In an old volume of poems, long since out of print, we find this gem: LINES WRITTEN ON SEEING AN INFANT SLEEPING ON ITS MOTHER'S BREST.

It was a fragrant eve—the sky was full of burning stars, that, from their clear, shone on those lovely ones, while the fall of falling waters fell upon the sea.

TEXAS ITEMS. DALLAS.—The Dallas News says: "On to-morrow, August 11, 1873, the Texas and Pacific Railway Company will formally receive from the contractors of the completed road from Longview to Dallas, and within a day or two will commence running its freight- and passenger trains on schedule time from Shreveport, Jefferson and Marshall to Dallas, via Hallville, Longview, Jordana, Saline, Minneola, Will's Point, Terrell, Brooklyn and Seeyen."

Mr. A. N. Dickson, a clerk in the Central Railroad office at Dallas took "pison stuff" because his girl married the totter fellow. The doctors pumpt him out.

TRAVIS.—Mr. John T. Callaghan gives the following new appointments to the Austin State Journal: Franklin E. Young, West Point, Fayette county; K. D. Standifer, Elgin, Bastrop county; Lyman B. Russell, Rockport, Aransas county; Robert Zapp, Round Top, Fayette county; M. M. Williams, Owensville, Bell county; J. D. Pitt, Capt. ote, Gonzales county.

On the 16th of August Austin will vote on a proposition to take stock in a Gas and Water Works Company.

PORT BEND.—The Four Counties, published at Richmond, says there is no change to report since our last, except the cessation of the rains. The worms stripped some of the fields and webbed up again.

The Lockhart News Echo calls the poet laureate of San Marcos a "golbuster." Thereupon the San Marcos Times poet is mad, and threatens "to go west" if you don't hush, consequently we respectfully request you to keep your boco closed and pen still on "golbuster" attempts at poetical scratching, particularly where the emanation is from the pathetic songster of our mountain hamlet.

KAUFMAN.—The crop of this county was never better and the corn crop is an average one, and as the Texas and Pacific is now completed, we may expect a heavy immigration this fall, and now especially so, now that it is certain that work will soon commence on the Central's Branch from Rice to Kaufman.—Spec of August 9th.

IN justice to Col. Ford we make room for the following: BROWNSVILLE, July 31, 1873. Editor San Antonio Express: Sir:—My attention has been called to an editorial in your paper of June 29th, in which you represent me as having led a force of one hundred and eighty rangers in 1855, made a raid into Mexico, etc.

THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH. "Edina, Scotia's darling seat," ought to hasten and recall the gift of her name to the royal spalpeen who bears it, if there be any truth in the following, which "Sentinel" writes to the World from London: The Duke of Edinburgh is of all the royal princes the one least esteemed and the one most disliked. You will hear in the clubs and in society the most disgraceful and ludicrous stories about him. Many of these turn upon the economical passion of the young gentleman, for, "Although on pleasure he was bent, He had a frugal mind."

From his boyhood up. While he was a midshipman he turned many an honest penny by selling the photographs of his royal mother, upon which he had persuaded her to write her name, to his shipmates and others at 10¢. Each. The money thus received, with other sums supplied by his loving parent, he often loaned out at usurious interest to his young companions of the gun-room, taking precious good care to exact principal and interest at the maturity of the debt. The thirty habits thus acquired have not been laid aside in later years, and to-day this prince of the blood and the future son-in-law of the Queen is actually in partnership with a well-known money lender of the city, a Mr. L.— You can imagine what disgust such facts as these which are widely known, inspire in the breasts of the people who are now represented as "thanking heaven on their happiness of our noble sailor-prince." Nor is this the worst of it. The prince has been a debauchee—although his dissipation are said not to have been with the utmost difficulty that the aversion of the empress of Russia and her poor daughter to this match has been overcome. One of his latest amours has been with a notorious actress of the opera bouffe—a woman whose ill-fame is world-wide, and who long since lost whatever charms she may once have possessed. The story of this affair is too disgusting to repeat, but I mention it only because one of its results entailed certain extremely disagreeable consequences, which caused the postponement of the announcement of the happy event over which the London journals are now gushing.

