ESTRAY NOTICE.

PROCLAMATION-By the Governor of the State of Texas.

To all-to whom these presents shall come : WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of Texas by a joint resolution passed June 4th, 1873, has proposed certain amendments to the Constitution of said State, which joint resolution reads as follows.

via:
Joint resolution proposing amendments to section twenty of article one, Bill of Rights, to section two, section three and section four of article five, section twenty-eight, section forty and to section fortyeight of article twelve of general pro-visions of the Constitution of the State of Texas.

SECTION 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas. That section twenty of article one, Bill of Rights of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be so amended as to hereafter read as follows

8gc. 20. No power of suspending laws in the State shall be exercised, except by the Legislature.

Has just received a fresh supply of the SEC. 9. That section 2, section 3 and section 4 of article 5 of the said Constitu-tion, be so amounted as to bereafter read following articles, to which he invites the as follows, to wit: Section 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of one Chief Justice and four Associate Justices, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum. They shall be appointed by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Sonate, for a term of nine years, All vacancies shall be filled for the udexpired term. If a vacancy shall eccur, or a term shall expire when the Senate is not in session, the Governor shall fill the same by appoint-ment, which shall be sent to the Senate. within ten days after that budy shall as-semble, and if not confirmed the office shall immediately become vacant.

The Supreine Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only, which in civil jurisdiction only, which in civil causes, shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State. Appeals from interfocutory judgments may be allowed with such axceptions and under such regulations as the Legislature may prescribe. The Raprema Court and the judges thereof, shall have power to issue the writ of habeas corpus, and under such regulations as may be preception by law may have the writ of and under son regulations as may be pre-scribed by law, may issue the writ of mandamus and such other writs as may be necessary to enforce its own jurisdic-tion. The Supreme Court shall also have hower to assertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction.

SEC. 4. The Supreme Court shall held its session at the Capital, and two other

SEC. 3. That section twenty-eight, section forty and section forty-eigh of article twelve of general provisions of the mid constitution, be so amended as to hereafter read as follows: to wit. Suc. 18. In each read as follows: to wit. Suc. W. In such and every organized county in the State, there shall be an assessor and collector of taxes, elected by the people at the next ensming general election and every four years thereafter, who shall assess the property and collect the taxes so assessed in coformity to such laws as now exist, or may be enacted hereafter by the Legislature, relative to the assessment and collection of taxes. tion of taxes.

SEC. 40. The Legislature shall not pass local or apecial laws in any of the following cumerated cases, that is to say for locating or changing county seats; regulating the practice in Courts of Justices of the Peace and constables; providing for changes of venue lu civil and criminal courts; incorporating cities or GROCERIES.
