I hope will prove a precedent for future action which witt be very serviceable; and I therefore respectfully request that you will receive the services of such men as may be offered as scouts, and under the command of a suitable officer send a force to capture the raiders now in Texas, supposed to be on a branch of the Brazos. west of Fort Griffin. I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

ED. P. SMITH. Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Following this letter the following order was issued from head quarters, Fort Sill, I. T., Oct. 10th.

Capt. P L. Lee, Ten'h Cavalry, SIR :- The lieutenant-colonel com manding directs that you march with Lieutenants Pepoon and My ers, Tenth Cavalry, fity picked men and horses of the same regi ment, and twenty Indian scouts, twenty days rations, eighty rounds of ammunition per man, and sixteen pack mules, well equipped, to Double Mountains, Texas, to capture or kill a small band of Coman THE BEST ASSORTMENT OF che Indians said to be secreted there, and depredating from there on the citizens of Texas. You will march by the way of China creek, the headwaters of the Beaver and Big Wiebita and Oroton creek to that point. Notice has been sent to the commanding officer at Fort Griffin of your march, with the request that a company be sent to aid you, and rations and forage. This company may be expected to join you by the 25th inst. After executing your instructions you will re turn to this post by the way of Griffin and Blebardson, by easy

Colonol Hughes East, of Greene county, the oldest stock General J. W. Davidson, commanman present, being called upon, responded somewhat as follows:

GENTLEMEN-You have called GENTLEMEN—You have called upon me for a speech, but I must say, that, like the hog that lies be tion of the citizens of his State, and in pursuance thereto, I would respectfully request, if practicable with the force at your command, that you will immediately put a patrol upon the southern bank of Red river with a supply camp, and if possible, make it so strong as to sitting on the togan of a receiving and while we must laugh while if possible, make it so strong as to sitting on the sence of expectation, prevent parties from passing out of yet what may be considered a "good the territory or returning without loke" for some, would be no laugh being observed. DAVIS SLAUGHTERS COKE AT THE FIRST MEETING.

Davis Greeted with Cheers Coke with COKE ACKNOWLEDGES HE HAS NOT

PAID HIS SCHOOL TAXES. Acknowledges he demanded One Thousand Dollars of the People of Limestone whom he had Votunterred to Defend.

Special to the State Journal,] The following telegram has been received, giving us a stirring account of the meeting of Governor Davis with Coke at Crockett. As might be expected, Coke went to the wall before the powerfull blows of his opponent. The Governor charged Coke with not paying his school taxes, and further, that Squire Coke had demanded of the people of Limestone a large tee to defend them in the martial law matter. Coke had to acknowledge the fact. And thus the bottom has been knocked out of the Coke ship, and the old hulk is sinking. It is evident that Coke needs some one to take care of him his friends might know that it he ver met Governor Davis the fight would be ended disastrons for their champion. From this out Governor Davis' canvass will be a triumphal march. Let the people rally.

CROCKETT, Nov. 8, 1873, Sudge Coke to-day was forced against his will to enter into joint liscussion with Governor Davis. Governor Davis closed amid rousing cheers. Coke, on being presented by the Governor, confessed, amid the jeers of the crowd, that he had not paid his school taxes, and that he had demanded one thousand dollars of the people of Limestone county to defend them against martial MARCHILDON.

Coke confesses that he rejoices in the cold-blooded assassination of a man in his own town, when he has no charge to make against the vio tim but the tact that he was an offloer of the State administration to aid you at the request of the He rejoiced in the assassination of Commissioner of Iudian Affairs.