HORACE E. CLARK died worth ten millions of dollars—yet the man did not know what it was to live in comfort as the humblest laborer lives. He did not get more than four or five hours sleep in the twenty-four, working often till 4 o'clock in the morning. And work for him was hard—he fretted, worried, soiled, rushed about, and was in a constant fever of nervous excitement.

ment. His residence was the finest in the city of New York, but the rudest cabin on the prairies of the West had more true comfort within its walls of logs than he ever knew in his palace of marble and fine adornings. How many people envied the rich man who were immeasurably more happy than he! What a lesson!

What kind of Elastic? A dry goods man, who is well known for his politeness, has a father who is an excellent citizen, but not a very smooth talker. They were so busy at the store Saturday afternoon that the old gentleman was called in to help. Among the customers was a young lady who appeared to be waiting to trade with him, whose elderly appearance invited her confidence. Soon an opportunity offered, and leaning over the counter, an invitation for him to do the honors, she whispered her order. He bent close to her and said, "What's that?" in a voice that started the proscription to her forehead. "Oh, elastic," said he in a tone that could be heard on the walk, and looking much pleased with his success. "What kind of elastic?" he added, bending his head closer to the burning face of the perspiring young maiden. Once more she tremblingly whispered, "For garters, hey?" he repeated, even louder than before, without noticing the horror struck expression of the almost fainting young lady. "Something fancy, I suppose," he went on to say, in happy oblivion of the storeful of people; "young people nowadays wants things nice. My old woman uses a shoe-string, and sells around without noticing the difference." Then he got down with the box and turned around to show it, but the customer was gone. He stood around with the elastic some five minutes in waiting, but she did not return, and it is likely he has forgotten all about the circumstance now.—Danbury News.

JULIUS W. VAN SLYKE, Proprietor. Official Journal of the United States. OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF BEXAR COUNTY. A. SEEMING & CO., Publishers. SATURDAY, AUG. 16, 1873.

We are authorized to announce FRANK NEWBY as a candidate for the office of District Clerk of Bexar Co. at the next election.

We are authorized to announce SAM. S. SMITH as a candidate for District Clerk at the coming election.

We are authorized to announce JAS. E. SWEET as a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, at the coming election subject to the approval of the Democratic Convention.

TO THE VOTERS OF BEXAR CO. Having been called by a large number of voters...

The Conventions. MOORE'S EXHIBITION. Not only in Texas, but all over the United States conventions are the order of the day.

All the old politicians are apparently renewing their youth like an eagle. The Ohio Democracy held a convention, put out a platform...

In Milwaukee a German Convention consisting of 1000 delegates from all parts of the State...

In Massachusetts a Laborer's Convention has just adjourned after making the startling discovery that they have nothing to hope from either party...

No Germans need apply. It is reported from Washington that the imperial government of Germany has again requested the Secretary of State...

The request which comes semi-officially from the imperial authorities is based on the expediency of German-Americans to become energetic immigration agents...

Lavatories. The public lavatories is a paper that is hardly worth keeping on file, yet nevertheless we wasted half an hour yesterday...

Home News. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Additional reports from the scene of the Wawatow disaster...

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Gen. W. T. Sherman: There is now sufficient evidence to confirm the official report of the fight between the Sioux and Pawnee on the Republican river...

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Sixteen hundred and fifty emigrants arrived at Castle Garden to-day.

VIENNA, Aug. 15.—A stipendiary from the Indian country to-day, says the Bowling Ball party have beaten the Bo-themselves by the best of authority that there are parts of this State, where school teachers are in danger of their lives from mob violence.

The Mercury and Telegraph deplore any mention of the state of barbarism that prevails in some democratic portions of the State as it discourages immigration.

The Democratic press is very much in favor of immigration just at the present time, more so in fact than is customary with it.

The practical destruction of free schools by the democratic Legislature has done much to cripple immigration.

The nutritious legislation of the same Legislature on the subject of immigration has done still more to turn away the fertilizing stream of immigration.

The repudiation policy of the same Legislature has contributed still more to prevent capital being invested in Texas.

The recitals of the frequent jail deliveries by mobs all over the State, the actual warfare now going on in De Witt county, and similar fruits of the abolition of the State Police...

