ablicans of the 2nd Ward are notified that the primary meeting for the election of Delegates to the County Convertion, will be held so Saturday, Out. Lish 1886, at I s'clock F. M. at the school house of G. O. Mayor, Q. Q. Mayon,

Editor San Antonio Express :

It is true, many well founded obwere raised against the then existing school system. A generally Chm'n Ex. Com. 29th satisfactory system must necessarily be the growth of many years; is that they acted as missionaries of the people must have time to see their own way and by prolonged experience learn to adopt ways and means for the attalament of their own true welfare. It would perhaps, not be said too much, when we assert that in Texas a sound educational sentiment has to be created. before anything like a thorough success in this direction can be reasonably looked for. The Republicans attempted much, perhaps too much in introducing the people's school, mistakes were undoubtedly made, but withal, they have accom plished much. They have set the ball in motiva and no combination within the limits of this State will be strong enough to stop it. You may imagine to have done so, your immediate tools and noisy campfollowers may tell you so, but, let me tell you! the people simply con. sider it a vile betraval of theirdearest interests.

> All well meaning men agreed upon the desirability and immediate practicability of reform in matters of public schools Gov. Davis pointed out to the Legislature all the details of reform, that seemed desirable in the light of two year's experience. But all his pleadings in favor of the people's cause, were cornfully set aside; nothing would do, but a radical everthrow. This, gentlemen, is a kind of radicalism the common people cordially de-

the existence of this State, such a amprehensive, compact and reckess opposition to any Republican measure, than the Democratic onslaught against the free school. The last vestige of truthfulness and honer was thrown overboard by the entire democratic press of Texas. all for the noble purpose of overthrowing this terrible school at the people. They were right in their way, popular education is the death | person. These valuables are new in pasknell of southern democracy; they knew it, and you democratic leaders of the Austin Convention know it.

I repeat, that I do not for a monent deny the urgency of immediate reforms, but I protest, in the name of the people, against your revolutionary course. And what reasons (f) do you assign, in justification of your action ? Let us see!

You "congratulate the people of Texas on the repeal of oppressive, odious and unconstitutional acts, passed in pursuance of the radical policy etc." Prominent among them is "The act relating to public free schools, which, among many other had features, provided the means sentive Committee have embediased to had features, provided the means ermine the ratio of representation and of enabling public officials to specuand furniture of school houses, in the salaries of teachers, and fur nished high salaries for a large and useless number of officers, which gave the Radical party the means to pay their political missionaries a collision at Grafton. who traveled for radical purposes and trauds, from one end of the State to the other."

"Among other bad features!"

The worst among all its features is the fact, that it peremptoriously demanded a real education for the common people, that is the head and front of the whole crime. All the other charges, are mere subterfuges! Has not the 13th Legisla ture worked hard and long to ruin Supt. De Gress, by concentrating their implacable vengeance upon him! And the result! Absolute

An far as liftreatment of tenchers is concerned, you yourselves are the only guilty parties. You are the very ones that ayetematically and shamelessly urged the impeople throughout the entire length and breadth of the State to refuse the payment of the school tax. You are the very ones, that greedily grasped almost all the money that happened to reach the State Treas ury, and coolly and chucklingly appropiated it to yourselves, to glad den your own truly democratic hearts. In there a man la this wide State that can deny the truth or these sharges ! It there is, I do not have him to

BISMARCK'S LLEGED

WHAT HE SAYS ABOUT A SENSATIONAL STORY.

Some weeks age the New York World published a letter from a foreign correspondent, which described an alleged inserview with Prince Bismark. The Prince was made to confess that he was an athe at at heart, but for politic reasons ostenaibly waged war only on the Church of Rome, hoping, however, in due time, to destroy all religion. The story appeared incredible. If Bismark way playing the hypecrite toward his sovereign and countrymen, it seemed hardly likely that he would unbosom himself in an interview. We were not surprised, therefore, on finding the story contradicted in our cable dispatches. Dr. Bendan, formerly a professor in the New York University, anxious te know the truth in the matter, wrote to Bismarck on the matter, and received a told on my account that I am not astonished at this barefaced invention. I do not know if there are people stupid enough to believe such things; but one thing is certain-I never had with anyone a conversation of an import similar to that to which you refer There can consequently not even be a mi-understanding alleged as w pretext for that falsehood (lage-lie.) But it strikes me that the phrase "to eruch Rome in order to crush Christianity," very plainly shows the source and purpose of that calumny. That my convictions and my belief are the opposite of what that many doubts, and also in America people will say that if one were so God formaker (Gottverlassed) as to think so, he would hardly be fool anough thus to talk.

On Saturday morning the body of white min was found near Stone's old forry. His clothes were broadcloth, and we are informed that a wold watch and considerable money were found upon his ession of the anthorities. There were no papers on the body to lead to identification. His name we understand, had been written in pencil on a pecket book, but We trust that the body may be identified. This unfortunate man was, doubtless, another victim of the late rise of the river. -Austin Gazette.
