Long age I loved, also!
Loved a lass, and very truly;
On a day it came to pass
That I made an offer day.
Sinking on my knees, I fired
Sighs and simpers in a volley—
Fondly, madly I aspired
To the hand of Pretty Polly.

Rapture, costacy, delight!
"Yes," was all my Mary uttered;
But a mist was o'et my sight,
And my heart with fervor fluttered.
Yet within a little week. Urged by frenzy or by folly, I was flirting with a "sheek" That amazed my pretty Polly.

She returned the little things She returned the little things
Sent as preofe of my affection—
Chains and photographs and rings—
Rather a unique selection.
Then my heart grow sick and sad,
Flirting mas be very jully,
Still my goings on were bad
In the case of pretty Polly.

Morn, noon, and even haunts me,
lay and night its cry is heard,
And the ghoetly echo haunts me.
When I'm broading all siene,
Sulky, and and melancholy,
Still I hear its parrot tone Ever crowing "Pretty Polly."

Of course the statement that the Mexican State authorities appear anxious for hostillity is a lie. The additional statement that they "are the demanding that troops be sent for ward to repel a second incursion by Mackenzie or any federal force", puts the anxiety for hostility on the other side. The Texas because other side. The Texas borderers want to involve the United States want to involve the United States in war with Mexico as a speculation. They have trumped up claims against Mexico for depredations on their property, amounting to more than all the property of all the border counties is worth. And there are pretty good reasons to believe that the Texans are as good maranders as any in that region. There that the Texans are as good marauders as any in that region. There is no paramount slavery interest now to make the county rice up at an invasion of Mexico. There is no servile Congress now to back up such an unconstitutional levying of war by a declartion that "war exists by the act of Mexico." There is no national passion for annexation in that direction. The Republican party has a disagreeable way of investigating things, and it will rigidly scrutinize any hostilities that are brought on in that quarter where the Texan desire for war has long been notorious.—Ex.

Operation of the Press Law in

The Berlin correspondent of the London Standard, writing under the date of June 30th, gives the following incident, showing the stratagems resorted to for the purpose of evading the new press law in Prussia;

Two other night a freman was awakened from a deep dream of peace by the ringing of a belt. As he want bray doing anything eige just then, he kept on listening to see if it wouldn't step, but it failed and rained so to de. It must be the frebell. It called him loudy to the post of danger, parisage of death, or at the very least he risked catching cold. But San Antonio firemen smile on such things, generally. He sazed, however, with a tear in erally. He gazed, however, with a tear in his eye at his fair young bride and his five equirted on his new frilled shirt. He called ap all the man within him and went into the kitchen to polish his boots, as he didn't care to wake up Mrs. Fireman for that purpose. After putting on a tight that purpose. After putting on a tight pair of pants, a clean shirt and his dia-mond stude, he listened again. That infornal bell was ringing yet. Then he placed his Jaunty treman's cap on the side of his head, took his little Sunday cane in his fingers, gazed steroly at his firemanly appearance and tripped with martial tread into the street. The bell ceased. He heard a notes, it was the machine coming backa soles, it was the machine coming back. "Poys," said he, "sere ish de fire?" Then he was informed it wasn't the dre bell at all but that the colored Christians flad a revival going, and there was a sisters' meeting at twelve w. before early daylighting. Marchall Debbfo intimated to us yesterday that if that infernal bell was rung at that unseasonable bour again, tomebody might get their d—d neeks wrong, and for us to tell them so which we have done.

The office of District Clerk is a nice office, as it is worth a coel $15,000 a year or perhaps more, or about $2.00 as hour, which goes a long way in resigning a man to sacrifice his private business for the pool of his fellow citizens. Four years of that kind of bleeding for one's country with prudent management supposing the incumbent had no expensive habits, such as buying pea nuts on Sunday, would enable the retiring Clerk to purchase on credit a new alpacca umbrella and contribute 15 cts. DR. U. F. BRAWN'S Young American Liniment.

HIS Liniment has gained a lasting putation, where it has been used THIS Liniment has gained a lasting reputation, where it has been used, in most cases which require an external remedy, such as rheumatism, soreness and awelling of the breast, pain and weakness in the back and joints, sprains, bruise-cramps, numbness, frosen limbs, bites-cramps, numbles, wounds, erysipelas, bites of reptiles, headache, white swellings, mange, poison, burns, all swellings, sait rheum, corns, warts, sore eyes, run-rounds, &c. We daily hear of the most astonishing cures on animals by this excellent remedy, and hazard nothing in saying that there never has been its equa as a curative for horses. We assert positively that it will cure any case of sweeny in existence; also splint, galls, sprains or strains, bruises, scratches, wounds, big head, wind galls, sore eyes, swellings, ac; and has never failed to cure fistula, pollevil, ring-bone and spavin. When used in the beginning, strictly according to directions, and given internally with the food, it is a harmless but certain remedy for worms. Do not fail to give it a trial only 26 cents a bottle.
