

SAN ANTONIO DAILY EXPRESS. Official Organ of the United States. Terms of subscription: Cash, 12 months $10.00, 6 months $5.00, 3 months $2.50. Advertising: 1000 per square of eight lines. Changeable, notices not for advance on usual rates.

San Antonio Daily Express.

WEEKLY EXPRESS. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Cash, 12 months $10.00, 6 months $5.00, 3 months $2.50. Advertising: 1000 per square of eight lines. Changeable, notices not for advance on usual rates.

VOL. VII.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1873.

NO. 242.

DRY GOODS.
Now Goods! New Goods!
LOUIS BERNARD,
No. 38, Commerce Str.
LATE FRANCHISE STORE.
DEALER IN
DRY GOODS,
CLOTHING,
HATS, NOTIONS, FURNISHING GOODS,
etc. etc.

Anticipating an early fall and winter trade, our new stock is beginning to arrive, and we offer them to the public at the lowest prices possible. Orders from the country solicited, which will be filled with care and full satisfaction guaranteed. Give us a call. No trouble to show Goods.

GROCERIES.
F. GROSS & CO.,
Wholesale Liquor Dealers,
GROCCERS

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
6-12-71812

RHODIUS & CO.
Wholesale and Retail Dealers in
Sole and Fancy Groceries

COMMISSION HOUSE
L. WOLFSON
215 ALBERT STREET

Auctioneering of Real Estate, Clothing, Furniture, etc. Liberal advance made on consignment. Goods at private sale, Auction Prices 5-4-71812

BRUNOLD BECKER,
SUCCESSION OF
PH. CONRAD & CO.,
Opposite the National Bank.
Dealer in all kinds of

FURNITURE,
PARLOR AND
BED ROOM
FURNITURE
Consisting of Sofas, Chairs, Tables, etc.

NEW PAINT-SHOP
I have opened a new paint-shop in the lot street near the Mill crossing, and sell at the patronage of my friends and the public at large. (Sign painting, printing of signs, etc. done in the best style.)
CHAS. SCHLIER.

Edmond & Mendenhall,
DEALERS IN
Guns, Rifles, Pistols, Ammunition
AND
SPORTING ARTICLES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

GROCCERIES.
F. GUILBEAU
Has Just Received:
200 Bbls. Crushed Sugar.
100 " St. Louis Flour,
Green & Black Tea,
Rice & Java Coffee,
12 Boxes Condensed Milk,
3 Cask Bacon, Clear sides,
10 Crates wrapping paper

ALSO
A variety of
Roofing Tin 1 X 3 X 20
1 X 4 X 10
1 X 4 X 10
Solder,
Sheet-Iron,
WIRE,
An assortment of
HAYANA-SEGARS

FOR SALE
The large and lot on Commerce Street, known as the Kieppert Ho. No. 218
J. P. SCHLIER

TH. SCHLEUNING
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
IMPORTER OF
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

DEALER IN
GROCERIES, WINES, LIQUORS,
TOBACCO, COGNAC,
CIGARS, etc.

MEDICAL.
DR. A. ANSELL,
Physician, Surgeon & Accoucher,
Office Hours: 7 to 9 A.M.; 2 to 4 P.M.
Office, opposite that of Mr. Narciso Lora and at Miller's Drug Store.
POLK ST. ST. ANTONIO, TEXAS.
25-71812

F. HASENBURG, M. D.,
FURNITURE, DRAPERY AND COUNTERTEILS
Residence and office, Levey's street, oppo- site the ice factory. Office hours,
From 7 to 9 o'clock, A.M.
From 10 to 11 o'clock, P.M.
At A. Nettie's Drug Store
4-3-71812

AT HOME:
From 7 to 9 o'clock, A.M.
From 10 to 11 o'clock, P.M.
At A. Nettie's Drug Store
4-3-71812

MEDICINES.
A. NETTIE
APOTHECARY
ELIAS HANCOCK
Has just received a large stock of
SERRAVALLO'S
SERRAVALLO'S
SERRAVALLO'S
SERRAVALLO'S

First Class Drug Store
The south being closed, by himself in this market.
Mendenhall & Mendenhall

MISCELLANEOUS.
MAVERICK & KROEGER,
DEALERS IN

LUMBER
OF ALL KINDS.
Building Material,
BUILDERS AND BUILDING
HARDWARE.

