TOURING LOCAL RESIDENTS... Tuesday morning, approximately 150 local and area residents toured the Southwestern Public Service Company, Harrington plant in Amarillo. The group shown is representative of the large touring group, who formed a caravan for the trip to Amarillo. SPS officials praised the interest shown by the local community following announcement of a new electric generating plant to be constructed near Muleshoe. Preliminary work has already been done at the plant site nine miles east of Muleshoe.

Gil Lamb, who had open heart surgery at St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock last week, was reported at presstime to be recuperating without major complications.

He is, however, expected to be in the cardiac care unit for at least a couple of more days.

Family members reported that Aleck Shafer opened his eves at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock briefly late last week. He apparently recognized his father, Sonny Shafer, and

Cavitt Thanks Local People For Caravan

Late Tuesday, after returning from a trip to Harrington Electric Generating Plant at Amarillo, with approximately 150 local citizens, Dave Cavitt, manager of the local Southwestern Public Service Company office, was elated. He said he would like to express his personal thanks to the people of the community who supported the community and went to Amarillo on the SPS Goodwill Caravan tour Tuesday. According to Cavitt, this was the first time as many people had ever turned out to support a new industry in the community, and he said SPS officials were both pleased and overwhelmed.

Cavitt gave thanks to Harmon Elliott, chairman of the caravan, to the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture and to Deputy Bud Street, who led the caravan to Amarillo.

The well-organized tour, sponsored by the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, sped through Friona and Hereford but courtesy of local authorities who had controlled traffic in order for the caravan to make it through their towns with little or no interruption. Southwestern Public Service was a most gracious host, and arrangements had been made to serve the touring local residents a barbecue lunch. The tour members were shown how coal was dumped, conveyed into the plant then crushed and blown into the furnace, which provided heat for water in order to create steam. The steam then goes from the boiler to turbines, which in turn, create electricity. Upon arrival at the plant, Chamber representative Harmon Elliott presented SPS President Springer a key to the City of Muleshoe, and Springer reciprocated by presenting Elliott a plaque on behalf of SPS expressing his company's appreciation for the tour and interest shown by residents of Muleshoe and this area in coming to Amarillo and touring the plant.

Springer also announced that the prime contract for construction of the Tolk plant, near Muleshoe, had been awarded Missouri Valley, Inc. It was also announced that Green, presently assistant manager of Harrington Plant in Amarillo would be the new Tolk plant manager. His appointment is effective December 1 and after that time he will be working closely with production matters in the generating plant design department.

SPS President Springer explained that the Tolk plant, having two units, would produce as many kilowatts as all three of the Harrington plants. He also stated that SPS investments of approximately one half billion dollars, was equal to the company's total net worth in 1972.

On Monday, September 18, another first will be established in district Court in Bailey County. On this date will be the beginning of a trial with the largest number of defendants at one time in Bailey County history.

The trial will be for 27 persons all charged with being a combine for the manufacture and distribution of illegal drugs. Originally, 30 persons were indicted in the case, but only 27 will be tried.

With the largest trial in the history of the county coming up on the docket, it will be tried at the new Bailey County Civic Center and Coliseum, the only building in the city deemed large enough to hold the participants. Also, another first, will be the jury panel. A total of 311 persons have received a summons to appear as prospective jurors. All 311 persons were told to report to the coliseum at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, September 19.

The prospective jurors include:

Also discussed was the recent Labor Day Weekend projecat where the Jaycees set up their trailer and provided free coffee and lemonade to tired travelers. The Jaycees tion of the sealcoating termed the project 'very successful.'

The 22 Jaycees at the Monday meeting welcomed a new member, Gary Hanks. A special guest at the meeting was Barney

Ken Henry, who was out of town on business.

After a lengthy discussion on a proposed new traffic ordinance, to be known as the Muleshoe Traffic Ordinance, council members adopted the ordinance unanimously. The only revision in the more than 20 page ordinance was to remove suggested sign removals from the ordinance. Despite recommendations of a survey mended the removal of four way stop signs around way stops at all schools.

The ordinance does set a uniform speed of 20 miles person who is lucky per hour in all four school zones, but does not change the speed limits for school zones on west Highway 84. Another long time entrant of the weekly contest, Phillip Wilcox, was in third place. He missed the Duke-Georgia Tech game, and was close with 34 points away from the actual score of the two tiebreaker games.