The Republican party of Texas has suffered a great loss from the indiscretions of carpet-baggers of the Baker stripe...

For political carpet-baggers, Texas has ceased to be a paradise, and we trust that it may become for them a still warmer place than even their fife-hoods would endeavor to picture it.

Texas News and Views. Tax Houston Telegraph speaks favorably of Judge Devine as a candidate for Governor.

He lives on the wrong side of the Colorado for anything of that kind to be seriously thought of.

The trial of James B. Helm on cutting and wounding four men in a crazy fit, resulted in a non-trial in Galveston on July 20th.

There will be a full crop of cotton in the Northern part of the State. THE Davis Republicans robbed the Baker Clique in Convention at Houston, we should infer by the lamentations of the Mercury.

All the newspapers that do not endorse Judge Ireland's course are suppressed by him to be subsidized.

From the tone of the Radical press there is little doubt, but Governor Davis will be re-nominated. He is undoubtedly the strongest man they have.

H. S. Parker, Esq., has a well deserved reputation for his well known and strongly impregnated with sulphur. He is a doctor having analyzed, and will report the same to us for publication.—Gazette Inquirer.

LOCAL AFFAIRS

ALEX. E. SWEET, Notary Public, Express Office.
Gold Market.

The lovers of pure music as a leverage for medical purposes can find the same at S. W. McAllister's Saloon, corner Alamo and Villita Street. 6-1w
The Ida Guelley boys are going to have a ward meeting to-night to select a guardian. Disparaging in demand, in consequence of the increasing political excitement.

Both the American and German Republicans are well represented.
MISSES CUSHMAN and SPEER, formerly associated with Rev. J. F. Martin in Commercial St. School, will commence private school, September 1, in Freeman's Hall, No. 9, situated near the new Hall of the Alamo Literary Society.
For further information apply at Gumbel's book store. 15-8-14-1w
The board of officers appointed by Sec. of War to purchase and determine on the location of lands in Texas for sites for forts and military posts, did not meet yesterday, the day appointed, owing to the absence of two members of the board. They will probably be in session to-day.
We notice in the Houston papers a telegram from San Antonio conveying the intelligence of the supposed capture by the Indians, near Friedrichsburg, of two sons of Mr. T. W. House, a merchant of Houston.
The young gentlemen are safe, as a letter from one of them announcing the fact has been received here.
The discontinuance of San Antonio as a Post, was hastened, but not occasioned by the recent disturbance of the colored soldiers.
The discontinuing of this City as a Post has no bearing on our position as Headquarters, or the management of the business of the Government. There will be simply no troops stationed here, that is all.
BERRY, BERRY, BERRY!—The Bourbon DemJohn Democrats, who are honest in their opposition to anything averring of hard work, and sinners in their conviction of the beneficial results of the free lunch system, are called on to continue their daily sessions on the shady side of Commerce street until the last vestige of radicalism shall be crushed out.
Sinner Tyranny, or what are you going to take, old fall!
MARMON'S trip to Mexico was made in the interest of the whole people. Let the Kickapoo kick up as much as he please, let the Mascareto kick in our local politics, let Marmon kick in our local politics, let Marmon kick in our local politics to catch the average Democrat. He keeps in a bottle and only lets a little of it out at a time.
WILSON COUNTY.—The grass is green and going to seed. So is the Democracy. The wood crop is all right, and it is predicted that at the next election the grand Conventions will go for wood and come back better. The cotton is not much damaged, but the local Democracy is suffering from the worm, all attempts to kill it with arsenic have failed, owing to the quality of the whiskey the boys have relied on. Cattle and hogs looking up—Democracy looking down—in the mouth—John Ireland and DemJohns.
They don't have the school teacher there to Heralds to them at the grocery, as they used to be, but are getting up a club for the editor of the Express.
MR. H. W. HOWARD, U. S. Commissioner, is engaged in examining persons accused of violating the revenue law by selling whiskey, and tobacco without having first taken out the necessary license. Our old friend, Judge Lee, from the Medina was up yesterday for keeping a barrel of "the stolen Sheen" on tap to refresh his hands, (that is, his tired hands) with, when they got tired working.
What's new in the country with-out getting into trouble about it.
Meeting is Believing.
If ladies who do not use the fragrant Sassafras will compare teeth with those who do, they will see in an instant, more reasons for adopting it, than can be composed into a newspaper paragraph.
Recorder's Court.—The Justice commenced in the various aggravating cases were squabbling in picturesque groups of two and three on the shady side of the street, or nervously themselves to the fiery ordeal of sitting on a jury this incident worthy by gladdening the seats of their stomachs with national cocktails at some Fritz's resort.
Mr. Shagg's case was called, he acting as his own attorney. After argument on both sides the jury retired and had not returned by the time we left.
Two gentlemen had a discussion on business in the National Bank. One patting the other on the back with the back of his hand in anger, withdrew from the other drew a slight draft on his nose in red ink. The other promised a receipt in full as soon as he felt better. Exchanges broke. A witness was put on the stand, striking down, while the beautiful blond clerk listened with weeping spectacles.

