The Supreme Court.

Until the first of September, at least, our Austin exchanges will not abound any longer with accounts of the imprisonment of Judge Maney or his contempt of the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court has ad journed to the first of September, when it is expected that the members will be able to agree as to who is to be chief justice, and until then Judge Maney has been released on nis own recognizance.

There is a very nice point of law involved in the case of Judge Evans. Evans was chief justice up to the 14th of July last, when his term expired, he having drawn for the shorter term; and had his successor been appointed Judge Ogden would have been the chief justice. Evans resigned, delivering his valedictory. but as Gov. Davis was absent no ppointment was made, and Judge Evans came to the conclusion that his seat accordingly.

SAN ANTONIO was "under the gaslight" right before last for the first time since 1867. The whole city was illuminated not like Broad way, but presented a very creditable appearance, for a town so far out westparticularly on Commerce street, where The Largest and most Complete the light was bright enough to distinguish the inequalities in the pavement at some distance. There were several lamps between Commerce street bridge and the Menger, also on the Main Plaza. Many private residences and stores are lighted with gas, and it is presumable that nearly every body who can will have it. The Gas Co. will doubtless be a paying investment as its affairs are managed by some of our best business men, and the gentleman who has WE notice sporting men bringing in charge of the manufacture of the inminous plever. DR. C. F. BRAWN'S Young American Liniment.

THIS Liniment has gained a lasting reputation, where it has been used, in ost cases which require an external remedy, such as rheumatism, services and swelling of the breast, pain and weakness in the back and joints, sprains, bruise-cramps, numbress, frozen limbs, bites of insects, old sores, fever sores, goitre or swelled neck, paralysis, wounds, crysipelas, bites of reptiles, headache, white swellings, mange, poison, burns, all swellings, salt rheum, corns, warts, sore eyes, run rounds, &c. We daily hear of the most astonishing cures on animals by this excellent remedy, and hazard nothing in saying that there never has been its equaas a curative for horses. We assert posi-tively that it will cure any case of sweeny in existence; also splint, galls, sprains or in existence; also splint, galls, sprains or strains, bruises, scratches, wounds, big head, wind galls, sore eyes, swellings, sec; and has never failed to cure fistula, policil, ring-bone and spavin. When used in the beginning, strictly according to directions, and gives internally with the food, at its a harmless but certain remedy for worms. Do not fail to give it a trial; only 26 cents a bottle.

Horse Epidemic. This Liniment cured thousands of horses at the North during the prevalence of the horse dis-temper there. In such cases rub the neck and throat well every evening, and give a table speenful of it in the horse's food for two or three evenings.