Bad luck dogged two entrants. Both Bruce Woods and Owen Jones missed one game each, but neither put a tiebreaker score on the two bottom games. Woods missed the Duke-Georgia Tech game and Jones failed to guess the North Texas-Mississippi winner. Thus, their contests could not be counted except for the fact that either of them could have been the first or

DOES NOT TAKE WRONGS INTO ACCOUNT By Terry Bouchelle, 16th and D Church of Christ.

Once upon a time in the not-too-distant past there were two churchmen. These two God - fearing duct and happiness, others men lived in the same community and worshiped at the same church. Over the years one man had grown very bitter and unhappy because the people of the congregation had on many occasions ill-used him. As he frequently explained, he had been lied to, lied about, stolen from, cheated, slandered and abused beyond credibility. In fact, as he often recalled, there were few of his fellow men who had not in some way taken unfair advantage of him. He spent much of his time telling of the grievous offenses that he had suf-

The second churchman, likewise, had spent many years in the association of these same gentlemen. But rather than having become bitter, he had come to feel very kindly toward his fellow churchmen. He liked to tell of the kindnesses that had been shown him. He often explained how he had found that one could rely on, trust in and depend upon these good people for almost anything.

Considering the fact that both these men lived, worked and worshiped with the same people, what made the difference in the way they were treated? While this parable does not describe any two specific men, it does quite accurately relate a phenomenon that is not at all rare among congregations of God's people.

How can we explain the fact that the same fellowship that drives some people to bitterness brings about very pleasant memories in others? The answer, of course, it that it does neither. It is the individual, not the group, that determines the outcome of our lives. My attitude toward others determines the course and happiness of my life, not their attitude toward me. The Bible teaches this truth quite clearly; it also teaches us how to direct our lives that we may, like the second man in our parable, feel kindly toward

Jesus explained in Matthew 22:37-40 that all laws regulating man's conduct are amplifications of two fundamental commandments: to love God and to love one's fellow man. Paul wrote in Romans 13 that "love is the fulfilling of the law." In 1 Corinthians 13 Paul goes to great length to define what love is. Part of that definition of love explains why some people grow bitter while others grow mellow. The last phrase of the fifth verse is translated several ways, but all these translations give our answer:

An uncommon individual...

Grain Sorghum Sales Boosted For Overseas

Sales of grain sorghum to foreign buyers are an important part of U.S. agricultural income. But buying the wrong kind of sorghum for a particular use can leave the buyer with the impression that sorghum is a bad investment.

Dr. C. Reed Richardson, professor of animal science at Texas Tech University, is scheduled for an eightcountry tour of Europe to lecture on correct uses of grain sorghum in an attempt to end foreign misuse of grain sorghum. The trip is sponsored by the Foreign Agricultural Service Division of the U.S. Feed Grains Council.

"Often a foreign country

ghum that might, say, have a high tannic acid content and then feed it to poultry and swine," Richardson said. "Because tannic acid is not good for these animals, the producers will not get good results in feeding and will blame grain sorghum." Richardson said he would discuss different uses for various types of grain sorghum and which types to buy, as well as different methods of processing sorghum to improve its nutritional value.

He will be accompanied by Elbert Harp, executive director of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association, and Ben Baisdon, director of marketing for the Texas Department of Agriculture. Harp will provide the industry's perspective and Baisdon will discuss the economics of using grain sorghum compared with other feed grains

The group will leave Sept. 16 and return Oct. 4. Their itinerary included seminars and lectures in Edinburgh, London, Hamburg, Oslo, Stockholm, Warsaw, Vienna, Bucharest and Madrid.

Richardson was invited on the trip because of his knowledge of grain sorghum nutrition and expertise in processing.

weekly fishing report for most of the public lakes in the Texas Panhandle has furnished local anglers with up-to-date fishing conditions and the report was done voluntarily by fishery personnel stationed at the P&WD Canyon laboratory during the past two fishing seasons.

This report is considered as a method of increasing the fishing opportunities for all anglers and Joe Kraai, fishery project biologist, would loke comments from the public indicating whether he should schedule a similar fishing report next summer or eliminate it from his agenda.

