A sloping hill, a shaded bank, A sun midway ariou the sky, A lazy stream where cattle drink, A lazy stream or of the cooling shadows lie;
A dusty highway, gleaning white,
Bordered by notrimmed hedges green, A hum of happy insect life,
And fluttering wings of golden sheet

And on the sky the white clouds it Like slips becaused in tropic toos, With motionless and idle sails Unstirred by any passing breeze. And passing feet make echees loud Upon the foot word payenest where At morning swept the burrying crowd.

The feaves thing time upon the vine.
The flowers have closed their fragrant HARDWARE.

The flowers have closed their fragrecolls,
The morning seeks the housed wells;
No longer seeks the housed wells;
The river scarcely seems to glide,
So placid is the glassy stream;
Reflecting in its crystal deeps
The glory of the noontide beam.

Beneath the elm trees cooling shade The reaper seeks its mountide rest, Lulled sweetly by the twittering son Of birds above the unfledged nest; And here beneath this spreading beech My book lies open and unread, My soul is in the lotes land,

My senses on its blossoms fed. realize world three drawn eyes I hear its woises faint and far; My happy heart has flown away To live again the vanished hours. As one may live them in a dream.

Have set their seal spon my eyes, And on my inner ear there falls music from the upper skies : No sound to mar the awest repose No sight to break my happy rest, In perfect peacetulness I lie child upon its mother's breast.

The experiences of the last few years are calculated to engender a feeling of distrust as to the reliability of the prophets and wise man who have been dreaming reliability of the prophets and wise men who have been dreaming dreams and teeing visions ever since they predicted the triumph of secession. In fact, a large portion of the party have been taught by the 13th Legislature to dread a eratic victory. The working class and the poorer men of the country, generally, can no longer country, generally, can he longer shut their eyes to the fact, that the Democracy is not their friend. Last year, at this time, the children of the paor, as well as those of the sich, were given in the public schools equal opportunities to prepare for the race of life. It will be hard to canvince those who have not the means to send their children to ensive private schools that the Republican party and Gov. Davis between Republic and Johnson, the public enemies, as is asserted prients arging an amicable settlement, in the Democratic papers.

It will be quite as futile to attempt arguing with the capitalist or lumigrant, that the Democracy is exactly what the country needs, as long as the papers are crowded with accounts of juil deliveries and private assassinations.

The abolition of the public schools and the State Police are subjects which the democratic orators will and wounded two. not care to discuss in the coming campaign, for the simple reason that the people feel the need of them every day, while the tax collector continues to remind the tax payer hat although a democratic legislature has deprived him of his right has not diminished his taxes.

On the other hand while the 13th legislature was despoiling the poor man for the benefit of the rich, our Republican Governor with his veto, almost worn to the hilt was the only friend the people had.
