No spring or summer's beauty hath such As I have seen in one autumnal face.

> Cau you tell me, Evile.
> What doth make me love you so ? It is youth ! Oh! that is gone. Is it beauty ? that has flown.

Then, pri'thee, tell me, Evile, Why it is I love you so. Spring-I leve her violete blue,

And Summer, with her roses, too, Flushing in the merning's dew. But, of all the seasons four, Autumn touches my heart's core, With her garnerned golden store.

Best, I love her pensive face, Best, I love her ripe embrace, Glowing in her mellow grace, Which no painter's art can trace.

On her bosom let me lie, ... In the south winds melody, 'Neath Odtober's purple ally.
Where the gorgoods maples eigh
Spring and Summer's luliaby,
And with Autumn live and die!

Now you know, dear Evile, What doth make me love you so.

Gov. Davis and the Guzette.

The State Gazette, alarmed at the ocess of Gov. Davis, and anxions to divert attention from the serious and damaging charges against Coke, makes an onslaught on the Governor for what it calls his bitterness against secession. The truth is, the Governor has not argued upon any such dead issue as secession, and so is everybody else, except the editor of the Gazette, Coke, and a few old tossils like them. But Gov. Davis is justly severe upon those self-constituted leaders who deposed Gov. Houston, silenced or droye out the greatest dragooned the people, the majority of whom were for the Union, into spiracy. And he is also severe upon Coke who still secretly sup ports the old eccession heresy, and tries to covertly beguile the people to stultify themselves into his sup-

But the Gazette is only trying to save Coke from the indignation of the people for supporting the party that goes against public schools and immigration, that destroyed the credit of the State, that sought to pass the infamous landlord and tenant bill, that tried to put gamblers and aportunes in the penitento an enormous extent, and it is especially alternal at the established charge that Coke got his nomi. nation by a corrupt combination with the international Railroad ring lawyore, But murder will out, -- State

TAXES.

It must have occurred to every reading man that Democratic organs and stumpers do not elaborate to any distressing extent on the tax question. There seems to a willingness, we might almost say, a longing that the people should not investigate the reduction of taxes by the 13th Legislature, and this natu ral desire for darkness on such an important question is at the bottom of the insane raving at Gov. Davis and the wholesome measures which he inaugurated. At previous elections the Democratic demagognes used to roll "taxes, taxes" as a sweet morsel under their tongues, chop fallen in fact. They did not think it necessary to tell the simple truth about the taxes, but, then, what are we saying!-when did they ever tell the truth about their political opponents ! But "the case is altered now," and no one wonders that there is such a dead silence on the subject.

In this particular as in all others, the 13th Legislature failed to keep its promises. The taxes have been increased instead of diminished, and they have been increased in such a manner that the increased burden fulls on the hard fisted far. mer, and on the industrious mechange. As usual, the Democracy undertakes to growd ont the poor. man while the burden is lifted from the shoulders of the rich landmocracy is to make this country resemble as much as possible a European monarchy, when the work ed in order that bloated aristocrats may revel at their expense.

Heretofore the tools of the mechanie, agricultural implements and convenience were exempt from all taxation But it was reserved for country. Every piece of faraiture several places where the "appliance" didn't ST. LOUIS LAGER BEER is taxed, and the shirt on a man's Corne in. 'Eagle Orstor' descented on the back is taxed. Where do we find suspension of the writ of habeas corpus by this, in any other state or country the Federal Congress during the war, for-able to pay the tax is not only line ask for it. He defended the mountrosities ble to have his took neized and sold of the Thirteenth Legislature; the demolbut even the homestend in which dise of the public schools; the destruction he lives. According to the law pas-Sed by the 12th Legislature, the tax on real estate was levied in public domain; said Gov. Davis had been specife and paid in currency, one the honored faster shild of the Demogratic half of one per centum. Now, the party, and was now specing at the "an 13th Legislature has decreed that clent" principles of the Democratic party the valuation of the property shall the matter, too ancient by (ar.) be made at currency rates and payable in currency. On a piece of property worth $10000 the increase which he called "the fresh record of the would amount to $55.

This is reducing taxes with a ven geance. It means simply $60000 extra taxes on the tax payers of the chised by the hated Radicals, but the State. The temperance gentlemen Democrat is intended to roll up a majority of the 13th Legislature had a that would make Covar Grant tremble on special spite at the keepers of bar and strutted and trembled as though be rooms. Hence the state tax was had seen a ghost much to the mansemen increased from $150 to $200, and as of the Irish present, who always have the county has the right to levy a keen sense of the ridiculous. Next he as tax half as heavy as the state tax. all bar-keepers are under special obligations to the "Refrom Democra- freedom to weeship as they pleased, and cy," to the extent of $75 annually, warned them that the bated Radical extra.

All this goes to show that one object of the increased taxation is to crowd the poor man. His land is taxed higher than it was under Regubligan government, 20th very fact that it is cultivated makes the tax ou it disproportionately heavy. Besides taxing his agricultural im pliments, they even descend to put dag on extra tax on the glass of beer, he drinks or the gallon of whiskey he takes home with him. bes of many votes per these and a thousand office reasons received from Vicina i of the most attractive features in a Lamonne my the Democracy and up with the exhibition, is the collection of Fairbanks an of that Ward, I anneance my. good reasans, we say, "Down with an of the Democracy and up with the

He always does that, and Thursday night "Richard was himself again." During the day Dick was the guest and companion of Major Tom Ochiltree, and it is thought by many of their frequent potations at the "Two Brothers," had much to do with the enlo gy of the lamented W. B. Ochiltres in the coarse of Dick's speech in the evening About 75 men with torches, headed by the but now they are quite silent, rather Quiceston Cadet Band (solored) playing the tune of "Maid with golden hair," marched to Turner Hall, under the commadd of the Hon. Dan Morton, Esq. The recession was preceded by two patriots, one with a banner on which was inscribed Young Men's Democratic Club," the other bore a Chinese lanters fashioned in the likeness of wkingly crown. This patriot on entaring the Hall grasped his banner after the style of a drum-major would his atos-and lightly sprang upon the stage and struck a position in the center very like the Goddess of liberty. Amid the blace of trumpets the champion of the lost egues made his appearance, escorted by narrow Street and the elongated Allen, and some others whose names we missed -and taking the stand, after a lame intro distion, began to speak his piece.

He thought the honor of the reception was due mainly to the party he represented, and not to himself-(sre have heard thut hefure) ,He had been in the habit of appaking to the great masses of the people in Northern Texas, when they rolled up slarks.