Letters or phone calls should be directed to Joe Kraai, fishery biologist, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, P.O. Box 835, Canyon, Texas 79015 or call 806-655-4341.

Even though the fishing reports for the summer of 1978 are being stopped this month, some of the best fishing in the Texas Panhandle occurs in the fall.

As water temperatures drop, gamefish move into shallow water where they actively feed and are available to the angler. All species of fish including the walleye, largemouth and smallmouth bass, crappie, northern pike and sunfish become more active prior to winter. Fishing is more enjoyable at this time of the year with less competition from boaters and swimers.

SEPTEMBER WEDDING PLANS ... Mr. and Mrs. Lewis William Scott, Jr. of Houston wish to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Karen Ann to Tommy Owen Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones of Muleshoe. The wedding is set for September 23, at 7 p.m. in the Memorial Drive Lutheran Church of Houston.

NOVEMBER VOWS PLANNED ... Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ramm of Muleshoe wish to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Delores Ruth to Billy J. Owen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy J. Owen, Sr. The couple have set November 11 as their wedding date. Vows will be repeated at 7 p.m. in the Lutheran Church in Lariat. Miss Ramm is a 1975 graduate of Muleshoe High School and is employed at Beavers Flowerland. Owen is a 1975 graduate of Santa Cruz Valley Union High of Eloy, Arizona and is in Casa Grande, Arizona.

Muleshoe and L.R. Watson, Lubbock. Cantwell is the son of Charlie Cantwell, Waco and the late Mrs. Cantwell. The altar was set with twenty five potted ferns and pompus plumes which were bordered by individual floral bouquets surrounding an array of ivory candles held in brass candelabra. Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight chiffon over peau de soie. Fashioned with a natural waistline accented by a satin cumberbund, the bodice featured a high neckline outlined in lace with bishop sleeves of chiffon banded with satin cuffs edged in lace. The soft gathered skirt ended at floor length with a deep ruffle of chiffon. A cathedral length veil of illusion edged in delicate satin was attached to a caplet of lace and ended in a deep ruffle of chiffon to repeat the design of the bridal gown. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of Sonie roses.

Mrs. Dusty Davis, Beaumont, sister of the bride, attended as Matron of Honor. Serving as candlelighter was Lisa Cantwell, Austin, daughter of the groom. They both wore formal gowns of yellow Quiana which featured a slim gathered skirt attached to a softly gathered bodice completed with a cap sleeved jacket of chiffon. Flower arrangements of Sonie roses and baby's breath made up the bouquet carried by Mrs. Davis and a wristlet corsage worn by Miss Cantwell.

The groom was dressed in a dark brown tuxedo with ivory shirt and his attendants wore brown tuxedos with pale yellow shirts.

Guests at the wedding were registered by Mrs. Suzanne George, Fort

The couple was honored with a reception at the Westwood Country Club immdiately following the ceremony. Guests were registered by Denise Lowery of Austin.

The bride's table was laid with a multi-layered with ivory chiffon cloth. The three-tiered ivory wedding cake was decorated with miniature Sonie and yellow roses and was served by Mrs. Holly Doyle, Fort Worth, and Mrs. Kara Lee Ford, Little Rock, Ark. Fruit punch was served from a silver punchbown by Mrs. Suzanne George. Also served was finger sandwiches, Swedish meatballs, cheese varieties, and trays of fresh fruit and vegetable slices.

During the meeting, an executive committee was named. Chairman is Fred Poe, assistant city manager, from Midland; and members, Jake Geron, city manager, Brownfield; Erwin Looney, rate analyst for the City of Lubbock; Pat Stephens, commissioner from Canyon and J.E. Chisum, mayor of Littlefield. The group discussed the initial questions asked by the consultants of Pioneer and specifically talked about which areas need the first investigations, reported Finney. He said some of the priority topics for investigation were the 100 percent fuel cost adjustment; the manner in which Pioneer handles subsidiaries and methods the gas company used to designate management cost to subsidiaries. He added that the general discussion was on approach semantics. The steering committee also questioned the company's new practice to charge for services.

Additional meetings will be conducted in the near future, in what is expected to be a lengthy process in checking into Pioneer's request for a rate increase.

