The Election Results in Texas.

Sufficient returns have been received to indicate that the Republican party in Texas has been defeated. While in nearly every State in the Union it has achieved extraordinary triumphs, here it has met with ignominious disaster. One does not have to go far to ascertain the cause. It may be briefly stated that the cause exists in the unpopularity of the present State government as well as the personal unpopularity of the men who compose it.

These men did not meet four years ago with any marked unpopularity as a whole, but their lack of appreciation of the true spirit of a Republican form of government led them inevitably into errors which have proved very disastrous to themselves, but temporarily disastrous to the Republican party.

There will, no doubt, be given to them ample time and opportunity for reflection, and a reformation of their opinions concerning the duties of the servants of the people. They may learn, if they are not too obstinate in their ways, that the science of Republican government is one thing, and the art of controlling the votes of the ignorant quite another. They may learn that it is better to govern wisely and well, than to devote considerable energies to the catching of votes.

They may learn that the venerable Democratic institutions of trickery, deceit, and all manner of dark ways, will, perhaps work well with the Democracy, but with Republicans never. In short, should they desire to continue their labors in the political field, they may come to the conclusion that brains and capital possess some little influence in politics as well as in other human affairs.

He would be a remarkable specimen of a man who could live to have his hand at his neighbor when our hat is off and be able to say that there is no treachery and deceit in this world! While we are more than resigned over dooms, as candidates for an office, we never thought we are quite elated to learn another phase in the characters of some men whose names are not yet chiseled very high on the monument of fame. Of course we don't know them, and don't want to know them—so we leave it to you to be an implement used to cut them out, and when we find them cold, we shake their hands, and we shake their cordial hands, and that would make us feel sorry for them. It is not pleasant to feel sorry for anybody. The above is a sound moral derived from the simple fact that certain persons bussed themselves considerably in striking the blow. But the blit of dispair can ticket during the election. They profess to be Republicans, and no doubt did it from the kindest feelings, and a desire to save the unshilled reputation of one who had never been a member of any Legislature. Taking it for granted, that such were their pure motives, it is fitting that we should, in this public manner, tender them our sincere thanks.

Our neighbor, the Herald, professes to know who these kind friends were—we don't, but in the words of an ancient knickerbocker friend of some remote ancestor of ours, "Holla's to their healths and their families, and may they live long and prosper!" A twenty years' sleep would not obliterate our gratitude for these noble hearted men who have dared to stand "in imminent breach" and rescue us from our peril.

—John Brown.

A lady editor, commopolitan in the North and West, are rare at the South. An accomplished lady of Richmond, Va., Mrs. Charles Wallace, the wife of a well-known merchant, has lately taken hold of the Old Dominion Magazine, with the intention, if properly facilitated by the publisher, giving employment to old gentlemen and old ladies who are now starting because they have no employment. Her friends, who alone yield them a support; to open a way of independence to the great wealth of our land who otherwise must become "beavers of wood and stone"—she has done her duty, and taking, though very poor of educational culture, will gather many adherents. Of her ability, the number least among numerous able evidence.

Another Great Conflagration.

A LARGE PORTION OF BOSTON REPORTED IN ASHES.

Loss stated at over $200,000,000.00.

A dispatch was received here yesterday, stating that a fearful conflagration had begun in Boston, that over three square miles of the central and best built portion of the city had already been burned, and that the fire was still raging beyond the control of the fire department.

No further particulars have as yet been learned, although every effort has been made to procure additional dispatches. The Board of Trade of this city telegraphed promptly for information, but up to five o'clock yesterday, P. M. the lines were not in working order, and no reply had been received. We hope the full news may prove the first to have been an exaggeration, at least, for another fire equal to that of Chicago in this country would threaten serious financial disturbances damaging to the whole country. As soon as authentic news shall be received we shall express it through the city, by extra if necessary.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

FRESH OYSTERS!—A. Gafford has made arrangements for the receipt of choice, selected fresh Oysters, three times a week, which will arrive up to his customers at the St. Charles Hotel, in every style. They are brought in ice and warranted fresh. 27-10-8400

OUR local column is not replete with matters of unusual interest, or anything else for that matter, to-day. The fact is we are not fairly again in harness, as we shall be in day or two.

See Miss M. D. on a lamprey.

