OUR readers will remember the letter from the Rudian agent Lawrie Tatum, as Fort Sill, anomology the recovery of two boys from the Comanches, one the son of Mr. Korn of our City, and the other annea Smith, captured wear Boorie, but whose parents have not yet been discovered. These boys were brought here yesterday by Col. Randlebrock of the 4th Cavalry. The meeting of the father and the son, as described to us, was most affecting. The boy, who is only about sine or the years of age, could speak no ester language than the Comanches, and of course did not recognize his father. The father want with joy over the remember of the tanker want with joy over the remember of the lather want want was a lather the lather want was a lather than it has ever been;" and she attributes the lather the lather want with joy o of age, could speak no other language thus the Commelie and of course did not recognize his father. The father waps with joy over this removery of his long tottoon, but was compalled to take along with him young finith, who is older, to interpret and make plain the situation.
