THE PUBLISHERS OF THE EXPRESS.
AUSTIN, Tex., March 27, 74.

for San Antonio Express: The many libelous articles and just comments of your cotem-porary the San Antonio Herald with its voluminous correspondence from its horde of scurrilous scribblers at Fort Clark casting reflections on the republican administration of Kinney County, charging it with oppression and corruption in the administration of the affairs of said County, and exulting on what they now term its overthrow by the Legislature on account of the passage of the bill entitled "An Act to organize the County of Kinney; impels me at this moment in vindication of right and justice, and to show to the world and the people of Texas particularly, the nature of the legislation had in this case, the bitter partisan feeling developed in the discussion of this bill, and the unconstitutional nature of the remedy applied to destroy the present existing good, full and perfect organization of said Kinney County.

Probably there has been no bill passed by the 14th Legislature which exhibits in its provision a greater disregard of constitutional rights and privileges, a more utter recklessness in legislation and a more willful and absolute despotism in its tendency than this very bill disorganizing the County of Kinney. It is a precedent established by this Legislature towards county organizations which is dangerous and to say the least revolutionary, it applies as equally to Bexar Co. or Galveston Co., the most popular, as it has been applied to Kinney the least known and most obscure. Notwithstanding the recent amendments to the constitution adopted at the recent general election and ratified by joint resolution of the legislature prohibiting it from passing any special laws interfering in County affairs, this 14th Legislature disregarding this 14th Legislature constitutional prohibitions has not only usurped constitutional powers but is trying to destroy constitutional vested rights and privileges arbitrarily and despotically.

The plain letter and spirit of the organic law of the land, Kinney County although comparatively young has stood prominent as the most prominent republican county on the Rio Grande Frontier of Texas. It is officered by officials of ability, fact and integrity through their popularity growing from these estimable qualities a republican majority which it has at every political contest is undoubtedly mainly due. Therefore to this organization is not only aim and object of the disorganization, emagogues and disappointed candidates for office, but the main platform of the Rio disorganization seems to have been by any means turally took a deep and abiding interest in the bill then pending.

The bill disorganizing Kinney Co. was introduced by Russell of Brownsville or as he is more familiarly known as necessity Russell, and in this case he was certainly a necessity, for I don't suppose any man in the State of Texas shows a more brazen effrontery and shameless disregard of common decency under the veil of hypocrisy and quite of dissimulation, than this same Russell, possessing neither talents nor legislative ability, he depends for success on loud braying, sour look, repulsive aspect and threatening gestures, and with all these unemiable qualities he seldom excites the attention of his audience. It was necessity and absolute necessity alone that induced the people of the 30th district to send such a character to represent them in the legislative halls. However this being Russell's pet scheme and being made partisan in its character, it was rushed through the Senate with lightning speed on the 6th of February and sent to the House as quick as feet could carry it.
Here it was referred to the Committee on Counties and County Boundaries before which Russell appeared with a petition purporting to be signed by 15 or 20 residents of Kinney Co. who were asking to be relieved from the oppression and despotism of Kinney Co. officials.
In his arguments before the Committee Russell meeting with opposition of Florence O'Haggarty, a delegate from Kinney Co., sent to protect the interests of his County, Russell adopted the same loud braying, sour looks, repulsive aspects and threatening gesture (which he usually wears when discussing in the Senate) with a view of searing O'Haggarty in to silence, but O'Haggarty who is charged in the petition with being an Alien, and with holding several County, State and federal positions and some "other high crimes and misdemeanors," not being scared and determined to fight the tigers in their den, denied every allegation contained in the petition, and offered a counter petition signed by over one hundred voters of his County in corroboration of his statement and showing the organization and perfect and harmonious working of their County machinery. O'Haggarty offered to back up this statement under oath and papers as sent for, but disregarding his testimony, his pleas and his just demands, and blinded by partisans prejudice with an eye single to the destruction of the republican element throughout the State, the passage of the bill was recommended, and reported accordingly. In the House the bill was put upon its passage, under a suspension of the rules. Notwithstanding the protests of a few conscientious democratic members who could not remain silent and see the constitution so outrageously violated and the vested rights and privileges of the citizens trampled upon. It is time that the people of Texas should awake and reflect and pledge and bind themselves to hurl such usurpers and despots from place and power. A dangerous precedent has been set, which is applicable alike to every organization throughout the State and to every citizen thereof. The organization of Bexar or Travis Co. is as likely under such a precedent to be destroyed and held for naught, as the frontier County of Kinney's corporation has.

