LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Mr. RAYNOH has given up his theatrical performances on account of the scarcity of money—he says Poor Man Antonio.

The festivals of the Alamo Literary Society are said to have been, so far, a great success. We acknowledge the receipt of complimentary tickets, but are sorry to have been, by previous engagement, prevented from using them. We will try to be present at the next festival.

PANCOST & SON have received a special assortment of goods to make up to order.

One of our employees, Mr. Baumback, telling that one of his peach trees is bearing fruit again. We apprehend this will be a fruitless attempt of said peach tree, considering the fair prospects of a little ice before us. Nevertheless we acknowledge the rarity of the phenomenon and pay our respect to the effort of the well-meaning tree.

The first genuine norther of the season sprang up day before yesterday and lasted all yesterday; it can now be said that winter has fairly set in, and there can be no doubt Jack Frost will make his appearance and present us with the first home-made ice. The flowers of our gardens will drop, and the last leaves of our trees will fall. But we rejoice in the fresh air, and we know our merchants welcome the advent of the season, where overcoats and blankets are in demand.

We learn our city fathers have turned their attention to the public nuisance, perpetrated on the west side of the San Pedro and generally known under the name of "Fandango." Everybody is familiar with the late history of these fandango gons know that they have been fairly set in motion by our democratic candidates for election purposes and that the authorities that saw nothing objectionable in them. Still we are of opinion that this nuisance ought to be done away with at once, and in connection herewith we would like to direct the attention of the proper authorities to the gambling hell flourishing in our city, one of which is said to be right in the center of the city.

PANCOST & SON have certainly the best assortment of shirts and ties, the very best silk and dogskin gloves, and fine white shirts to be found in the City. The stock just received.

MONDAY evening at about 8 o'clock the fire-bells rang again, and it was again a hay-stack that had caught fire and was smoldering down. The place of conflagration was away out of town, in a north-westerly direction from the Alamo Plaza. The Turner Hook and Ladder Company was prompt on the spot but there was not much work for them, except guarding the buildings in the neighborhood of the fire. Steam engine No. 2 then made its appearance and was soon in working order, pouring a full stream of water on the hay stack, changing it from a burning stack into a smoking one. Steam engine No. 1 arrived shortly afterwards, but had no engineer and no fire, and worse than that, when the fire was fairly started, it had not hose enough to reach the haystack. It was a full hour after our arrival at the place of conflagration that said engine spouted its first water. Now it appears to us that there is somewhere a screw loose in Company No. 1, and that it needs a reconstruction. We know that there are energetic gentlemen enough in the company, who understand their duty and are willing to do it, and if therefore needs scarcely any effort on our side to induce them to work. But as a general rule of the public welfare we thought it proper to lead their attention to the present state of affairs, which may, in case of a serious conflagration, prove calamitous to our city.

Call on PANCOST & SON to see the latest style of hats, just received.

Messrs. MANDELBAUM & KILLING respectfully call the attention of country merchants to their large stock of boots and shoes of their own make, offering them special inducements. [E. d. w. 3m]

If you want a pair of real good French calf skin boots or shoes, go to MANDELBAUM & KILLING, 60 Commerce St. They will make them for you out of the French calf skin at shortest notice and will warrant their work. Their employees are 14 workmen, and are therefore able to fill orders quicker than their tanners. They also keep on hand a stock of boots and shoes of their make and are certain that they can and satisfy everybody. [25-9-6-2m]

The Cooks of the Body.
The food that has been cooked in the kitchen must be re-cooked in the stomach before it can be applied to the nourishment of the body. As a means of facilitating this second cooking, in cases where the process is slowly and imperfectly performed, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is invaluable. It promotes the generation of heat in the living laboratory in which the crude materials for building up and renewing the human frame are turned into susceptible stimuli. But this is not all.

It acts beneficially upon the cellular membrane which secretes the gastric juice, thus purifying the liver, which produces that natural laxative, the bile, upon the vessels which receive the digested food, and upon the absorbents which connect the digestive system with the channels of circulation. In short, if any portion of this complex machinery be out of order the Bitters will set it right, promoting vigorous digestion, and the production and sustenance of blood.

Adams L. 4m

Messrs. MANDELBAUM & KILLING
keep the largest stock of boots and shoes in the State, they only sell brands of French and German calf skin which have already gained a reputation; also manufacture boots, gaiters & spurs of all kinds and styles. Shoemakers and saddle makers would do well to examine their stock before going elsewhere.

Mechanical Tickling
Cannot arrest the decomposition of teeth. Nothing will do this but that preservative and restorative which, under the name of Saponite, has become staple of the toilet throughout the world.

The New York Sun has analyzed the vote of the New York delegation in Congress on the test question as to the repeal of the sugar grab law, and finds that thirteen Republicans, four Democrats and one Liberal Republican voted against the steal, and nine Republicans and four Democrats voted for the steal. It is so recorded.