This year, Mr. Richardson selected eleven students for the 1978-79 Journalism Staff. From the 8th Grade there are 6 students: Kelly Bayless, Lynda Bell, Scott Campbell, Rhonda Dunham, Lee Free and Tamara Gilliland. From the 7th Grade there were 5 students: Sherri Bessire, Susie Hyde, Sharla Morrison, Mercedes Sayago and Melissa Wilbanks. In Journalism their job is to write and type up the F.B.I., and their other responsibility is to work hard on the Mule-Train Jr. This year the Annual will cost $6.50 until Sept. 15th. After that the Annual will go up to $7.00.

He likes the town of Muleshoe real well. We also asked him a couple of questions about coaching. He said that he was always wanted to be a coach. When asked the question, "What advice would you give to someone who wants to be a coach in the future?", he replied, "If a person wants to be a coach in the future, he should work in Athletics and with kids in sports as much as possible." The last question we asked Coach Morris was . "Using one word, describe the MJH Mules." He replied GREAT!!!!"

MJHS Starts Off Right On New Year

The first week of school started off fairly well. We talked to Mr. Mardis, he said it started off better this year than last year. There are now 381 students in M.J.H. There are three new teachers, Coach Morris, Mrs. Skaggs and Mrs. Wood. We also have a new Secretary, her name is Mrs. Taylor. There are 41 new students in Jr. High. Mr. Mardis said, "if everyone acts the same the rest of the year we won't have a closed campus this year. We only have one problem, people wanting to change their schedules, but I'm sure everything will turn out alright." Mr. Mardis thought Registration went just great this year. He thinks this will be one of our better years, because Jr. High has good students and a great facul-

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Creek has discovered a new project Russia has undertaken. Dear editor:

I have never believed that human nature doesn't exist in Russia but according to an article I read the other day the Russian government has set out to prove it doesn't. It is seeking a "psychological breakthrough" that will make a person like whatever job he is told to do. Discovering that its high schools are turning out too many college prospects and not enough manual mandate to cut it out. Stop teaching so much literature and other fancy subjects, they say. Too many students are trying to make high grades in high school so they can get into college and wind up with a desk job.

The school naturally will comply. I can hear them saying to their students: "This morning we will take up the subject of the Joy of Digging Post Holes." Next day it will be "The Delights of Chang-ing A Flat Tire In Mid-August." The text books will be written by somebody who has never done

I don't know why, but there are people who like physical work and would be miserable behind a desk, and there are others behind desks who would be flops anywhere else. If Russia can change that she is working with a different sort of human being than I'm acquainted with.

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS GENERAL ELECTION NOV. 7, 1978

PUBLIC NOTICE

"The Tax Relief Amendment"

(H.J.R. 1) H.J.R. 1 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution allowing the legislature to exempt intangible personal property, requiring the legislature to exempt certain household goods and personal effects, and allowing the legislature to exempt all or part of the personal property homestead from state and local property taxation. The amendment requires the legislature to provide for the taxation of farm and ranch land on the basis of its productive capacity instead of its market value and allows the legislature to provide for the taxation of timber land on its productive capacity. The amendment permits local governments to extend the present exemption of not less than $3,000 of the residence homestead of persons 65 and older to include certain disabled persons.

The amendment grants an exemption from public school property taxes of $5,000 of the market value of the residence homestead. It authorizes the legislature to grant an additional exemption from public school property taxes of an amount not to exceed $10,000 of the market value of the residence homesteads of persons 65 years of age or older and certain disabled persons. If a person 65 years of age or older qualifies for this exemption, the total amount of public school taxes imposed on that person's homestead may not be increased. The amendment prevents local governments from increasing property taxes unless the governing body provides public notice and conducts a public hearing. The amendment requires the legislature to provide by law for each property owner to receive notice of the revaluation of his property and the amount taxes will be increased.

