On Election-day,

To-day is eliction day. What ar guments there were to be forwarded in favor of the Republican cause, we have presented to our readers and we can well say that we have done our work faithfully. We now leave it to the voters to do their part of the fight.

Ten short hours decide the battle and the fate of our fair State It is in your hands to place her fairly and squarely on the road of progress of liberty and civilization, or to engulf her in reaction, ruin and stagnation. It is in your hands to open a bright prospect for yourself and children or to blacken the days of your future! It is in your hand to contribute to the happiness of yourself, your families and the families of your fellow citizens, or to a degraded condition for the purpose of enriching a handful of unprincipled Demagogues. Consider well before you vote! Whatever you sow, you will reap. To the Republicans, we say, cast away all your personal inclinations. and obligations; do not consider the person, nor his nationality, but remember you vote for principles of liberty and equality before the law. Vote the straight-republican ticket and thereby show that you are Republicans indeed.

Go early to the polls and vote at once. Get your tickets from reliable persons that you know to be good Republicans, or from the Commit-ties appointed for that purpose. Vote in the Presince that you are Constitutional accordance to control of the control