Paints, Oils, Window-glass and Putty.
Agents of Bagdad Wash Factory

OUR stock of doors, sash and blinds is well assorted, and of superior quality, and entirely on commission at

FACTORY PRICES.
Solicit orders for factory work, such as cast-iron, steel, and galvanized pipes, and other articles, at low prices.
(2-3-71812)

LEBOUX & COSGROVE,
No. 54 & 56, Commerce-st.,
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.
DIRECT IMPORTERS & DEALERS IN
HARDWARE
CUTLERY,
CASTINGS,
WOODEN WARE
and
AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS

ROBINSON RIFLES,
REMINTON
German Study or Office-Lamp

WINDOW GLASS,
PAINTS AND OILS,
OILS, VARNISHES, &c.,
Washing Machines,
IRONING MANGLES,
WRINGERS,
Submarine Force and Clifton
Pumps.

THE BEST ASSORTMENT OF COOKING STOVES
Including the celebrated
COTTON-PLANT
SUNNYSOUTH,
Manufacturers of
TIN, COPPER, IRON AND BRASS
AND DEALERS IN ALL DESCRIPTIONS OF TIN WARE
Consistently on hand a large stock of Tinners & Furnishing Goods,
WIRE, SHEET IRON,
KING, BLACK TIN,
Also, a well assorted lot of
Table, Kettle Bracket and Hang- ing LAMPS
With the latest improved Stoves and Chimneys
FRANK AYRES and SONS-ON REPAIRING
SINKS
SINKS
SINKS
SINKS

German Study or Office-Lamp

Always on hand, a well assorted lot of

THE TRIAL OF THE INDIAN CHIEF
in the first place by the State courts was a mistake; immediately upon their conviction the Governor was appealed to from Washington to relieve them. He did so in the hope some good might be obtained for the frontier; he was also induced to do this by appeals from the northwestern frontier—the people fearing a general Indian war if the Indians were executed. No sooner had the Governor extended executive mercy than an attempt was made on the part of the Quaker agents to compromise him and secure the almost unconditional release of the chiefs. In fact promises were made to the Indian tribes to that effect. The Governor refused to release the chief unless he could secure some advantageous terms.

It is the duty of the Federal Government to give complete protection to the frontier, and if it will know that there has been a disposition to treat the frontier troubles lightly, and to disregard the reports of outrage, a Governor Davis has fastened upon the Fort Sill-Indians the responsibility of the raids upon the frontier, and has placed the Federal Government in the attitude of complete responsibility. The frontier people must look to the Federal Government for protection and restoration of their property. The State Government is not able to bear the tax of keeping up a large frontier force, and the responsibility is placed just where it belongs by the Fort Sill treaty.

Had the Governor refused to release the Indian chiefs upon any terms whatever, and a general Indian war ensued, he would have been blamed for it, he has acted bravely and consistently and with the sole purpose of benefiting the frontier.

The captive returned, alive, will be a noble contribution for the relief of the Indian, by any nation of his country, by which a treaty will be made, and by this treaty the entire Indian population may be freed from the bondage of the white man, without the least interference of his former influence. The act for which the Southern Statesman and the rest that were industrious in slandering the credit of the State and preventing the sale of the frontier lands to pay the wages called out by Gov. Davis. The people of the frontier are beginning to find out their friends and will not be likely to pay attention to the misrepresentation of their enemies. The fruits of the Fort Sill treaty will soon be apparent to the advantage of the frontier.—State Journal.

Special Dispatch to Denison Journal.
RESULT OF THE INDIAN CONFERENCE.
RELEASE OF SANTIAGO AND BIG TREE.
The following was received after going to press:
CADDIS, I. T. Oct. 10, 1873.
The Indian conference was held at Fort Sill on Monday, the Kiowas and other tribes were present, but only a part of the Comanches. The Governor having refused to release Santiago and Big Tree, Commissioner Smith on Tuesday presented him a written appeal of the part of the United States Government to release them and save the faith of the Gov't which it says had been pledged to that effect. The commissioner pledged the faith of the United States government that it would gather all these Indians together, and place them under close surveillance, would arrest the Comanches, recently raiding in Texas, and turn them over to the state government, establish a cord of posts along the frontier, would rearrest Santiago and Big Tree if Kiowas misbehaved, or fell other principal Kiowas in their place, collect and return property and captives and that United States troops would immediately be put in motion to effect these purposes. On these guarantees, the governor permitted Indians to go to their tribes without pardon and subject to rearrest.
J. J. S.
The above dispatch is a reliable statement of the result of the Fort Sill conference. The guarantees secured by the Governor are all that could be asked for. The responsibility is now at the door of the U. S. Government.