The amendment limits appropriations from state tax revenue to an amount not to exceed Texas' estimated economic growth rate, with the legislature authorized to make exceptions for emergencies. The amendment prohibits the statewide appraisal of real property for property tax purposes. Enforcement of uniform standards and procedures for appraisal of property for property tax purposes is required to originate in the taxing authority where the property tax is imposed.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for tax relief for residential homesteads, elderly persons, disabled persons, and agricultural land; for personal property exemptions; for truth in taxation procedures, including citizen involvement; for a redefinition of the tax base; for limitations on state spending; and for property tax administra-

NUMBER ONE (S.J.R. 50)

S.J.R. 50 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to delete an archaic reference to the "Deaf and Dumb Asylum." The amendment would allow the State of Texas to purchase products and services done by handicapped individuals in nonprofit rehabilitation facilities without complying with bid requirements applicable to other state contracts. The amendment also would eliminate the formality of the approval of certain state contracts by the Governor, the Secretary of State and the Comptroller of Public Accounts. The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment deleting the archaic reference to the 'Deaf and Dumb Asylum,' allowing certain products and services of handicapped individuals to be used by agencies and departments of state government, requiring the procurement of other products and services required in the operation of state government to be made under bids awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, making all such procurement processes subject to laws enacted by the legislature, and eliminating the requirement that the Governor, the Secretary of State, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas

with such transactions."

S.J.R. 55 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to permit local governments to issue bonds for the reconstruction or acquisition of facilities (land, equipment and improvements) designed to develop employment opportunities. These bonds would be payable solely from the revenue from the sale or lease of these facilities. The building or acquisition of such facilities must be determined by the local government to be necessary to develop employment opportunities.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide that the legislature may permit political subdivisions to issue revenue bonds to develop ment opportunities for its amendment to the Texas Constitution which would allow the legislature to authorize cities and towns to issue tax increment bonds to finance the redevelopment of blighted areas. The bonds are to be paid solely from revenue from municipal tax increments. Payment cannot be made from the revenue of municipal taxes, utilities, or other services. The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to give the legislature the power to authorize cities and towns to issue bonds to finance the redevelopment of blighted areas and prohibiting any city or town from granting its money or lending its credit for such purposes.'

NUMBER FOUR (S.J.R. 53)

S.J.R. 53 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to allow the legislature to exempt from taxation solar or windpowered energy devices. The wording of the pro-will appear on the ballot is as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing posed amendment as it the legislature to exempt from taxation solar and wind-powered energy devices.

NUMBER FIVE (H.J.R. 37)

H.J.R. 37 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to grant exclusive jurisdiction to justices of the peace in civil cases where the amount in controversy does not exceed $200, except where the legislature gives exclusive jurisdiction to another court. The amendment grants justices of the peace concurrent jurisdiction with county courts where the amount in controversy is between $200 and $500, except where the legislature gives the county court exclusive jurisdic-

The amendment also grants justices of the peace concurrent jurisdiction with both county and district courts where the amount in controversy is between $500 and $1,000. except where the legislature gives the county or district court exclusive jurisdiction.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to extend the jurisdiction of justices of the peace in civil cases."

NUMBER SIX (S.J.R. 45)

S.J.R. 45 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to allow the legislature to expand the number of judges on any court of civil appeals. Presently courts of civil appeals are limited to a chief justice and two associate justices. amendment also would allow the courts to sit in sections, with the concurrence of a majority of the judges sitting in the section necessary to decide a constitutional "The amendment permitting the legislature to increase the number of justices on a court of civil appeals, permitting a court of civil appeals to sit in sections, and requiring a concurrence of a majority of justices to decide a case."

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

NUMBER SEVEN (S.J.R. 48)

S.J.R. 48 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution eliminating the State Building Commission and the State Building Fund. The authority of the State Building Commission has been transferred by law to the State Board of Control.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to repeal the constitutional authority for the State Building Commission and the State Building Fund."

NUMBER EIGHT (H.J.R. 42)

H.J.R. 42 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution allowing certain political subdivisions or districts in the state that can presently issue bonds or other indebtedness or otherwise lend its credit to engage in firefighting activities and to issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit to support such activities.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendments authorizing certain districts to engage in fire-fighting activities and to issue bonds or other indebtedness or to issue bonds or otherwise lend their credit for firefighting purposes.'

Post Office Packaging Is Practical Postmaster Tom Lobaugh

has issued a reminder to postal customers in the Muleshoe area that if the Postal Service's new packaging guidelines are followed, they can virtually eliminate damage to their parcels.

