western Narrow Gauge we see somewhat the same thing: parties trying to build a Rail Road without a real tangible money-in-hand basis, and at the same time, counting upon large margins of profit personally. The matter so stood when I left Houston, although I was assured by reliable parties that upon the termination of Mr. T. W. Pearce's efforts (now going on in New York), to raise money, that there were more parties in St. Louis and Houston who it was said stood ready to vitalize this Road and build it through to San Antonio forthwith.

With the Vice President and Directors of the Houston and Texas Central Rail Road I had frequent prolonged interviews with the view of eliciting their attention to a Western branch of their Road to San Antonio. By the annexed correspondence you will learn their ideas on the subject and I may add that individual directors expressed more strongly their desire to make this Western extension, from some point in their Road between Hempstead and Austin, at the earliest day possible. This company is to-day making more money than any Rail Road in the South and so much perhaps as any Road in the United States $775,000 gold is what the H. and T. C. R. R. is learning per month, it was informed by a stockholder. We may therefore feel assured that this company has no lack of means to build us a Road and that a promise from them means business.

From the enclosed newspaper slip taken from the "Houston Union," and also the "Age" you will see that public attention has been called to this subject and the Editors assured me that they would continue to advocate Rail Road to San Antonio.

On returning from Houston I remained in Austin on the 5th inst., to see if anything could be done about the bonds of the State due the International Rail Road. In an interview with the Comptroller, whose refusal to sign has occasioned all the delay, I learned that he only awaits the decision of the case now before the Supreme Court, to act; this decision will probably be made before the end of October, possibly within 10 days. As soon as the State Bonds are delivered, I think that operations will commence forthwith at Hearne to Austin and also at Austin to San Antonio. The facts are that this company has expended $14,000,000 in Texas on their line from Hearne to Longview and until the extension has been made to San Antonio, S. West, and to the Roads of the United States on the N. Eastern border of Texas, the vast amount of money already spent (forteen millions) yields no interest.

Hence we have the strongest reason to think that the company will accept in good faith the subsidies offered by intermediate counties, or such as may be offered, and not disappoint us.

The public sentiment in Austin is very favorable to the petition I started there to give $300,000 subsidy to T. R. R.—over eighty names of the influential citizens of Travis Co. were signed to the Petition and it will be soon acted upon by the Ct. Court. The people of Hays and Comal will I think also respond generously at the proper time.

In concluding my report I would say that on starting, B. Schwars, Esq., who made the collections from our citizens to repay my expenses, handed me $100.00 coin. Of that amount I have the sum of $50.00 coin remaining which I have handed to Mr. Schwars. No free R. R. passes were tendered and none asked for by me.

Hoping that my operations have the approval of the Committee and of our fellow-citizens.

I am, sir, very respectfully yours, (Signed.) THOS. J. WILLIAMS.

A Mistake Somewhat. Carl Schurz, after delivering to a large number of Germans assembled to hear him, in Newark, N. J., on the 3d inst., an address which lasted over an hour, was overheard by the N. Y. Herald reporter to remark that "if there was no cheating in Indiana, Hendricks would surely be elected. "He was certain" he said "of Ohio, and doubly certain of Pennsylvania."

Our dispatches informed our readers yesterday that we had 26,000 majority in Pennsylvania, 15,000 in Ohio, and that we gained one congressman and elected the legislature in Indiana where the gubernatorial contest was close.

There seems to be a mistake somewhere. Was Mr. Schurz's remark, as are our dispatches erroneous? "Sure of Ohio" Answer: "15,000 Republican majority." "Doubly sure of Pennsylvania" Answer: "26,000 Republican majority."

We hope friend Schurz will be trebly sure of a few more States. We like his mistake.

LARDO, TEXAS, Oct. 7th, 1872. Editor San Antonio Express: Thinking that some of your many readers would be pleased to know how we, on this portion of the Rio Bravo are getting along, I send you the news.

In the first place, all republicans and few democrats are doing their utmost to roll up a good majority for Grant and Wilson in November next, although at the last election this county went democratic, we are sure to poll two votes to the Fusion-Liberal-Grady vote. We have a Grant and Wilson Club, consisting of 100 members, in this city, and among the number are many who voted against Grant in 1868.

On the 29th ultimo the Republicans held a nominating convention, and last Saturday evening we had a rousing ratification meeting, and in addition to the members of the Club a large portion of those who follow the fortunes of Horace were in attendance. We held our meeting in the Court-house, brilliantly illuminated and our banners on the outer walls. Motteed all descriptions—illuminated—were to be seen. A band consisting of 16 members accompanied sweet music, and every thing was so harmonious as could be Speeches were made by Don. Jose Ma. Rodriguez, Don. Benito Garcia, Dr. Wm. Johnson, and Thos. J. See, Esq., frequently interrupted by applause.

Our merchants are doing a very good business. Quite a number of them have made purchases in San Antonio, and are well pleased with the prices. They tell me that your city comes up with their notion of business, and gentlemen who have visited your city quite recently give a glowing account of your progress and the kind and genial hospitality that they receive. More anon, JOHN M. GREEN.

IMMENSE GRAIN YIELD OF CALIFORNIA. A private letter from "Old Man Landrum" the pioneer "Angora goat man" of the Pacific coast, who recently spent several months in Washington on business before the Mexican Claims Commission, dated Watsonville, Cal., September 7, says: "I arrived here safely on the 4th inst. with eighty-five pure-bred Angora goats, forty-seven bucks and thirty-eight ewes. "I find our State overrun with produce. Wheat enough is stacked up on the wharf at Stockton to make a tier of sacks six feet high and forty miles long, and the agent of the Visalia railway informs me that there is grain enough stacked up by the side of that road to make two tiers of sacks six feet high and forty miles long, and not one-fourth of the crop along the line of the road yet hauled to the track."

In one of his late pathetic electioneering speeches, Mr. Greeley complained that "in Maine one hundred thousand dollars were paid for votes, and if they (the Republicans) succeeded there, it is because they don't admit that the Republicans purchase votes, but Mr. Greeley's speeches show that he wants his friends to buy his election. Certainly the way he drives and whines about there being votes in the market for money, and his own team, must excite their profound commiseration.—Houston Union.

REPUBLICAN PYRAMID.—The following States have voted since the Democratic Greeley Radical movement commenced, and have given Republican majorities: OHIO, MAINE, OREGON, VERMONT, NEBRASKA, CONNECTICUT, PENNSYLVANIA, WEST VIRGINIA, NORTH CAROLINA. —Houston Union.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

ANNOUNCEMENT. Mr. F. Green is earnestly solicited to become a candidate for Mayor at the next election for city officers.

HOUSE AUCTION SALE. DESHOUS is selling my dwelling house situated on Crockett street, I shall offer the same at public auction on the 26th day of October next.

THE fall meeting of the association of stockraisers in Western Texas will be at the town of Frio in Frio county on the 28th day of Oct., 1872.
