Trust to dreame, Bill!

I do! Foolish—still,
on mind that culvert—number eight!

I dreams the train was there,
Dusting it, too, I'll swear—

ere more'n twenty minutes late !

Right on the edge
Of that trussel bridge
I saw my little pet gal, little Jane!
She's the one that's dead;
But I saw her—her head,
And her blue eyes—just as plain as plain!

All of a sweat
I whistled brakes, yeu bet!
But she never smiled nor spoke!
She finated to me quick,
Kissed me on the cheek,
And variabed! Then I woke.

Say what you will, Drums have their meaning, Bill. Parduer, if I should go up, tell my wife God! the culvert—gene!
Jump, Bill! I'll hold on
To the brakes here!—Save your life!

Somebody call—ah, here's Bill!
Don't fret pardner—I had to go this way.
