Delicate Creatures.-This is the phrase applied by His Blackness, the Moore of Venice, to the fair ladies of Italy. It was the levely complexion of Desdemoua, such a radient contrast to his own, that won his heart: and sooth to say, every man of discernment considers a fair skin, like a sweet voice "an excellent thing in woman." Now this is a charm which can be sequired. There is a healthwhich can be acquired. There is a health-ful and odoriferous toilet article, known the beginning strictly according to directions, and given internally with the food, which literally transfigures a cloudy or sallow skin, suffusing the discolered face, seek, arms and besom with a soft, pearly $5 cents a bottle.