THEIR ABILITY TO DISTURB A CONSIDERABLE VILLAGE ON A SMALL TROPICAL ISLAND TREATED.

On Saturday night last we were disturbed during a meditative slumber by insipid apes. They sounded like the wild shouts or yells, of many "Five Point orphanges," just let loose from imaginary restraints; or like an infantile Indian turned out for a mad frolic. We were curious to know what it was all about, and went reluctantly in search of the information. It was the Ida Gal-boys on a slowing out Saturday night's tramp. The tall-lasted infants were as jolly as so many Mark Tapleys under the direst misfortunes. A genuine anampagne could not have made them more demonstrative. The dice distinguishable about us heard were, hurrah for Greeley! Ponderously we thought, why not for gree—or any other?—it is evidently a masquerade. Following the sound, we reached the Plaza in time to hear our good natured, (and really good) friend E. (who) crew-as for a Secretary for the gal-boys, that nothing but Mrs. Toole's dear-pie would answer his purpose, and, of course, "which is" spelled with a p. The gentleman whose name is spelled with a p. elevated himself upon the platform taking one of the right angles of position—in other words, he squared himself to take notice.

Then was introduced the unsmiled patriot and indomitable statesman who is the hypotenuse of the well known legal firm headed by our newly elected District Attorney, and tailed by him, who crew-as Peter denied his Master thrice. He told these poor down trodden boys that they were "free men now," the shackles were taken off their limbs! and they could now more rejoice in the open sun light of liberty, without going—here their shouts drowned the voice of the speaker, but it was believed that he said, "going to school any more." We didn't wait to hear any more. When we knew that the poor boys wouldn't have to longer tramp the streets abounding with white hals two feet high, and bearing skin scalding torches, while greeny dripping spoiled their clothes and put their mothers in daily tribulation, we said "thank God! the Gal-boys are free again, but why don't they go home and go to bed?" And we wandered meditatively away from the exulting numbers of Greeley democracy, smacking over a little local triumph—the only little live east in the huge pile of ashes.

The arrival of wood produced in different parts of the world are far removed from the market. People are aware of the fact that the expansion of 1860 there were few such very different countries, no less than four different kinds of wood available.

Arrived at 12 m. from New Orleans, and 1800 from Austin.

The proprietors of the most extensive lumber in the business had their first meeting on Thursday, Oct. 10th. Dr. Lents, and elected the following directors: A M Allerton, Augustus Schell, Asa S. Philadelphia is to have a wedding in December, at St. Stephen's Church, which will be as brilliant as it will be large and fashionable. We are informed that there will be twelve bridesmaids, all of whom will be beautified in costume to be made expressly for the occasion by the celebrated Parisian dress maker, Worth. The bride will wear a dress of lace being made in Belgium at a cost of $5,000 gold.

Rockport is lively, cattle men throng the streets. Steamers and lighters at our wharves, and every man goes in a hurry. And as for money, why, it is buried by dry loads about our streets, and men carry it in sacks upon their shoulders. The money is all hard, greenbacks don't circulate here to any great extent. A most prosperous season is here for our city.—Transcript.

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
With Peppermint and Balsam.
A REMEDY FOR DISPERSAL.

The stimulating influence of Buchu upon the nervous members of the stomach and bowels, has given it a prominent place in the treatment of diseases of the digestive organs. It augments the appetite and promotes digestion. In combination with Peppermint and Balsam when there is a deficiency in gastric secretion, its beneficial effects are decided and really wonderful. In Aortic Dyspepsia complicated with urinary disease, it tends to relax the malevolent action of the kidneys, and to remove the generation of the sedimentary deposits in the urine, while the diuretic property holds the latter in solution and favors its discharge.

DO NOT

Be deceived, but for copper, cobalt, iron, tin, manganese and bismuth, and all other minerals.

WELLS' CARBOLIC TABLETS,

WORLDS' TRAVELERS are on the market, but the only valuable preparation of Carbolic Acid for Skin Diseases is when chemically combined with other well known remedies, as in the TABLETS, and all parties are cautioned against using any other.

In all cases of irritation of the mucous membranes these TABLETS should be freely used, their cleansing and healing properties are astonishing.

The warning, never neglect a cold, it is easily cured in its incipient state, when it becomes chronic the cure is exceedingly difficult, and Wells' Carbolic Tablets at a special price are the best remedy.