Postmaster Lobaugh said that checks at bulk mail plants show that more than 80 percent of all articles damaged in the mails were improperly packaged.

While the regulations and guidelines adopted recently by the Postal Service are detailed, they boil down to several basic steps that can help assure safe delivery, he explained.

First, select a strong car-

When a person is shipping dense or heavy materials, such as books, stronger boxes are required. For 10 pounds of books, the Postal Service recommends a box with a 175 pound burst test.

The Postal Service suggests that wrapping paper not be used on cartons. If a wrapper is torn or lost in transit, the mailing address can disappear. Further, the paper adds noth-

UN RESUMEN DE LAS ENMIENDAS

Missouri Could Lose To Alabama By 12

Our first national rankings of the top twenty college teams are still a week away, but Alabama's decisive win over Nebraska on opening day has put the Crimson Tide in the driver's seat as the Number One team in the country. And this week they meet a team they've never beaten! Missouri holds a two to nothing edge over the Tide, and the Tigers will be playing at home following their big 3-0 upset win over Notre Dame last week. Missouri, 4 and 7 in 1977, would like nothing better than to make the Crimson Tide upset victim #2. However, Alabama will beat Missouri for the first time ... the spread is 12 points.

The Penn State - Ohio State clash in Columbus will undoubtedly draw the biggest spotlight of the strength.

The use of masking and cellophane tapes for closing or sealing is prohibited. In transit they tend to peel off, and they have little strength. String is not recommended. If twine loosens, it can readily catch on processing machinery.

Instead, parcel post customers are urged to use the pressure-sensitive reinforced tapes. They are almost unbreakable.

A final suggestion from the postmaster: Enclose a return address card in the package so that it can be returned if the mailing label is damaged or lost.

day. The Buckeyes, 2 and 4 against the Lions, will be opening their 1978 season while Penn State has already beaten Temple and Rutgers. Ohio State's last outing, a 35-6 loss to Alabama in the Sugar Bowl, is a game they'd prefer to forget. And after going down to the last few seconds to beat Temple, the Nittany Lions were apparently already thinking Ohio State. Maybe that was the Buckeye trouble in January's Sugar Bowl! So...in football-mad Columbus...Ohio State by 13 points.

Another power that will be playing its 78 opener really doesn't want to forget its last outing. The Arkansas Razorbacks administered a real shocker in the Orange Bowl, pounding Oklahoma 31-6. Arkansas was beaten only by Texas, 13-9, en route to a 10 and one season. They host the Commodores of Vanderbilt, 2 and 9 in 1977, in Little Rock. Could be a shellacking ... Arkansas is favored by 28 points. Kentucky is off probation, and in spite of a couple of big holes left by graduation, the Wildcats will be tough. They open at South Carolina, and the Gamecocks already have a game under their belts. Kentucky should win by 17 points.

Elsewhere, Colorado is favored over Miami by 16 points. Michigan will whip Illinois by 37.. Clemson should start strong, beating The Citadel by 31.. and Pittsburgh is 35 points stronger than Tulane.

LA ENMIENDA PARA ALIVIO DE IMPUESTOS (H.J.R.1)

H.J.R. 1 propone una enmienda a la constitución de Texas permitiendo a la legislatura que exente pro-piedad personal intangible; requeriendo que la legislatura exente ciertos artículos caseros y efectos parti-culares; y permitiendo a la legislatura que exente todo o parte de la propiedad personal del hogar seguro, de la imposición de impuestos estatales y locales so-bre propiedad.

La enmienda requiere a la legislatura que disponga la imposición de impuestos sobre tierras agrícolas y rancheras basada en su capacidad productiva en vez de su valor de mercado y permite a la legislatura que disponga la imposición de impuestos a bosques de madera basada en su capacidad productiva.

La enmienda permite a los gobiernos locales que extiendan la exención actual de no menos de $3,000 del hogar seguro residencial para personas de 65 años o más de edad para incluir ciertas personas incapacitadas.

