San Antonian abroad will be read with interest:

To Col. ____, San Antonio, Texas,

MY DEAR FRIEND: I write you from the Adriatic nals dotted with steamers, vessels and gondolas-yes, there is indeed

"A glorious city in the sea;
The sea in the bread, the narrow streets,
Ebbing and flowing; and the salt sea weed
Glings to the marble of her palaces,
No track of man, no footsteps to and fro,
Lead to her gates."

It is from Venice I write but it must be rather of Rome or Florence. When one has but days in which to do the task of months it must necessarily be an imperfect success at least,—the lateness of the season admonished us to tarry not in Rome, hence but little time could be given to letter writing, either in Rome or Elorence, and a result, you have no address the success at the south Rome, hence but little time could be given to letter writing, either in Rome or had—and his sculptured beauty here muse over an embroidered address the south Romeson and R to do the task of months it must Florence, and a result, you have no letters from those cities. Rome like Florence is being rejuvinated and a healthy prosperity-is manifest in everything you see around you. The unity of Italy, un der Victor Emanuel and a liberal parliament acting under constitutional laws is working wonders in this united country, and not the least in the "papal States," of which Rome was the centre and capital, as she is now of united Italy :from Sicily on the extreme Southwest Venetia in the North-east the political aspirations of a comparatively free people centre in the Qui rinal, with Victor Emanuel as their talisman, as in the past the papal magnate drew the distranchised mind to the Vatican-to Rome. New ideas will develope whether for better or worse. The masses, learned and unlearn ed have discovered that people may be born and marry and die and be buried even without aid of priest or monk as witness the great funeral of the loyed Rattazzi, who did so much for his dear italy, though not well pleasing to the Holy Father.

Newspapers are now read and sold everywhere, and in an enlightened freedom of disscussion of eve rything which constitutes their form of Government, whether in its political or religeous aspict. Poor France might well take a lesson in toleration just now.

A very few years since even in religeous exercises you were restricted to the one formula in Rome, within the walls of the Eternal city. All this change smaks of freedom of thought if not of infalability the exercise of it.

Rome is rapidly increasing in population. Old Rome-the Rome of Republic-of the Empire-the ed and new discoveries are being daily made. It is quite bewilder ing to the visitor to look upon the ruins that have in part at least sur vived the lapse of time, and the vandals-many of these monuments of the past having been buried be neath modern Rome for nearly twen-ty centuries—and hence are better preserved, through time in the race

DR. C. F. BRAWN'S Young American Liniment.

THIS Limiment has gained a lasting re-putation, where it has been used, in most cases which require an external rem-edy, such as rheumatism, soreness and swelling of the breast, pain and weakness in the back and joints, sprains, bruise cramps, numbness, frozen limbs, bites insects, old sores, fever sores, gottre or insects, old sores, fever sores, gottre or swelled neck, paralysis, wounds, erysine-las, bites of reptiles, headache, white swellings, mange, poison, burns, all swel-lings, salt rheum, corns, warts, sore eyes, run-rounds, &c. We daily hear of the most astonishing cures on animals by this excellent remedy, and hasard nothing in saying that there never has been its equa as a curative for horses. We assert posi-tively that it will cure any case of sweeny in existence; also splint, galls, sprains or strains, bruises, scratches, wounds, big head, wind gails, sore eyes, swellings, ec.; and has never failed to cure listula, poll-evil. ring-bone and spavin. When used in the beginning, strictly according to direcit is a harmless but certain remedy for worms. Do not fail to give it a trial: only 25 cents a bottle.

Horse Epidemic.—This Liniment cured thousands of horses at the North during the prevalence of the horse distemper there. In such cases rub the neck Stanb's Gelebrated Portable vorn and and throat well every evening, and give a table spoonful of it in the horse's food for two or three evenings.