The Democratic press, in strict keeping with its hostility of the Federal Government, will raise a howl all over the State, and assert that the treaty amounts to nothing, and that the rearrest of Santiago and Big Tree is all moonshine. To understand the situation perfectly, we must consider that the Federal Government has established a reservation, Fort Sill being the central point; that the Indians draw their supplies of food in clothing from the Government, and that at any moment the military commander could capture and hold as hostages a portion of the tribes. That a failure to comply with the terms made with Governor Davis will compel the military commander to enforce them by the most stringent measures. General Davidson, the commander at Fort Sill, is in full sympathy with our frontier, and a most efficient officer. The Government will immediately put troops in motion to carry into force the restoration of all property and captives, and to prevent any raids from the reservation.

The trial of the Indian chief, in the first place by the State courts was a mistake; immediately upon their conviction the Governor was appealed to from Washington to relieve them. He did so in the hope some good might be obtained for the frontier; he was also induced to do this by appeals from the northwestern frontier—the people fearing a general Indian war if the Indians were executed. No sooner had the Governor extended executive mercy than an attempt was made on the part of the Quaker agents to compromise him and secure the almost unconditional release of the chiefs. In fact promises were made to the Indian tribes to that effect. The Governor refused to release the chief unless he could secure some advantageous terms.

It is the duty of the Federal Government to give complete protection to the frontier, and if it will know that there has been a disposition to treat the frontier troubles lightly, and to disregard the reports of outrage, a Governor Davis has fastened upon the Fort Sill-Indians the responsibility of the raids upon the frontier, and has placed the Federal Government in the attitude of complete responsibility. The frontier people must look to the Federal Government for protection and restoration of their property. The State Government is not able to bear the tax of keeping up a large frontier force, and the responsibility is placed just where it belongs by the Fort Sill treaty.

Had the Governor refused to release the Indian chiefs upon any terms whatever, and a general Indian war ensued, he would have been blamed for it, he has acted bravely and consistently and with the sole purpose of benefiting the frontier.

The captive returned, alive, will be a noble contribution for the relief of the Indian, by any nation of his country, by which a treaty will be made, and by this treaty the entire Indian population may be freed from the bondage of the white man, without the least interference of his former influence. The act for which the Southern Statesman and the rest that were industrious in slandering the credit of the State and preventing the sale of the frontier lands to pay the wages called out by Gov. Davis. The people of the frontier are beginning to find out their friends and will not be likely to pay attention to the misrepresentation of their enemies. The fruits of the Fort Sill treaty will soon be apparent to the advantage of the frontier.—State Journal.

MIAMI College and the State University of Ohio are closed for want of funds, notwithstanding State subsidies. The State having subsidized the colleges would have money.

Bemus always believed the proverb that "Time is money," until he went to buy goods on time, and found that the salesmen would have money.

Perhaps nothing enjoys a more vigorous old age than hem. It really seems as if the older they are the tougher they grow.

The idea of introducing horse races at agricultural shows is sometimes denounced, but principally by those who forget that a horse race is a agricultural affair.

They have an independent candidate for the Senate, in the Harris and Montgomery District, by the name of Harris. From very independent they should be left entirely to themselves. They will occupy a purely independent position.

The quarrels that have been removed from Corpus Christi, and a revival of trade is anticipated.

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

MIAMI College and the State University of Ohio are closed for want of funds, notwithstanding State subsidies. The State having subsidized the colleges would have money.

Bemus always believed the proverb that "Time is money," until he went to buy goods on time, and found that the salesmen would have money.

Perhaps nothing enjoys a more vigorous old age than hem. It really seems as if the older they are the tougher they grow.

The idea of introducing horse races at agricultural shows is sometimes denounced, but principally by those who forget that a horse race is a agricultural affair.

They have an independent candidate for the Senate, in the Harris and Montgomery District, by the name of Harris. From very independent they should be left entirely to themselves. They will occupy a purely independent position.

The quarrels that have been removed from Corpus Christi, and a revival of trade is anticipated.

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the played-out, fossilized Bonbons of that section. Only this week, for instance, a Southern paper in the "Old Dominion" refers to him as follows: "The latter proved his devotion to his race by the sacrifice of his best years in the Southern cause, and of two noble sons in the battle-field."

Ever since John Mitchell at the beginning of the late war proved recreant to the cause of true Democracy and Republicanism at the North and allied himself with the pro-slavery party he has been one of the idols of the