La enmienda concede una exención de $5,000 en el valor de mercado del hogar seguro residencial en los impuestos para es-cuelas públicas sobre propiedad. Autoriza a la legislatura que conceda una exencion adicional de los impuestos para escuelas públicas sobre propiedad de una cantidad que no exceda $10,000 del valor de mercado de hogares seguros residenciales de perso. nas 65 años or más de edad y ciertas personas incapa-citadas. Si la persona de 65 años o más de edad es elegible para esta exen-ción la cantidad total de los impuestos para escue-las públicas sobre el hogar seguro de aquella persona no puede incrementarse.

La enmienda previene que gobiernos locales incrementen los impuestos sobre propiedad a menos que el cuerpo administrativo provea aviso público y lleve a cabo una audiencia pública. La enmienda re-quiere a la legislatura que disponga por ley que cada propietario reciba aviso de la revaluación de su pro-piedad y la cantidad de incremento en sus impuestos. La enmienda limita las apropiaciones de los ingre-sos de impuestos estatules en una cantidad que no exceda la tasa de crecimiento económico estatal que se anticipa, con la legislatura antorizada para conceder exenciones de emergencia.

La enmicada prohibe la valuación de propidad inmueble a través del estado para los fines de impues-tos sobre propiedad. Se re-quiere que la ejecución de normas y procedimientos uniformes para la valuación de propiedad con el propósito de impuestos socon la autoridad que pone los impuestos sobre propiedad.

La terminología de la enmienda propuesta tal como aparecerá en la boleta es como sigue:

"La enmienda constitucional disponiendo alivio de impuestos para hogares seguros residenciales, per-sonas mayores de edad, personas incapacitadas, y tierras agrícolas; exten-ciones de bienes muebles; la verdad en procedimien-tos tocante a la imposición de impuestos, incluyendo participación de ciudadanos: de nuevo definiendo la base de impuestos; limitando los gastos del esta-do; y la administración de impuestos sobre propie-

S.J.R. 50 propone una enmienda a la constitución de Texas para eliminar la referencia arcaica al "Instituto de Sordos y Mudos." La enmienda permi-tiria al estado de Texas que compre productos y servicios de individuos in-capacitados en facilidades de rehabilitación no lucra tivas sin cumplir con los requisitos de oferta que se aplican a otros contratos estatales. La enmienda también eliminaria la formalidad de la aprobación de ciertos contratos estata-les por el Gobernador, el Contralor de Cuentas Públicas.

La terminología de la enmienda propuesta tal como aparecerá en la boleta es como sigue: "La enmienda constitu-cional eliminando la refe-rencia arcaica al "Instituto de Sordos y Mudos, permitiendo que ciertos productos y servicios de personas incapacitadas sean usados por agencias y departamentos del gobierno del estado, requeriendo que otros productos y ser-vicios requeridos en la operación del gobierno del es-tado sean obtenidos por ofertas concedidas al postor responsable que ofrezca el precio más bajo, haciendo que todos los procesos de procuración sean sujetos a las leyes estable-cidas por la legislatura y eliminando el requisito qui el Gobernador de Texas, el Secretario de Estado, y el Contralor de Cuentas Pú blicas de Texas participen personalmente en tales negociaciones."

"La enmienda constitucional para disponer que la legislatura puede permi-tir que las subdivisiones políticas emitan bonos de ingresos, para desarrollar oportunidades de empleo para sus ciudadanos.

S.J.R. 44 propone una enmienda a la constitución de Texas que permitiría que la legislatura autorize a ciudades y pueblos la emisión de bonos de impuestos incrementados para financiar el desarrollo de areas deterioradas. Solamente se pagarán los bonos de los ingresos de los incrementos en impuestos municipales. No pagos se pueden hacer de los ingresos de impuestos municipales, servicios públicos u otros servicios.

La terminología de la enmienda propuesta tal como aparecerá en la boleta es como sigue:

"La enmienda constitucional que da a la legisla-tura el poder de autorizar las ciudades y pueblos para expedir bonos para finan-ciar el desarrollo de areas deterioradas y prohibir cualquier ciudad o pueblo de conceder su dinero o prestar su crédito para tales fines."

S.J.R. 45 propone una enmienda a la constitución de Texas para permitir que la legislatura aumente el número de jueces en cual-quier corte de apelaciones civiles. Al presente, cortes de apelaciones civiles están limitadas a un juez presidente y dos jueces asocia-dos. La enmienda también permitiría a las cortes que sesionen por secciones, con la concurrencia de una mayoría de los jueces en la sección siendo necesaria para decidir una causa.

