THE HOUSE was called to order by Hou. J. P. Newcomb, and the Clerk of the for mer House not being present to read the rell of members elected, he proceeded to perform the functions of the Clerk, no one objecting. The newly elected members were duly qualified, when the House procoeded to elect "a "peaker, after listening to a prayer by parson B. Rodgers. The M. D. K. Taylor, and 10 for W. A. Ellest. Mr. Taylor was duly grateful, upon taking the chair, had served his country twenty years, and found himself endersed. Did set intend to make a speech, but "the time for the reliaf of a down tredden people had arrived."

Mr. Wm, Walsh, was then elected Clerk of the House, representing the downtrodden people; T. J. Pilgrim, First Assistant Clerk, and J.F. Bell, Second Assistant Clerk of the House, representing the down-tredden people. The representatives of the down-prodden then adjourned to 7 o'clock, P. M. The representatives of the down-trodden met five minutes after time, and adopted the rules of the last House.

A representative of the down-trodden wanted to know if it was in order to smoke a pipe; and was informed that the last radical House had deprived the representatives of the down-tredden of that privilege.

Mr. Wm. Worthington, of Hopkins was elected Engressing Clark; W. C. Nelson, Enrolling Clerk; E. T. Rhodes, of Guadalupa. Sergeaut. at-Arms. M. C. Reaves. Assistant, and C. L.