City Atty: "Did they seem willing to fight?"
Witness: "Yes they were more willing than able, but there was a third party present, who kept egging them on and doing all in his power to bring about a fuss, but I don't think he has been arrested yet."
On hearing this, four policemen broke frantically for the door, one without a hat tripped the man in front of him, spraining his ankle, while the rest continued their mad career in search of the third party, who had not yet been arrested.
The man with a sprained ankle was fined by the Recorder for attempting to incite a riot, and the case proceeded.
City Attorney: "What was that man's name, Mr. Witness?"
Witness: "He lives here in town, most of you gentlemen have been introduced to him. His name is John Barleycorn, a sound Democrat."
When we left 14 candidates for office were beseeching the Recorder to swear them in as special deputies to take him in custody.
INDIANA.—Letters from Fort Griffin of August 8th report continued and increased Indian hostilities.
A citizen named Dillard was attacked about 12 miles from the post while returning to his home in a wagon, with his little brother (a mere boy) by quite a large band of Indians. Dillard seeing that he could not save his team retreated with his little brother to the timber three or four hundred yards off. The Indians seemed more desirous of capturing the boy than of anything else, which enabled Dillard to make a desperate fight of it on reaching the timber. He killed two of their ponies under them, and from the signs since discovered, he evidently killed five of the Indians, thus saving his own life and preventing the capture of the boy.
Capt. Viels was following the trail. About the same time two cow boys are reported badly wounded in a fight with Indians on Hubbard's Creek, twenty-five miles from the Fort, near Camp Colorado. Also on the morning of the 8th a day light band of 40 or 50 Indians passed within a few hundred yards of the house of a Mr. Greer in the same locality, on the way to the settlements.
The entire available force at Fort Griffin was out in pursuit of the Indians.
These Indians are Comanches and Kiowas from the Reservations beyond the possibility of a doubt.
POLITICAL GOSPEL.—The news that there would be no election for hide-inspector caused a general depression in business circles during the past week. The barkeepers complain of a falling off, the peanut man now throws in four goobers on the five cents worth for pennies. It has been a sad blow to our growing town this having no election for hide inspector. It will increase the number of Democratic candidates for Governor about fifteen, and some of the would-be hide inspectors may in a fit of frenzy take to hard work instead of seeking office peacefully.
If the Attorney General were to announce that there would be no election for District Clerk, we tremble to think of the crisis that must ensue.
It has been suggested that the following "address to the voters of old Texas" would take well because of its novelty.
A CARD
Mexican Editors!
Attention!
"One who has grown up among you since he was left an orphan boy, a few years ago, having never been able to manage his own affairs, wishes an opportunity to see if he can do any better with those of the county. I have extraordinary claims on you. I am the only son of a poor but virtuous widow.
The condition of my pants excites the liveliest appreciation, and there is a closeness between my landlord and your humble servant on financial questions.
I have been highly recommended as a candidate for demagogue, but would prefer to direct the destinies and rough-hew a great and growing State like Texas, provided I should not be required to submit my name to a Democratic State Convention.
I voted for Grant at the last election.

