GEN. A. B. NORTON,
OF DALLAS COUNTY.

THERE WILL BE A REPUBLICAN MEETING at the Kress Building, on Main Street, at 8 o'clock, p.m., on the 24th inst., 1873, for the purpose of organizing a "Central Club," and for the dispatch of such other business as may be brought before the meeting.
All Republicans, and all who wish to identify themselves with the Republican party in the coming election, are cordially invited to attend.
The meeting will be opened, and we hope a general interest will be manifested by the members of this party in this movement.

A. J. LOOKWOOD,
Chairman Rep. Ex. Com. Bexar Co.

The undersigned hereby submits his name to the Citizens of Bexar County, and to the Republican Nominating Convention, as a Candidate for the Office of Sheriff: pledging himself to abide by the action of said Convention.

A. J. LOCKWOOD.

We are authorized to announce DANIEL BONNETT as a candidate for District Clerk, subject to the action of the Republicans Convention.

We are authorized to announce PEYTON SMYTHE, as a candidate for District Clerk, subject to the nomination of the Democratic Convention.

We are authorized to announce MORTIMER SLOCUM as a candidate for re-election for the office of Clerk of the District Court of Bexar County at the ensuing election, subject to the action of the Bexar County Convention.

EDITOR EXPRESS:
Please announce my name as a Candidate for the office of District Clerk of Bexar County, subject to the action of the Republican County Convention.

R. WULFING.

JOHN DOBBIN is a candidate before the people of Bexar County, for the office of Sheriff, at the next election.

We are authorized to announce M. KLOCKE, as a candidate for re-election for the office of Sheriff, subject to the approval of the Republican Convention.

We are authorized to announce H. MAC CORMACK as a Candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace, Proc. No. 1, Bexar County, subject to the action of the Republicans nominating convention.

We are authorized to announce J. H. FRENCH as a candidate for the office of District Clerk of Bexar County at the ensuing election.

We are authorized to announce LOUIS DUVAL, as a candidate for the office of District Clerk of Bexar Co. at the next election.

We are authorized to announce FRANK NEWTON, as a candidate for the office of District Clerk of Bexar Co. at the next election.

We are authorized to announce SAM. S. SMITH as a candidate for District Clerk at the coming election, subject to the action of the Democratic convention.

We are authorized to announce JAS. R. KELLY as a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace, Proc. No. 1, at the coming election, subject to the approval of the Democratic Convention.

TO THE VOTERS OF BEXAR CO.
Having been solicited by a large number of voters, irrespective of party, I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Clerk of the District Court at the ensuing election, subject to the will of the people, on the understanding that the same will be held on the ballot box.

JNO. HORNEMEIER,

San Antonio, Aug. 26, 1873.

Executive Message of Gov. Davis.

This is the title of a document, recently published by that stout-hearted Republican journal, the "Austin Journal." Fasta are stubborn things, and exceedingly powerful in carrying conviction to the unprejudiced mind. As far as the mere entertainment and amusement of the crowd is concerned, spicy personalities and smart sayings of the stamp-speaker may be more effective—but with coarse, thinking men, nothing can surpass in interest and instructiveness the above mentioned array of well-authenticated facts. It appears that Gov. Davis has been in all, even the most trying cases, the true and unwavering friend of the people, that again and again he had to plod, and did plod himself, between the deepest rights and property of the people, and the greed and rapacity of demagogues.

We consider it a sacred duty of every good Republican, yea, of every decent, honorable man, to do everything in his power, to place this "Record" fairly before the people, that they may be enabled to render a verdict, in accordance to the facts in the case, and not—as is, unfortunately, so often the case—under the intoxicating influence of flash stamp-elegance. Listen to the "Journal."

TO THE VOTERS OF TEXAS.

It is fit that you should know what has been attempted to be done at Austin in the way of subsidies and extravagant donations. Also that you should know who saved you and the State.

When called upon by office-seekers and speculators, to condemn Gov. Davis by your votes, you should understand how he has attended to your interests and what he has saved you from.

To make this apparent, we have clipped from the records the following proofs. We ask you to read them, and see that justice is done.

The giant intellects, patriotic purposes, and bold and fearless men nominated at the latter, will convince Davis and the Radical party of Texas, that the Mercury was right when it assured them that the Republican party disowned them, and that no man who loved his State, and believed in the great and undying precepts for which Washington fought and Madison struggled, would sustain Davis.

Bryan Appeal.

Now then, there is a genuine article of grandiloquence and luxuriant nonsense. The fact that such stuff finds readers, even admirers, speaks volumes. Who is the "Appeal" appealing to?—undoubtedly to that class of men who have been so deliciously depicted by the immortal Nasby. "Giant intellects" is good, take J. J. Gross of New Braunfels, for instance; "patriotic purposes" is good—as a splendid cloak, not worn out; but better than good is the nicely adjusted logic existing between "giant intellects"—Davis' convictions, for instance; "patriotic purposes" is good, take J. POLITICAL NEWS. — The rat with the shortest tail will get into the hole first.

NIGHT before last the three prisoners in the Castroville jail made their escape by boring through the door with an auger.

A COMMERCIAL gentleman of great experience assures us that railroads are poor things—if you haven't got them.