Being acquainted with the frontier somewhat and seeing the manner in which this bill was manipulated through the Legislation of right for asking a these remarks.

INDEX.

it to the jurisdiction of Maverick. There can be no cause of action for this action of the Legislature, except that Kinney county had Reputation official, while Maverick County was entirely democratic.
However, be that as it may, the sheriff of the latter county came here on Thursday with an armed force and awaited the arrival of Judge Haggarty from Austin, for the purpose of demanding from him the county property.
On the arrival of the Judge demand was made on him by the sheriff and his posse for a turning over of the county property which was promptly refused on the part of the Judge, whereupon the sheriff and his posse proceeded to take possession by force of arms of the County Clerk's office and Judges office and other county property. Judge Haggarty interposed, and believing the action of the Maverick officials as nothing less than gross usurpation directed the sheriff of Kinney county to arrest the marauders. The Mavericks barraaded the doors and kept an armed force within and out of doors, fully prepared for the conflict. On the arrival of Judge Haggarty's forces he directed the mob to disperse, which they refused to do, whereupon the fight began but was soon ended resulting in the complete overthrow of the Kinneyites, they being outnumbered and outarmed by their opponents.
In the fracas Holliday's colored man was killed.

Brackett city has been considered the most lawless place on the Western frontier of Texas, but now that it is completely in the hands of the Mobocracy, we can only surmise at its sad condition—but so long as the limpid waters of the Las Moras flow between us and them, we may consider ourselves safe, were it otherwise, our residence here would be very little above a station in Pandemonium.
The village is an entire rum shop filled with lewd women and desperate men who aim the din of drunken revelry and riot comming in the continual warfare-turmoil and debauchery of the place and make night hideous.

The Stomach's Beverage.
The stomach cannot be maltreated with impunity. Overload it with food, irritate it with fiery liquors, impair its activity or vitiate its juices by any outrage on the laws of health, and it revenges itself through the liver, the bowels, the kidneys, the lungs, and the nervous system, and sometimes through all these organs simultaneously, or in succession. There is scarcely any variety of bodily or mental pain or discomfort which it does not inflict upon those who abuse and overtask its powers. Under these circumstances there is but one medicine to which the sufferer can resort to with the certainty of obtaining immediate and permanent relief. The most wholesome and genial of all stomachics and cathartics, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, produces an immediate and most beneficial change in the condition of the patient. The whole digestive system is at once invigorated and soothed, the liver regulated and toned, the bowels relieved of all obstructions, the spirits cheered, and the relaxed nerves strengthened and steadied.

A PETITION is circulating praying the County Court to withdraw the appeal in the railroad bond case. This is a singular proceeding, to say the least of it. Petitioning a court to stop the execution of its sworn duty is an entirely modern invention and can only have originated in the brain of a modern railroad lawyer.
Suppose we petition Mr. Peirce to make an end with our troubles and put in his bond just these few words, "that this contract was binding upon him from the date the result of the election was recorded" - wouldn't that settle all difficulties and touch the County Judges with emotion? It is such a trifling for Mr. Peirce to come down with those few lines, and it is so annoying to run around and solicit subscriptions.

NAPOLEON THE FOURTH's young head is remarkably level, or the Empress Eugenie and M. Rouher are playing his cards well for him. His offer to leave the re-establishment of the Empire to a plebiscite puts Chambord, with his claims based on the "Divine right," out of the way for good and all. If there is a plebiscite, it is safe to predict that the result will be whatever President MacMahon desires it to be. They manage those things very well in France, and the machinery of the Department of the Interior being once set in motion with all its prefects, sub-prefects, councillors, mayors and judges of the peace to grind out ballots for or against, as the case may be, there is no doubt as to the result. And what President MacMahon's sentiments are may be inferred from the significant fact that the orders recently transmitted to officers and public functionaries forbidding them to attend the Chislehurst celebration, spoke of Eugenie and her son as the "Empress" and the "Prince Imperial," not as the "ex-Empress" and "ex-Prince Imperial."