City Atty: "Did they seem willing to fight?"
Witness: "Yes they were more willing than able, but there was a third party present, who kept egging them on and doing all in his power to bring about a fuss, but I don't think he has been arrested yet."
On hearing this, four policemen broke frantically for the door, one without a hat tripped the man in front of him, spraining his ankle, while the rest continued their mad career in search of the third party, who had not yet been arrested.
The man with a sprained ankle was fined by the Recorder for attempting to incite a riot, and the case proceeded.
City Attorney: "What was that man's name, Mr. Witness?"
Witness: "He lives here in town, most of you gentlemen have been introduced to him. His name is John Barleycorn, a sound Democrat."
When we left 14 candidates for office were beseeching the Recorder to swear them in as special deputies to take him in custody.
INDIANA.—Letters from Fort Griffin of August 8th report continued and increased Indian hostilities.
A citizen named Dillard was attacked about 12 miles from the post while returning to his home in a wagon, with his little brother (a mere boy) by quite a large band of Indians. Dillard seeing that he could not save his team retreated with his little brother to the timber three or four hundred yards off. The Indians seemed more desirous of capturing the boy than of anything else, which enabled Dillard to make a desperate fight of it on reaching the timber. He killed two of their ponies under them, and from the signs since discovered, he evidently killed five of the Indians, thus saving his own life and preventing the capture of the boy.
Capt. Viels was following the trail. About the same time two cow boys are reported badly wounded in a fight with Indians on Hubbard's Creek, twenty-five miles from the Fort, near Camp Colorado. Also on the morning of the 8th a day light band of 40 or 50 Indians passed within a few hundred yards of the house of a Mr. Greer in the same locality, on the way to the settlements.
The entire available force at Fort Griffin was out in pursuit of the Indians.
These Indians are Comanches and Kiowas from the Reservations beyond the possibility of a doubt.
POLITICAL GOSPEL.—The news that there would be no election for hide-inspector caused a general depression in business circles during the past week. The barkeepers complain of a falling off, the peanut man now throws in four goobers on the five cents worth for pennies. It has been a sad blow to our growing town this having no election for hide inspector. It will increase the number of Democratic candidates for Governor about fifteen, and some of the would-be hide inspectors may in a fit of frenzy take to hard work instead of seeking office peacefully.
If the Attorney General were to announce that there would be no election for District Clerk, we tremble to think of the crisis that must ensue.
It has been suggested that the following "address to the voters of old Texas" would take well because of its novelty.
A CARD
Mexican Editors!
Attention!
"One who has grown up among you since he was left an orphan boy, a few years ago, having never been able to manage his own affairs, wishes an opportunity to see if he can do any better with those of the county. I have extraordinary claims on you. I am the only son of a poor but virtuous widow.
The condition of my pants excites the liveliest appreciation, and there is a closeness between my landlord and your humble servant on financial questions.
I have been highly recommended as a candidate for demagogue, but would prefer to direct the destinies and rough-hew a great and growing State like Texas, provided I should not be required to submit my name to a Democratic State Convention.
I voted for Grant at the last election.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN JUBBERA
BLOOD PURIFIER
Is the most powerful cleanser, strengthening and restorer of Glandular Obstructions known to the Materia Medica.
It is especially adapted to constitutions "sore throated" and debilitated by the warm weather of Spring and Summer, consequently gathering impurities from sluggishness and imperfect action of the secretory organs, and is manifested by Tumors, Eruptions, Blisters, Boils, Pustules, Scrofula, &c.
When weary and languid from overwork, and dullness, drowsiness and anxiety take the place of energy and vigor, the system needs a tonic to build it up and help the Vital Forces to regain their regenerative power.
In the heat of Summer, frequently the Liver and Spleen do not properly discharge their functions; the Urinary and Urinary Organs are inactive, producing weakness of the stomach and intestines and predisposition to bilious derangement.

DR. WELLS'
Extract of Jurubeba is prepared directly from the SOUTH AMERICAN PLANT, and is peculiarly suited to all these difficulties; it will cleanse the VITiated BLOOD, Strengthen the LIFE-GIVING POWERS, and REMOVE ALL OBSTRUCTIONS FROM IMPAIRED AND ENFEEBLED Organs.
It should be freely taken, as Jurubeba is pronounced by medical writers the most efficient PURIFIER, TONIC and DEOBSTRUENT known in the whole range of medicinal plants.