La terminología de la enmienda propuesta tal como aparecerá en la boleta es como sigue:

NOTICE

Pioneer Natural Gas Company, a division of Pioneer Corporation, hereby gives notice of its intent to implement new rates for residential and commercial, small industrial and air conditioning customer classes in the 63 cities and towns on its West Texas Distribution System, effective September 15, 1978. It is anticipated that the new rates will result in a 26.4% increase in Pioneer's gross revenues on its West Texas Distribution System, which increase is a "major change" as defined in Section 43(b) of Article 1446c, V.A.T.C.S.

A Statement of Intent to change said rates was filed with each of the cities and towns (listed below) on or about August 11, 1978, and is available for inspection at the Company's Amarillo office, 301 S. Taylor Street.

Schedule Set For Senior Citizens Van

It is expected that the Senior Citizens Transportation Program will be officially and formally put into operation Monday morning, Sept. 18, and any person interested in its services should call Mss Elizabeth Harden at 272-3682 so she may program

Lettering has been placed on the van so it will be easily identified. R.D. Gilliland will be the driver and Elizabeth Harden will attend to the dispatching and referral services. Persons 60 years of age or over are eligible to ride, and it will run such errands as shopping trips, going to the doctor, voting, registering to vote, etc.

Routes have been established as follows, On Monday, local calls will be made in and around Muleshoe; Tuesdays, it will go to Lubbock and back; Wednesday, is double stamp day in Muleshoe, Progress and West Camp Communities; Thursday the van will go to the south part of the county and east of Highway 214, Needmore, Circle Back, and Bula Communities; and Friday, it will go to the south part of the county and west of highway 214, Enochs, Maple, Goodland, Stegall, Baileyboro and Longview Communities.

Hours have been established as being from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. with the likelihood that the trip to Lubbock will require an extra hour or two. People who need or desire the services are urged to call Miss Harden and explain who they are, where they live, what their needs are, and the days they need the services. This way a clientelle can be built up and available when the van is ready to go Monday morning, Sept. 18.

The Senior Citizen hopes that the van will prove a valuable service to the Senior Citizens of this community, and if the Commissioner's court may be of further assistance, they ask that you feel free to let them know.

CONTRACTOR CONTRACTOR

Robert G. Lewis, National tural issues in a series of regional meetings across Texas.

All area farmers and ranchers in Bailey County are included in TFU District II and are encouraged to attend the special meeting and luncheon scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 19 at 12 noon at the Memorial Building in Crosbyton.

Meal tickets are $4.00

Principle topics will be recent progress toward an international floor price for wheat, problems with disaster programs and land ownership and the effects of foreign investment and speculation.

Lewis enjoys the respect and acclaim of many for his expertise in the field of economics and international trade. He has served in wide variety of posts ranging from service to the USDA, the United Nations and the Kennedy Administration. He was Vice President of the Commodity Credit Corporation and Deputy Administrator of ASCS from 1961 to 1965. He has also served as consultant in the fields of food economics and rural land use and development planning and his articles are often seen in various national periodicals. We are pleased to be able to bring such an outstanding agricultural economist out to these meet-Naman. ings," says "Farmers and ranchers in Texas are ready again to get back to the business of dealing with the economic and political issues that affect their futures. We are designing our meetings to provide some of the current facts and hope to receive input in return as to the directions we should be taking. I might also add that we are looking for commitments that farmers are not finished fighting." Continued interest among congressmen to solve farm problems has been displayed recently in meeting between three U.S. senators and agricultural officials from Canada. In that informal meeting concensus was reached that producing nations recent special tax session should end "cutthroat" competition and make efforts to establish price floors in sales of commodities to developed industrial and oil nations, an initial minimum for wheat at $4 a bushel. Lewis will discuss the details of that meeting and its effects on other farm commodities. In Texas, the farm organization is gearing toward the January legislative session. Discussion of the and its direction to tax agricultural lands on productive values will be tied to upcoming issues of foreign land investment and credit aid to young farmers.

"Our goal is to constantly provide a forum for education and a vehicle for action for the individual farmer," says Naman. "We hope these district meetings will do just