WHILE rushing through a crowd the other day we nodded familiarly, and an old broken nose ten cents rose 15 cents instantaneously. We wanted only wanted we might have been knocked down with it.

A SAD SIGHT.—We saw yesterday a woman with three little children in jail, talking to her manacled husband, who was convicted of horse stealing. Before the interview closed she took out her purse and gave him all the money she had.

ARMY ITEMS. — Lieut. Sixton of the 24th Infantry is town en route to Ringgold Barracks.

Capt. Kellogg of the 10th Infantry is town en route to Ft. Clark.

Paymaster Gies, has just returned from paying off the troops at the different posts.

THE merchants complain with profuse fluency of the quarantine, and seem to think that it will not be raised until the Galvestonians want fresh groceries. One of large capital and fine business capacity assures us that he would be ding dangled if he shipped his goods by flat boats in the future.

HYDROPHOBES. — The doctors in attendance on S. White, policeman, declare that he has the genuine hydrophobia. It will be remembered that White was bitten in the hand by a mad dog two months ago. The rabid animal bit about 30 dogs at the time.

We visited the patient yesterday. He was sensible, but evidently in great pain. He complained of pain in his throat and side, and had an aversion to water. He was first taken at 10 P. M. of the evening previous.

The City Council has acted promptly in destroying all useless dogs, and we call attention to the notice, as it will be rigidly enforced.

THE treatment of the Germans of this county have received at the hands of the Democracy reminds us of a little negro minstrelsy.

Let darkness fall, it seems to us you isn't paying your devours to Miss Melody as much as you did previous.

2nd Darkey—No sir, I've done jilted dat scatious person.

1st Darkey—How did it happen dan.

2nd Darkey—Well, you see, I went da one moonlit abe to make a call, and nobody said anfus. Presently, Miss Melody say: "Sam, do ders?" So I got up and shot da dore. Den she say: "Sam, do dore!" So I got up and opened da dore. Den da old man got up and kicked me plum through da door into the middle of da street, and Melody bled, da dog on me, so I took Melody and left him in da dust.

We happened to drop into a Democratic ward meeting last Saturday evening, at one thing will bring up another, fan smotic, for instance) the Darkeys decided to us.

A six foot German, who was addressing the chair, his face expressive of all the energy and indomitable, which the name of Germans are capable of assuming.

"Don't I always was a Democratic f— Don't I vote for you for Greeley? Don't I have a honest Democrat as any under man I had ever all along, and been not registered? Don't I?"

Then he withdrew from the congregation of the angels, and accompanied us to a taylor shop, where we found a moment before destroying the bold and said to an elderly gentleman, who was smoking a lame cigar.

"Hehicks, you know vat I tinks?"

"Nah, I don't."

"Wall, I tinks de Democritie is a ver dangler fellerid."

The man started up as if stung by a serpent. "We took out our note book. Said he is a ver' voice of suppressed rage. "What for you dell me dose dings vat I know all de times?"

"Waiter, please let us have our grace lager."

THREE single gentlemen desire to obtain a house containing at least three bed rooms and a parlor. Address Lock Box No. 83. 18-dif.

HANDWRITING. — It is said that the signature of Caleb Cushing, the great lawyer, looks like a small gridiron struck by lightning, but we opine that his writing is copperplate compared to the manuscript of some of our legal gentlemen. We make this preference, remarks to mitigate the affliction which the printers have caused us and Col. Newton in his address to the Republicans of this District. We will not call attention to the sickening details, or caprice climax of absurdity by going over them again; but if the Col. had been alive in the time of Belshazzar, we could make a guess at the name of the gentleman whose handwriting on the wall nearly scared that frolicksome tycoon out of his wits.

The intelligent compositor that set up the address has had his friends setting up with him ever since, and applying ice to his head.

The treatment of the Germans of this county have received at the hands of the Democracy reminds us of a little negro minstrelsy.

Let darkness fall, it seems to us you isn't paying your devours to Miss Melody as much as you did previous.

2nd Darkey—No sir, I've done jilted dat

scatious person.

1st Darkey—How did it happen dan.

2nd Darkey—Well, you see, I went da one moonlit abe to make a call, and nobody said anfus. Presently, Miss Melody say: "Sam, do ders?" So I got up and shot da dore. Den she say: "Sam, do dore!" So I got up and opened da dore. Den da old man got up and kicked me plum through da door into the middle of da street, and Melody bled, da dog on me, so I took Melody and left him in da dust.

We happened to drop into a Democratic ward meeting last Saturday evening, at one thing will bring up another, fan smotic, for instance) the Darkeys decided to us.

A six foot German, who was addressing the chair, his face expressive of all the energy and indomitable, which the name of Germans are capable of assuming.

"Don't I always was a Democratic f— Don't I vote for you for Greeley? Don't I have a honest Democrat as any under man I had ever all along, and been not registered? Don't I?"

Then he withdrew from the congregation of the angels, and accompanied us to a taylor shop, where we found a moment before destroying the bold and said to an elderly gentleman, who was smoking a lame cigar.

"Hehicks, you know vat I tinks?"

"Nah, I don't."

"Wall, I tinks de Democritie is a ver dangler fellerid."

The man started up as if stung by a serpent. "We took out our note book. Said he is a ver' voice of suppressed rage. "What for you dell me dose dings vat I know all de times?"

"Waiter, please let us have our grace lager."
