JULIUS W. VAN DYKE, Editor & Proprietor.
Which Journal of the United States
THURSDAY, JAN. 30, 1873.

GENERAL DOWNS made an excellent speech in the Senate two weeks ago against the practice of allowing Indian traders to sell arms and ammunition to uncivilized Indians...

A CONTEST of unusual warmth and spirit has been in progress in the Arkansas Legislature lately on the election of a United States Senator to take the place of Mr. Rice...

THE State of Texas has approved the objects of Mr. Denton's bill concerning fencing, and it seems that the more the subject is examined into, the more the measure is approved...

Our neighbor stated recently that the Legislature was doing a good work. So far the good work accomplished has been the passage of an appropriation bill to pay the members...

Below we give an account of the speech made by Mr. Short, a Democratic member of the House of Representatives...

the Hindu religion. But that does not matter. "Nothing good can come out of Nazareth," and, therefore, the long and short of Mr. Short's creed is - "crucify him! crucify him!"

Mr. Speaker: I am surprised at the insult and indignity offered to me by the members of this house, in advocating the rejection of my bill. They say the law is good. I do not say it is one who believes that nothing good can come out of Nazareth...

A Western editor informs a correspondent that the words "no cards" accompanying a marriage notice, signify that the wedded pair don't play poker.

The Louisville Commercial gives us some idea of the Wichita Colonization, Agricultural, Mining and Manufacturing Company, a company organized for the improvement and settling up of the country in the southwestern portion of Texas...

The visit of Mrs. Swinburn to Litchfield, reminds one of our friends of an encounter of wit between that lady and President of the Louisville Journal, which occurred more than twenty years ago...

Intelligence has been received at Washington indicating serious diplomatic difficulties between Japan and Peru. The Peruvian Legation has received information that its government has ordered a withdrawal of its Ministers from Japan...

The American Agriculturist suggests that the girls wear "think, home-made" dresses, instead of the gaudy, showy, and frivolous ones which they now wear...

THE Supreme Court has made a decision which will be of interest to a certain class of disappointed soldiers. A Federal soldier in the late war...

TREATMENT OF SMALL POX - AN ALLEGED EFFECTUAL REMEDY. - A great discovery is said to have been recently made by a surgeon of the British Army in China...

What the Season Demands. To assume warm clothing at the commencement of the cold season is only an act of common prudence. But something more than this is required to put the body in a state of defense against the scorching atmosphere of winter...
