From the Houston Union. THE HOUSE OF SLEEP. BY MISS E. B. CHEESBOROUGH

Tis a quiet place, this House of Sleep, And quiet warders vigils keep. And guard the porfals dim; And popples hang in garlands round, and differe stands without a sound, And locks the sleeper in.

No cares latende their bateful form, No cries of soils out in the storm, Breasting the waves of Grief; But all is calur as Summer's day, The zephyr's wildest, aportive play Scarce would stir a leaf.

A holy hush, a precious eaim,
That bringato weary hearts a balm,
A joy too deep to tells.
Oh! mystic pleasure of awest alcop,
Checking the tears of those that weep,
How wondrous is thy spell! Come Labor, wearied out with toil, Child of the busy mart and soil, Come Grief, with sorrows deep; And Rest will fold thee in soft arms,

And Culm will hush thy wift alarms. In this blest lipuse Sleep. THE NASBY LETTERS.

The Poor Mun's Purty.

The great argument for the reand sinew of the land. The Democracy does not now and never has ple. favored free labor. The Republican party on the other hand has remov-ed the badge of disgrace which the Democracy had placed on the brow of the working map by shollhing slavery. That one stupendous act did more to elevate labor than anything else that has ever been done in the history of the country. The ablican party has not only elevated the laborer, but it has protected him, and this has benefited highest to the lowest. The Demo-

aw, but under Republican regime

it has encouraged emigration which The Daily Express. has raised the price of land, and made it to blossom as a rose.

The Republican party bas creased the national debt, it has essened the taxes, and depressed the price of gold—and this must be placed to the credit of the administration of President Grant.

If this country should fall into the hands of the Democracy, there would be a fluancial crisis, and a general stagnation of all business; and the working man and the business man, who by his vote assists in bringing about the calamity, will soon have sufficient cause to regret that he has listened to the siren song of demagogues, and turned his back on his great benefactor-the Republican party.

The Condition of France.

A marked improvement in the condition of France has taken place since last year. Notwithstanding the existence of various parties there, each riding its particular Thiers steers the ship of State safely through the contending currents. The légitimiste party is that anti quated and effete one, which would give the throne, if it could, to the lieve he will live long enough to regret representative of the elder branch the slanderous atterances be made on that of the Bourbons, viz, the Count of secasion, Chambord, who, if he ever became King, would be Henry V. But their more will accept a Bourbon as its leader.

The Orleanists, or favourers of the in order among the Monarchists. great work you began in 1861. If the Republican party should, by any series of false moves, lose the hold which it now has on the aftections and confidence of the people, the probability is that the "Comte de Paris" the grandson of Louis Philippe would have the best chance to assume the crown of France. the employees of the different "bureaus" or officers of the government) tendencies; and the venerable and earned Guizot is still a strong supporter of the cause, of which he was so long the distinguished leathe Emperer Napoleonists, Under him they made their fortunes. To him they cling despite his disgrace.

In the Republican party we have several shades. The Moderates, who ly, but those half-sensible women who per despise the feverish Reds, because their excitable tempers and upturn they waste, to use their tormals, "abilities ing practices, are of a nature to which might be so much bester employed." keep the country on a volcano of They dust rooms, and mend clothes, and threatened troubles, and the Reds. bake cake, and call this housewifery, and who satimate the Moderates as weakkneed, unenterprising, and ready, gennine and comprehending washing of at a moment's notice, to join hands dishes and kettles, scouring tinwars, and with the Orleanists. Finally come blacking stoves, paring of potatoes and the Communists, whose achieve ments during the siege, have covered them with the execration they so

One man. President Thiers, who was himself, for many years of his long and setive life, a distinguish tention of the Republican party in be telling, though he appears to power, is to be found in the extra-ordinary prosperity which this land "regime" under which France is has been bleesed with during the living, should be brought to a close. A permanent Constitution, to require industry is figurialized We may well be proud of the condition of the Republican government, the working class, and does not the continued increase of the trade and second "Chamber," auch as our Sen commerce of the country show the ate, added as a moderating influ handiwork of a wise and liberal ence to existing institutions. Then government ! Where on God's green only can see hope to see institutions foot-stool can any other country be perpetuated in France, which seem found, where the labor of the work to be working so favourably for it, ing man yield much dulties it does and a which naturally excite our in this Union. HEADQUARTERS VETERAN NATIONAL COM PIFTH AVENUE HOTEL. New York City, Sept. 25th, 1872. the Saldiers and Sailors who served in the Union Army and Nuvy during the late War

We, your representatives, met at Pitts burg and adopted a series of resolution which you have already seen. You have discovered that we expressed sentiment which are entertained almost unanimous view of the fact that Mr. Greeley has charged us with the desire to engender feelings of hate toward the survivors of those who were in armed rebellion against the Gevernment, we desire to reiterate our wish that all differences may be obliterated, with this one single condition, that under no circumstances will we support s man for Chief Magistrate of the nation, who, in the hour of his country's greater danger did not appreciate the situation, and, by words and acts, step forward to its defense.

We deny that one single word, either is the speeches or the platform of that Convention, justifies Mr. Greeley in the remarks which he uttered at Pittsburg, and his entire lack of courtesy toward the hobby, the wisdom of President soldiers and sailors who assembled there. serves to confirm us in the opinion that he is quite unfit to be trusted in any position where loyalty to his Government, a jus regard for the declings of others, and an abnegation of self is required. We be-you the great importance of the issues which are presented to you, and to urge cause is hopeless. M. Thiers, though now far advanced in the years of sober practi-cality, is the here of a remantic mystery which recalls the flower episode in Ruy Blas. Every morn's ing for the past twenty years a bouquet of violets has been bestowed upon the President by some un known person. He finds the flowers sometimes in his room, sometimes outside his window, and, try hard as he may, he cannot discover the giver. When, at the time of the sup detat, he was imprisioned, the violets came with unceasing regularity to his cell; and, whether he rules in Paris or takes his pleasure at Trouville, no morning pass without its pretty greeting. The actors being French, the little romance seems graceful and fitting which shows how much depends upon the national setting of such a story. Fancy Dr. Grant as the recipient of matutinal violets or Mr Henry Wilson-or the Hop. Matt.
