At the last meeting of the mulities, who have the carrying of the proposition in hand, the German element was represented by Mr. Peter Schiner alone. PROBABLE MURDER AT CASTROVILLE .- A Frenchman by the name of Chassard was arrested in this city yesterday morning, charged with having murdered a butcher named Louis Werner with a spade at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of the day previous at Castroville. We have learned that the feeling against the alleged murderer was an great that he would have been lyncked if he had not fled immediately. As it was, his house was burned, and it was with considerable difficulty that his son was saved from the mob by being placel in jail.

The electimatances as alleged by the friends of the wounded man, who is suppesed to be dead by this time, are substantially as fullows; The County Court had ordered a read to be inid ont across the property of Chassard, an arrangement which he disapproved of very much, and to prevent persons passing, he had dug a ditch across the read several times. Louis Werner came along the road in his butcher wagon, and on arriving in front of the premises of Chassard, was halted by his on with a pietol. Werner reached back in his wagon to get his Winchester, when Chassard rushed on him and prushed his soull with fire blows of his spade. It is also stated that Chassard fired several shots at the father-in law of Werner, who was on horseback a short distance behind. We called on the prisoner in jail yester-day morning. He seems to be a man of about sixty years of age, apeaks English rather possity, Spanish still worse, but has s slight amattering of German. Hence it was very difficult to accertain what he re-ally said. He was very willing to soil sit he knew about the affair. His story differs very materially from the foregoing one. He avers that his life has been frequently threatened by Werner, and what he did was simply in self-defence.
